King's House: Some Thoughts on Pastor Workshops

From the evening of October 22nd through the 26th I will have been in Buffalo at the Christ the King's Retreat Center, or what we priest's affectionately call "King's House". The week was not for rest and relaxation nor for a spiritual retreat, but for a Pastor Workshop. The newly formed Institute for Ongoing Clergy Formation headed by Deacon Dan Gannon and based out of The Saint Paul Seminary has partnered with the Leadership Roundtable, a national institute teaching Clergy agreed upon best practices for service and excellence in Church Management.

As I told my students in 7th Grade Religion Class, which I am newly teaching this academic year three days a week, by means of a blog post through google classroom that "this is School for me", and "learning never ends." This workshop and other continuing education offerings is the fruit of Archbishop Hebda and Bishop Cozzens efforts to better support priests in every aspect of living their vocation. Thus a comprehensive plan for Ongoing Clergy Formation offerings has been created for newly ordained priests in their capacity as Parochial Vicars. They have also created a structure for new Pastors so that they may benefit from the wisdom and guidance of an assigned mentor Pastor with experience in the various aspects of Parish Life including Leadership and Administration.

Within five years a Parochial Vicar aka Associate Pastor will be assigned with the responsibilities of a pastor. When I arrived at Sacred Heart in July of 2008 after two assignments nothing like what is being offered now was provided to me and other priests making the transition from Parochial Vicar to Pastor. The only real training we received came from the Pastors that we had worked with as the Parochial Vicar. Their style and way of leading a parish naturally became the basic reference point for me for good or for ill. I do love the Pastors that I worked with as a Parochial Vicar, and have learned from them, but how I wish there also had been a more formalized plan for ongoing clergy formation for Parochial Vicars and new pastors who work in parishes or as older priests would say, "in the trenches".

Of course there is only so much you can learn at a workshop. Learning by doing is important, because knowledge must be applied, but simply doing something in order to learn how to do it also means that the learning and praxis becomes more open to mistakes easily avoided with better training. A good example for this is swimming. If you teach yourself how to swim without learning the various swim strokes and how to implement them properly the effort you put in relative to swimming laps will be more effort for lesser results, and by that I mean you work harder but go slower without knowing good technique.

We should all be grateful that Archbishop Bernard Hebda is creating structures of support for priests and deacons that will serve them in their ministry and hence serve the entire flock. These supports and ongoing formation structures act like flying buttress that enables a Gothic Cathedral like Notre Dame in Chartres, or Notre Dame, Paris. The flying buttress supports the exterior walls in such a way that the building can reach even higher with those expansive kind of windows of stained glass that we have come to know and love in our Catholic Tradition.

Sacred Heart Catholic School

Sacred Heart
October 29, 2017

The staff and I attended the first ever Catholic Schools Center of Excellence (CSCOE) Summit on October 18th at the Mpls. Convention Center with over 2000 educators and staff from the Archdiocese of St. Paul & Mpls. We began the day celebrating a beautiful mass with Archbishop Hebda and the Handmaids of the Heart of Jesus from New Ulm leading us in song. Then staff had the choice of three breakout sessions. We ended the day with Key-note speaker Jonathan Doyle. It was an exhilarating day full of inspiring, informational sessions. We are appreciative of all the sponsors that made this day happen. Thank you CSCOE!

Unity Day-October 25th --Non-uniform day/Wear Orange

Together against bullying. United for kindness, acceptance and inclusion. Make it orange and make it end! We came together on Wednesday to send one large ORANGE message of support, hope, and unity to show that we are together against bullying and united in kindness. Each class participated in lessons/activities and created an all-school bulletin board outside the school office.

Tackling the Catholic Faith

Former NFL center Matt Birk will share his journey of growing up Catholic, falling away in college (and beyond), and how football actually saved his life. Matt's not a catechist - he's a lineman. He breaks down the fundamentals of the Faith in a way that anyone can understand and put into practice.

TRUE REFORMERS SAINTS OF THE CATHOLIC REFORMATION

Session 3– Saint Philip Neri: The Apostle of Joy November 7

Two sessions will be offered. During the day from 1-2:30pm and an evening session 7-8:30pm.

To a Rome ravaged by war and wearied by the decadence of the Renaissance popes, Saint Philip Neri came as an unlikely reformer. Mystic, hermit, prankster, and effortless leader of men, Neri had a great sense of humor and an even greater heart. His creative response to the challenge of the Reformation era earned him the title “the Apostle of Rome.”

Fr. Robert Barron’s Catholicism The Pivotal players

Bishop Robert Barron’s CATHOLICISM: The Pivotal Players is a multi-part film series that illumines a handful of saints, artists, mystics, and scholars who not only shaped the life of the Church but changed the course of civilization.

The weekend of 4-5 & 11-12 after the 5 PM, 8AM and the 10 AM Masses

Refreshments will be served Running Time 80 Minutes

November 4-5: Michelangelo- The Artist Part 1

November 18-19: Michelangelo- The Artist Part 2

The master of sculpture and painting is not a saint but serves as the privileged representative of the creative potential engendered by the Catholic Faith. The Church professes that beauty is a route of access to God, and through humanity’s creative artistry we glimpse the power and glory of the Lord.

This month we will view a video from Fr. Spencer Howe, "Strive to Be a Spiritual Father Like St. Joseph." Please consider joining us. Contact Ken Timmerman at ken.timmerman@gmail.com if you have questions.

Blood Drive Coordinator:

The Men's Club is looking for a coordinator to lead our twice a year blood drives, starting in June of next year. Dr. Paul Williams will lead the December drive, then would like to turn it over to someone new after that. The Red Cross always look forward to our drives as we have consistently had a large number of donors. Please contact Ken Timmerman at ken.timmerman@gmail.com if you have interest or questions regarding this.

REMINDER-Appalachia Mission Program -2017

Another year has passed and it is time to respond to the Appalachian Christmas Program. Thank you so much for your generosity in past years! We will continue to help Fr. Thobias, MC and Fr. Richard Watson stock their "Christmas Tree Store." The people of Kentucky really appreciate all of the wonderful gifts that you give and we send. The gifts are not wrapped so a family member can choose the gifts that meet their family needs. Please be generous as possible for many families these are the only gifts they receive for Christmas. All gifts can be dropped off at Sacred Heart between October 8 and November 4.

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated throughout the United States this year on October 29. It is a day set aside to reflect upon and affirm the role of our priests in the life of the Church. Priesthood Sunday is promoted by the United States Council of Serra International. Members of the Serra Club of North-Minneapolis have made available Bookmark/Prayer Cards to be distributed at all the Masses as a means to remember in prayer our pastors and priests who serve us. You may also wish to drop a note of appreciation to our priests thanking them for providing the gift of the sacraments and for the many ways they serve our Church and community.

The Serra Club, whose patron is St. Junipero Serra, is an apostolate dedicated to promoting vocations to the ordained priesthood and vowed religious life in the Catholic Church. For more information contact MaryAnne Frank at 612-669-4221 or mafrank09@gmail.com

Parents, Grandparents and Godparents for the Sacred Heart of Jesus Cenacle

As parents, grandparents, and godparents, we believe that praying for our children, grandchildren and godchildren, is one of the best ways we can impact their lives. So whether your child is young or young at heart, we will ask God to guide them in the ways of faith, that he will bless their health, and guide their way of life. Our group trusts in God and we acknowledge Him as being present in our lives and in the lives of our children. Our hope is that our prayers will help all children, that we love and care about, to see how God is present in their lives. Please join us for Mass on Saturday November 4 at 8:00am, followed by a Rosary at the Altar of Our Lady.
