Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

Jesus is Lord, Christ is King!

Written on Monday, November 20th, 2017

From the Heart

This final Sunday after Pentecost, and last Sunday before the start of Advent and the new liturgical year we celebrate The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The sacred scriptures attest that Jesus is Lord, that Christ is King, in several places.

St. Luke: "For today in the city of David a savior has been born for you who is Christ and Lord." Lk 2:11

St. Paul: "Because of this, God greatly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father." Phil. 2:9-11

St. John: "They will fight with the Lamb, (N.B. here 'They' refer to followers of the 'Beast,' aka Satan), but the Lamb (N.B. the 'Lamb' is Jesus), will conquer them, for He is Lord of lords and king of kings, and those with Him are called, chosen, and faithful." Rv. 17:14

And my favorite in St. Peter's letter: "But sanctify Christ as Lord in your hearts. Always be ready to give an explanation to anyone who asks you for a reason for your hope." 1 Pt. 3:15

To truly be King of the Universe Jesus must be lord of every part of our heart. This is precisely the challenge each one of us faces, since at times our human will chooses to rebel against our reason, and desires to be Lord alone. It is one of the false idols of our day, the equating of freedom with autonomy - "freedom from," rather than "freedom for." Catholic theology calls it Original Sin. Baptism brings the soul forgiveness of sin, but does not remove all its effects.

The psalmist points out the way writing: "The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; understanding marks all who attain it. His praise endures forever!" Ps. 111:10. Living filial "Fear of the LORD," making Jesus Lord, and King of our whole heart, I find to be a process, and the work of a lifetime, but this sanctification is how saints are made. When Robert Frost wrote: "And miles to go before I sleep, And miles to go before I sleep," perhaps he was referring to this work.

"Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening:"

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

Appointed Sunday Readings

Christ, King of the Universe-11/26/17

First Reading: As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. (Ez 34:12)

Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading: For since death came through man, the resurrection of the dead came also through man. For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life. (1 Cor 15:21-22)

Gospel: "Then the king will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.'" (Mt 25:34-36)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings

Epistle: Brethren, we cease not to pray for you...(Colossians 1: 9-14)

Stewardship

Sacred Heart's Increased Offertory Program Commitment Sunday is this weekend at all Masses. We encourage all parishioners to complete and turn in your Commitment Cards to the church. The Commitment Card contains information on how to plan your increased offertory gift to the church, and asks for your commitment over the next year. If you have any questions regarding this program, how to give electronically, or did not receive a Commitment Card, please contact the parish office. Thank you for your support of Sacred Heart!

For Weekly Contribution Information:

Please Contact the Parish Office.

FLOWER CHRISTMAS FUND

Once again it is time for our Christmas Flower Fund to make donations for flowers to decorate the church. The special contribution envelope for the Christmas Flower Fund in your packet DOES NOT have a space on the back of the envelope to indicate "In memory of a loved one". Please indicate on this special envelope (or regular envelope) the person for whom your donation is dedicated. You may also drop off your Christmas Flower Fund donation to the parish office on or before Monday December 18 to be included in the Christmas insert. Thank you!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

One day when I was walking the city streets where I was giving a series of talks, I saw what appeared to be an older woman hunched over with a sign asking for help. At first I passed her, on my way to visit the local drugstore. But then I came back around when I realized that I had not been very mindful upon first seeing her. I didn't have much cash to give her, but as I always tell everyone else in my talks, oftentimes what people need more than cash is someone to at least acknowledge them. I reached into my pocket to give her what little I had and I simply said, "Hello. I hope you are okay and I hope you can use this." When her face turned toward me I saw she was probably only about sixteen years of age and she was very beautiful. She smiled immediately and said how much this meant to her. She gathered up her few belongings and I watched her walk to a café for a meal. I turned to walk back to my lodging and I thought to myself, "She could have been my daughter." That's when the still, small voice spoke to me saying, "Don't you understand? That was your daughter!"

Who is your daughter or son, your mother or father? Who is your neighbor? Better yet, in whom do you see Jesus? A young homeless girl on the street can take on so many forms: stranger, neighbor, daughter, and Jesus. Unless we are mindful of those in our midst, we miss the chance to see any of them. We must never be fooled by appearance. That day I almost missed seeing my Lord.

-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Faith Formation

TRUE REFORMERS SAINTS OF THE CATHOLIC REFORMATION

Session 5– St. Teresa of Avila: A Study in Perseverance December 5

Two sessions will be offered. During the day from 1-2:30pm and an evening session 7-8:30pm.

Nobly born, wealthy, captivating, and headstrong, Teresa de Ahumada was unlikely timber for a great work of renovation. After many years of complacent living in a fashionable convent, Teresa was drawn into a mystical embrace and learned directly from Divine Inspiration what a life more pleasing to God would be. The last twenty years of her life were a whirlwind of activity as she founded the Discalced or reformed branch of the Carmelites in Spain.

Parents, Grandparents and Godparents for the Sacred Heart of Jesus Cenacle

As parents, grandparents, and godparents, we believe that praying for our children, grandchildren and godchildren, is one of the best ways we can impact their lives. So whether your child is young or young at heart, we will ask God to guide them in the ways of faith, that he will bless their health, and guide their way of life. Our group trusts in God and we acknowledge Him as being present in our lives and in the lives of our children. Our hope is that our prayers will help all children, that we love and care about, to see how God is present in their lives. Please join us for Mass on Saturday December 2 at 8:00am, followed by a Rosary at the Altar of Our Lady
