12th Anniversary of the Dedication of The Church of the Sacred Heart

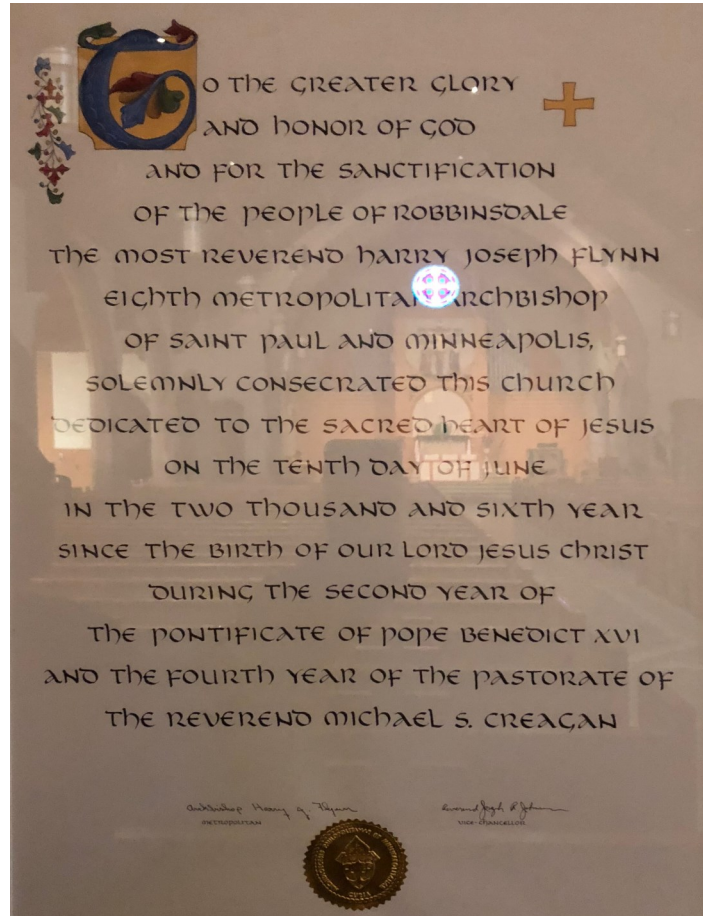

From the Pastor — written on June 6, 2018

CONCERNING ANNIVERSARIES, BISHOPS, CONSECRATIONS, & DEDICATIONS

We are very excited to welcome Archbishop Bernard Hebda, the chief shepherd of our Local Church, the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis this Sunday as we celebrate the 12th Anniversary of the Dedication of the Church of the Sacred Heart. Our parish was founded by Archbishop John Ireland in 1911. The “new” church was built and opened for service in 1958. It would have been blessed at the time of its opening, however, the rite of solemn consecration known to us today as the Rite of a Dedication of a Church only took place in 2006 after a sanctuary redecoration project. To understand better the idea of a consecration and how it differs from a simple blessing the Catholic Encyclopedia is quite helpful. Below is an excerpt of the article on “Consecration” found at www.newadvent.org/cathen/04276a.htm.

“Consecration, in general, is an act by which a thing is separated from a common and profane to a sacred use, or by which a person or thing is dedicated to the service and worship of God by prayers, rites, and ceremonies. Among the Romans whatever was devoted to the worship of their gods (fields, animals, etc.) was said to be consecrated, and the objects which pertained intimately to their worship (temples, altars, etc.) were said to be dedicated. These words were, however, often used indiscriminately, and in both cases it was understood that the object once consecrated or dedicated remained sacred in perpetuum (In perpetuity). The Church distinguishes consecration from blessing, both in regard to persons and to things. Hence the Roman Pontifical treats of the consecration of a bishop and of the blessing of an abbot, of the blessing of a corner-stone and the consecration of a church or altar. In both, the persons or things pass from a common, or profane, order to a new state, and become the subjects or the instruments of Divine protection. At a consecration the ceremonies are more solemn and elaborate than at a blessing. The ordinary minister of a consecration is a bishop, whilst the ordinary minister of a blessing is a priest. At every consecration the holy oils are used; at a blessing customarily only holy water.”

COMMEMORATIVE SCROLL OF 2006 DEDICATION

Likely reasons why the Consecration did not take place in 1958 relates to two factors. First, it was not the practice of the time to solemnly consecrate a Church until after it was debt free. Second, the solemn rite of consecration as it existed in 1958 took between four and five hours to complete! The Basilica of St. Mary was only consecrated in 1941 during the Ninth National Eucharistic Congress that the Archdiocese hosted that year several decades after the Basilica first opened. According to the website of the Cathedral of Saint Paul “Archbishop William O. Brady consecrated the Cathedral in 1958 in a five-hour rite. The Rite of Consecration is not often performed and a church must meet strict canonical requirements: it must be durably constructed, monumental in character, substantially complete and there must be absolute certainty that the building will never fall out of the hands of the Church. When this solemn ceremony was performed, it raised the Cathedral to a higher level of prestige.”

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC TRADITIONS EXPLAINED

Question: Why do we celebrate the Hearts of Jesus in the month of June?

Answer: Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is an ancient practice. We can see its Scriptural origins in Jesus' own references to His Heart. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest ? for I am meek and humble of heart" (c.f. Matthew 11:28, 29).

The devotion received a surge of popularity in the late 1600s. Jesus appeared several times to a French religious sister, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, pointing to his heart. During this time, the Jansenist heresy had risen in France, which preached limited predestination for salvation. When appearing to Margaret Mary, Jesus affirmed his love for all mankind: "Behold the Heart which has so loved men that it has spared nothing." He asked for a special feast celebrating his Sacred Heart on the Friday following the feast of Corpus Christi. Over time, June has become known as the month of Sacred Heart.
