Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

From the Heart

INVITATION TO ALL PARISHIONERS

Dear Parishioners,

Starting the Weekend of July 28-29, we will be starting an All Parish Study, using the 3-Part video presentation called Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist. The Parish Wide Study corresponds with the "Bread of Life Discourse" found in the sixth chapter of the Gospel according to St. John which we will read and hear at Sunday Mass for five successive weeks beginning on July 28/29 and continuing through the month of August.

"What is it that is so special about the Eucharist? Although the Eucharist appears to be simple bread and wine, because of our Lord's actions at the Last Supper the bread and wine is transubstantiated/changed into the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord. The Eucharist is the "source and summit" of the Christian life. Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist explores the truth and beauty of Christ's real presence in the Eucharist, from its origins in Sacred Scripture, to its profound role in the life of the Church and her members. It is the crescendo of the entire story of salvation. "

There are many ways you can participate in the PARISH WIDE STUDY!!!

Each presentation utilizing FORMED IS approximately 45 minutes in length, followed by an opportunity for discussion.

- At Sacred Heart after Sunday Mass—Join us after the Weekend Masses on July 28-29, August 11-12, August 25-26. Refreshments will be provided.
- At Sacred Heart with the Adult Bible Study Group — on Tuesday August 7 at 1pm or 7pm, August 21 at 1pm or 7pm, & September 4 at 1pm or 7pm.
- At St. Therese in New Hope with a group led by Fr. Pedersen — on Friday August 3 at 10 am, August 17 at 10am & August 31 at 10am. All sessions would be in the Little Flower Chapel located at the 8008 Bass Lake Rd building in New Hope. Parishioners who are not residents of St. Therese are also welcome to join this group.
- In the Youth Room with Matt Kruc for Middle & High School Youth — youth are invited to join Matt Kruc on Wednesday August 7, 21 & Sept. 4. Check with Matt for more information.
- At Home — Families and/or groups of Friends can log in at their leisure and participate On Demand in their home, at the library, or wherever you would like to watch the presentation. Just be sure to go to shrmn.formed.org. Register if you have not done so already. Do a search for Presence and you will find each episode and a study guide for enrichment.
- At the Gym while on a Treadmill! Just use your headphones with the FORMED APP on your smart phone or tablet.
- With Friends wherever you want On Demand. Friends can gather together to watch and discuss according to your own schedule and rhythm of life.

If you have any questions about this exciting opportunity to explore the FORMED Website or about this program, please call Bunny in the Parish Office at 763-537-4561.

Parish Organizations

Respect Life Ministry

Please pray the following prayer for the needs of those caught in the snares of human Trafficking and for families separated by recent immigration issues, particularly at the border of Mexico and the United States.

Pilgrims of Solidarity

Good Shepherd,
Many in our world walk through a darkness unimaginable,
A valley of exploitation and danger
Assaulting their human dignity.
As you have walked with me through dark shadows,
Give me the courage to walk with them,
That we may grow in solidarity.

With those trafficked for sexual exploitation,
With St. Maria Goretti and St. Charles Lwanga,
Let me walk in solidarity.

With those child soldiers conscripted into a conflict not of their making,
With St. Jose Sanchez del Rio,
Let me walk in solidarity.

With those trafficked for forced labor,
With St. Josephine Bakhita,
Let me walk in solidarity.

With those who have been separated in transit from their families,
With St. Lorenzo Ruiz,
Let me walk in solidarity.

And with all refugees, migrants and trafficking victims moving through this world,
Fleeing death behind, and with danger on either side,
Praying that somehow, somewhere ahead
Lies a place of safety for themselves and their people,
With St. Alban, patron of all who seek refuge,
Let me walk in solidarity.

Let me not take a step without remembering
Those whose every step is taken in fear and uncertainty.
In my prayers, in my words, in my actions,
Let me take their part
And walk as a pilgrim of solidarity.

Amen

GOSPEL MEDITATION

July 22, 2018 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Now what?" It's a difficult thing to hear, isn't it? The train comes late, a child unexpectedly cries, and the latest public policy debate flares up in the news. Life throws us curveballs, and we have no choice but to adapt. Jesus and the Apostles find themselves in that exact situation in today's Gospel. The Apostles have returned from their two-by-two missionary journey. As Jesus hears all of their stories, he knows they need time to recover and refresh. "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." Their wilderness retreat is short-lived, however, as eager crowds discover their location. Jesus is well aware of the needs of his disciples. Still, as he looks out at the crowd, "His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd." The rest break is over. "He began to teach them many things." For those of us who have experienced a taste of much-needed relaxation only to have it taken away abruptly, perhaps we surmise what the Apostles might have been feeling in that moment. But Jesus isn't being inconsiderate of the Apostles needs. He offers them - and us - a lived lesson. St. John Paul II wrote, "The whole of Christ's life was a continual teaching: his silences, his miracles, his gestures, his prayer, his love for people, his special affection for the little and the poor, his acceptance of the total sacrifice on the Cross for the redemption of the world" (On Catechesis in Our Time, 9). In Jesus' choice to teach, we see all of these things: sacrificial love, concern for the marginalized, and priority of people's needs over personal preference. These aren't abstract ideals. They're lived realities as we strive to live and love like Jesus. When a new obstacle confronts you in your life, how do you respond?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The many images we have of God help frame our relationship with Him. Have we ever imagined Jesus so deeply moved with emotion and engulfed with pity for us? We often are sheep without a shepherd who are lured by the emptiness of worldly attractions and superficial desires. We become lost. God, in the depth of His being, is deeply moved by our pain, loneliness, and heartache. God does not judge or condemn. He loves and is mercy itself. He knows firsthand the pain that comes with being lost and alone and desires to teach us about His merciful love. Do we want to be taught? Listen to God's word and be open to God's presence in the Eucharist.
