Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

Cut It Wins!

For those of you who have been following the Keep It or Cut It Challenge know that last week "Keep It" was winning by $1,300. "Keep It" continued to lead when the Sacred Heart School Gala began. However, by the end of the night the people who favored "Cut It" put their money where their mouth was and pulled ahead. The final tally was $3,000 for "Cut It" and $2,435 for "Keep It". Overall, we raised $5,435 for Sacred Heart Catholic School which is enough to cover tuition and fees for one student needing financial assistance. My thanks to all of you who participated in the challenge. So, when will the "cut" occur? We are planning on having a School Assembly so that the students of Sacred Heart can witness the shearing. Thankfully Amanda Kist, owner of Salon Halo right here in Robbinsdale, a parishioner and school mom has agreed to do the official cutting. If possible, I will donate my hair to an organization that makes wigs for those who have lost their hair due to chemotherapy. We will let you know when the assembly will take place, so parishioners can attend as well.

I would also like to express my thanks to all the people of Sacred Heart Catholic Church who helped to make the 5th Annual Sacred Heart Catholic School Gala – Give with All Your Heart such a success. It was a fun night for all who attended. My gratitude goes out to parishioners who no longer have children or grandchildren at Sacred Heart, or who never did who nonetheless support Catholic Education and our largest ministry.

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

GOSPEL MEDITATION

What an audience Jesus has in today's Gospel! "A great crowd of his disciples and a large number of people from all over Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon." Disciples, pagans, and devout Jews gathered together to hear Jesus speak in the Sermon on the Mount. All of these people had something in common. God was someone to be bargained with, and if God liked you, you were rewarded with good fortune. This Sunday, Jesus tells us a different story. "Woe to you who are rich ? who are filled now ? who laugh ? when all speak well of you. Blessed are you who are poor ? you who are now hungry ? when people hate you and when they exclude you and insult you." Jesus completely flips the script on what it means to be blessed by God. What he proclaims as "woe" are states of life we often strive for, and "blessed" are the states we work hard to avoid!

Jesus is concerned with the kingdom of God and the world to come, not the typical structures of power and privilege. The word "now" appears often in these statements. Why? If you are well "now," that's beside the point. To be rich in this life has no direct bearing on your immortal soul. If you're struggling "now," that's not an indication that God has forgotten you or that - in light of eternity - you're worse off than someone else. In fact, it could be an indicator that you're enduring something that will bring you to a place of greater, eternal joy in the future.

This Sunday, consider your priorities. Who do we reject as not blessed, and thereby inflict woe upon ourselves? When we encounter difficult situations in our own lives, do we see them as opportunities to remember God and lean on His mercy and grace?

Support Brady and his family

Brady is still in the hospital due to the tragic car accident last week. The family needs our support to so that they can keep vigil at Brady's bedside. They are not sure when they will be returning to work. They are not sure what types of rehabilitation Brady will need after his future surgeries. They are not sure how they are going to pay for all the medical expenses.

Here is how you can help:

1. Donate to Brady's GoFundMe campaign. Their money will support the costs of Brady's medical expenses.
2. Pray. Spiritual support is important and prayers will help Brady recover.

Robert Reinke, former SHCS student, writes a novel

This novel is about survival, determination, and faith. We have many copies on hand at school for students and friends to read. We are proud of you, Robert!

Sacred Heart is hosting a table. Please contact ASAP Carol R. at 763-533-8809 or Rusinko@usfamily.net if you would like to attend.

RWC's fundraising celebration dinner gives God the glory for saving over 3,100 lives since 1992! RWC continues to expand its outreach to abortion-vulnerable women through our strategic location across the street from an abortion clinic and our 24-hour abortion inquiry hotline.

This is our biggest annual fundraising event which supports about one-third of our budget. The purpose of this event is to invite new potential partners so they have the opportunity to hear client testimonies and learn how RWC ministers to women in unplanned pregnancies.

No registration fee as this is a free event underwritten by generous donors so that every penny raised at the dinner goes to supporting the ministry of RWC.

Pastoral Care Team Visits-Because of the Right to Privacy Laws, Sacred Heart is not notified of parishioners who are hospitalized, homebound, or have entered a health care facility. LIVE THE LITURGY

Getting ahead in the world is something many see as important. Success, a comfortable life, and worldly securities are seen as what is needed to achieve happiness. Whether or not we like to admit it, these pursuits are operative in many of our lives. As much as we want to believe in the Gospel, we also find it hard not to cling to these other things. Unconditional trust in God must be first if we are going to perceive the kingdom of God. And while God does not want us to go out of our way to be miserable, Jesus clearly gives preference to those who are poor, hungry, weeping, marginalized, vulnerable, and despised. When people encounter these things, they touch God. It teaches us not to get too comfortable with our riches and that there is much more to true life than the stuff we find so important.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

When I was a child, I often thought of the Church as something mystical and supernatural. I wasn't wrong in my understanding of the Body of Christ, for surely the Church has these characteristics. However, even though we speak about the foundation of all we are as Church being the "mystery of Christ," Jesus became a man so that supernatural element could break into the natural world in a profound way. What we once could not see, we now see. What we saw as a God in a distant place now dwelt among us. It is one of the aspects of Catholicism that I have grown to appreciate the most as I have matured: for a Catholic, the supernatural is natural. The communion of saints is heavenly and earthly at the same time.

The Beatitudes instruct us about this reality. Pope Francis reminds us that holiness is "not about swooning in mystic rapture." Holiness is about living in the real world and doing extraordinary things with our ordinary lives. Our stewardship way of life consists of actions in the natural world that have extraordinary repercussions.

Do not ever take your simple actions of generosity and love for granted. As disciples called to a life of stewardship, we participate in something more profound than what we can see. We are blessed to be called to follow Jesus, and we bring blessing to all those with whom we choose to share ourselves.
