Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Compartmentalization or consistency? In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a strange story of a sneaky, savvy steward that raises questions about our personal virtue. "How much do you owe? Here is your promissory note, write one for eighty." This parable isn't advice for money management. Historically, there were many positions that acted on behalf of their masters regarding money, like customs agents, household stewards, and tax collectors. Often these workers over-charged and skimmed off the top.

Usurious practices like this were not in line with the traditional Jewish understanding of money lending, which strictly forbade them from taking interest or making a profit off of their own people. As the steward reduced the debt, he was likely writing out the amount he originally intended to take for himself. Before the steward can be commended, he needs to right the wrong done.

"The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones." This parable contains an important self-check. We have a great many things we're responsible for that seem to have nothing to do with the kingdom of God. How do we interact in those spaces? Are we trustworthy in our dealings at work and at home? Are we honest and faithful to our commitments to family and friends? Are we honest with our money and prudent with how we spend our time?

Jesus calls his disciples to consistency. How often do we expect that we can be one person one place, yet shrug off that persona in a new situation? "No servant can serve two masters." These week, take stock of your life. All of your life. Are you living the Gospel values wherever you go?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"No servant can serve two masters." We struggle with where we put and give our allegiance. Who has the ultimate authority and claim over us? While our minds want to answer "God," our lives often reveal other conflicting allegiances. Because we are made in the image of God, we are not given a ticket of entitlement or privilege. On the contrary, we are given a level playing field where we are one among many and called to live just and trustworthy lives. To serve God is to serve others and to see the primary purpose and focus of our lives as being good stewards. As God lifts up the poor, so too do we. As much as we want the world and God to serve our own self advancement, we have to resist this temptation at all costs. Injustice has no place in the kingdom of God.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Q: When Jesus says, "You cannot serve both God and mammon," what does he mean? What is mammon?

A: When you hear Scripture proclaimed each Sunday, remember it wasn't originally written in English. Hebrew, Aramaic, Greek - these ancient tongues were the original language of our Old and New Testaments. Most of the time, all of the words are translated into our native language. Sometimes, a word or two is left in the original language. Such is the case in this Scripture passage.

Mammon is an ancient Aramaic word referring to money, wealth, or profit. Earthly wealth isn't bad in itself, nor does it automatically exclude us from being a disciple of Jesus. But what dominates our life? To serve money - that is, to seek accumulation of wealth for its own sake and to structure our lives around it - is morally problematic. What good is our wealth if it isn't at the service of others? What good is our wealth if its pursuit leads us to selfishness, obsession, greed, envy, and comparison? There are many things that can be opposed to our service of God - power, prestige, popularity. Ultimately, something in our lives will be our master. But there is only one God worth serving.

Save the date: Saturday, October 5, 2019
at Sanborn Park

Our marathon is our largest fundraiser at Sacred Heart Catholic School and the best thing is that 100% of the profits stay right here to benefit our students. We will continue using the web-based fundraising system called PledgeStar. This website is an easy way for students to collect pledges from family and friends using a secure credit card method. We will still accept cash and check donations as well. We have collected $9045.00 so far.

Please consider pledging a student or Fr. Pedersen to help them reach their goal.

Screenagers Movie for parents---Wednesday, October 9th at 6:30 pm All Welcome.

This award-winning film probes into the vulnerable corners of family life and depicts messy struggles over social media, video games and academics. The film offers solutions on how we can help our kids navigate the digital world.

They will also discuss that high stress, anxiety, and depression are experiences by millions of young people. We will follow physician and filmmaker, Delaney Ruston, as she discovers solutions for improved adolescence well-being in the digital age

Children's Holy Hour

Children's Holy Hour

Attention Parents of young children! Every Thursday, from 10-11am, we have an hour of Adoration tailored to young children. Bring the babies, toddlers, preschoolers, and home-school children to catch some rays in the presence of the Son! There will be songs and prayers in an environment that kids and parents can enjoy alike. This guided holy hour is a great opportunity to help teach your children how to pray and to introduce them to the beauty of Eucharistic Adoration. Silence is golden, but there will not be much of it in this hour. Questions/concerns or more information, contact Emily Fitzgerald at emilyfitzgerald317@gmail.com

TRUE REFORMERS SAINTS OF THE CATHOLIC REFORMATION

Saint Francis de Sales: Pastor of Souls

Determined from youth to pursue the priesthood, St. Francis de Sales lived a storied life as a priest and missionary before settling down to the duties of a bishop in a small town nestled in the foothills of the French Alps. The spiritual writings of this beloved teacher of everyday holiness are justly celebrated.

In his doctrine, we find the summation of the teaching of the Catholic Reform.

This video series explores in detail the life of Saint Frances de Sales

Join us September 28-29 after the Saturday 5pm Mass and Sunday 8am and 10am Masses we will exploreSaint Francis de Sales (359Min)

Skeptical thinkers like Richard Dawkins, Christopher Hitchens, and Sam Harris vigorously attack belief in God as irrational or, even worse, dangerous. The so-called New Atheism has attracted millions of young people thanks to bestselling books such as The God Delusion and God Is Not Great.

You'll discover how in "Mystery of God," a 2-disc film series and study program by Bishop Robert Barron. Over the course of six sessions, you'll reach into our rich intellectual tradition. Using the insights of St. Augustine, St.

Thomas Aquinas, Pope Benedict XVI, you'll uncover a clear yet sophisticated understanding of what we mean by "God."

Who is God? And why does he matter? Watch this series and you'll not only learn the answers yourself, but you'll discover how to share them with others - especially those who no longer believe. Starting on Tuesday October 1 at 1:00PM and 7:00PM

PRE-BAPTISM CLASSES

Pre-Baptism Classes are offered at Sacred Heart on the Second Tuesday of the month. All parents are required to attend a pre-baptism class before the Baptism of their first child or if it has been over three years since they last attended a pre-baptism class. Our next scheduled session is Tuesday October 8 at 7pm in the Activities Building. If you plan to attend this session, please call the Parish Office 763-537-4561.

Young Adult Bible Study

Young Adult Bible Study

All Sacred Heart Young Adults are invited to join our weekly Bible study Mondays from 6-8PM. We'll be working our way through the book of Daniel this Fall. There's no cost to attend, just come! Contact Matt Kruc at mkruc@shrmn.org with any questions or for more information.

Rite of Initiation for Children

The Rite of Initiation Adapted for Children is a process for older children, ages 7 -14, wishing to become Catholic, who are not yet baptized; and for older Catholic children, ages 7 - 14, who are baptized or unbaptized and have not been catechized (instructed) or received First Communion. Questions or to register, please call Bunny in the Parish Office.

40 Days for Life Twin Cities is the local campaign of the largest international prayer campaign to end abortion.

Since 2007, Pro-Life Action Ministries has coordinated 40 Days for Life Twin Cities with thousands of participants and scores of churches of various denominations.

From two participants to over 500, we have persevered with God's help to pray for the end of abortion – and with results! In 2011, HealthPartners Regions Hospital closed its late-term abortion facility at the end of a 40 Days for Life Twin Cities fall campaign.

On April 23, 2019, a majority of State Representatives in the MN House voted to mandate (H.F. 1414) every Pre K-12 public/charter school to teach "Comprehensive" Sex Ed (CSE). Join families across Minnesota to send a message to legislators to protect our children from a Minnesota school mandate that schools must teach Comprehensive Sex Ed (CSE) curricula that is being pushed by Planned Parenthood.
