2ND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

John wore clothing made of camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey. - Mt 3:4

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

What does it mean to be worthy? There are a few different ways to approach this question. Today's Gospel highlights two: the way of the Pharisees and the way of John the Baptist. Our faith values good works and discipleship. Perhaps, then, we "earn" our worth by adhering to the right doctrines and following the right pious practice. The Pharisees thought they were worthy. Due to their religious pedigree and proper procedures, they were self-satisfied. John the Baptist's words to them are strong. "Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.'" Of course, Jesus (and John) don't omit the responsibility for moral behavior. John gives the Pharisees quite a strong warning in that regard. "Produce good fruit as evidence of your repentance ... every tree that does not bear good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

It's a question of attitude. Of disposition. It's a matter of the heart. If anyone would be worthy in this scenario, it's John the Baptist. Jesus himself will name him the greatest of prophets and a great man. John, however, recognizes his own lowly place in the grand scheme of things. "The one who is coming after me is mightier than I. I am not worthy to carry his sandals." The Pharisees take pride in being "better" than others. John embraces humility in Christ being "better" than him. We don't self-generate our own worthiness. We receive it as a gift from God.

In a few short weeks, we'll celebrate the birth of Christ. Bishop Ven. Fulton Sheen wrote about the Nativity in his "Life of Christ": "Because [Jesus] was born in a cave, all who wish to see Him must stoop. To stoop is the mark of humility. The proud refuse to stoop and, therefore, they miss divinity." God invites us to prepare our hearts this Advent. When you consider your own life, where are you looking for your worth? This Christmas, are you prepared to stoop?

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

World, church, and local events continue to challenge our faith. This is all the more reason to continue to come together and find encouragement and hope in God's word, sacraments, and our faith community. We are people of hope who are called to persevere, even in the midst of confusion and darkness, as we wait for what is to come. We are asked to repent, especially from our tendency to fall into doubt and despair. We are asked to repent and place our trust in Isaiah's words that God's world of innocence will be restored. We need to hear John the Baptist's words today more than ever: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand!" Rather than being disappointed by what human beings and world cannot give, let us commit anew to what God can and will provide.

*Every valley shall be filled in,
every mountain and hill
shall be made low.
-Isaiah 40:4*

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: What do we know about St. John the Baptist?

Answer: We know quite a lot about John the Baptist from the Gospels and other historical sources. John was the son of Zechariah and Elizabeth through a graced post-menopausal conception (Luke 1). John would have been raised with an intimate knowledge of Jewish doctrine and religious practice, due to his father being a Levite priest. Elizabeth is a "kinswoman" of Mary. While not in the same nuclear family, the two were close enough that Mary would journey to spend several months with Elizabeth during her pregnancy. We don't know how close John and Jesus were as children, but they certainly knew of one another as cousins.

Luke 3 tells us he began his ministry in "the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberias Caesar," roughly 29 A.D. He lived as a hermit with clear ascetic practices, such as rough clothing and a simple vegetarian diet. Despite his remoteness, John's ministry was prophetic. People came from across the region to be baptized in water as a sign of repentance. John, however, continually pointed beyond himself to the one who was to come: Jesus Christ. John the Baptist's call to repentance extended to the rulers of his day. John critiqued the local rulers, Herod Antipas and his wife Herodias. Previously, Herodias had been married to Antipas' brother, Herod Philip, but had betrayed him, left him, and married his more powerful brother. John was arrested for the slight and was eventually executed (Mark 6). This martyrdom prophetically anticipates the trials that awaited Christ and his followers. In life and death, John the Baptist served as the herald of the Messiah.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP Jesus Is Headed Your Way

One day, we heard the news that a possible tornado was heading our way. We live off of a highway, and it was traveling along that very road. My wife and kids huddled in the downstairs bathroom. Not many tornadoes surface in North Carolina, so our children were particularly worried because it was something they had never contemplated happening before. The tornado never did come into our neighborhood, but it did cause one of our sons to express that he needed to go to Confession as soon as possible. He hadn't done anything too over the top sinful, but coming face-to-face with a tornado had caused him to have some second thoughts about his preparedness for meeting God. Hopefully, a tornado doesn't make a path through your city or town this Advent. Sometimes, reminders of our mortality find their way into life. The passing of a loved one, a car accident, or a health scare can all cause us to reflect on where we are in our relationship with God. Without those moments, we can find ourselves living daily without a mindfulness of where God is in our life and if our actions are pleasing to Him ... or if they drag us further away into the world.

Advent is the time to take inventory of where we are with God. How are we living as good stewards and mature disciples? What do I need to make amends for in the healing power of the sacrament of Penance? A tornado may not be coming, but Jesus will be returning someday. Hopefully, you will run outside of your home to meet him, and he won't find you huddled up afraid in your bathroom. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

YEAR-END GIFTING OPPORTUNITIES

We are fast approaching the end of 2019. We often get questions regarding year-end gifting, and appreciate you considering Sacred Heart for your year-end donations. Here are a few ideas to help maximize the benefits of your year-end giving for you and our parish.

Christmas Envelopes

There is a Christmas envelope in your December Packet. We hope that you will consider a special Christmas contribution.

Stock Contributions

You can make a bigger impact by donating long-term appreciated securities, including stock, bonds, and mutual funds directly to the church. Compared with donating cash, or selling your appreciated securities and contributing the after-tax proceeds, you may be able to automatically increase your gift and your tax deduction. Please contact the Parish Office and we can provide you with instructions for making your gift.

Employer Matching Funds

You may wish to consult with your employer to determine if a matching gift can double the value of your contribution to our Catholic school.

Note: Sacred Heart does not provide tax advice. Please consult your tax professional to review your specific situation.

School-Wide Service Project with Harvest Pack

Harvest Pack is a Twin Cities-based, humanitarian, non-profit meal packing organization dedicated to putting Healthy Food on Every Table. If you are familiar with Feed My Starving Children, the meal packing is similar, however, Harvest Pack brings the equipment and raw materials TO Sacred Heart so that ALL students get to participate in packing healthy Oatmeal meals that will directly impact our local community in backpack programs and food shelves that Sacred Heart designates.

While our meal-packing event will not happen until Lent, we are going to start off the fundraising in Advent. Integrating what we are doing with the liturgical seasons is so fitting: Give a gift to Jesus, Get a gift from Jesus!

In Advent, we prepare room in our hearts for the birth of Jesus, and a great way to do this is by preparing a place for him in our homes, at our tables, under our trees. This year, we are encouraging students and parents to have a conversation about a Christmas gift the student is willing to forego, in order that the cost of the gift can be given to Jesus by donating towards our meal packing event. School families and parishioners may also donate by check or our online site will be set up soon!

"Mystery of God," a film series and study program by Bishop Robert Barron. Session 6 "The God Who is Love" will be Tuesday December 17 at 1:00PM and 7:00PM in the Marian Rooms.

The book of Genesis reveals that we are made in the image and likeness of God. What does this mean? For St. Augustine it affirmed that our own traits—our minds, our self-knowledge, our self-love—can tell us something about God as a Trinity. What is Christianity finally about? What is the deepest meaning of being and all reality? The Christian answer is this: God is love, a play of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Council of Catholic Women

As the president of the SHCCW I am welcoming all women to come to our December 14th celebration and meeting that starts at 9am in the Marion Rooms.

This organization is a multi-generational organization for women from 18 years old to over 90. The hope is that we can cultivate relationship as one of the goals of this organization. This month we will celebrate with a baby Jesus shower and bring food to share in a potluck.

We usually have a speaker for the business portion but I think this time I want to create an opportunity to learn more about each other. So we will call it voices for vocations. I personally want to learn more about the women in our church. Women have a strong history to show up in different vocations throughout history. So please be willing to share about one of the vocations you have or had in your life.

So please come. If you are able to donate bring a new baby item, unwrapped. Ideas can be found on the giving tree in the parish commons. Bring an item of food to share for the potluck.

The business meeting will follow the fellowship time. We will be introducing a new door prize idea. Many of the women in our parish have small businesses. I would like for an opportunity at the end of the business meeting for women to share in a 2 minute presentation about their business and offer up that meeting's door prize. You do not want to miss an opportunity to learn about one of our catholic woman owned business. If you have never been to a meeting and would like to RSVP please email shccwrobbinsdalemn@gmail.com or text or leave a voice mail at 763-200-4541.

I am looking forward to seeing all of you on December 14th at 9am.

Sincerely,
Bonnie Bolash
President
Sacred Heart Council of Catholic Women

MONTH FOUR - - Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

Well, your little baby now weighs six ounces. He has fingernails and eyelashes. He has his own unique fingerprints, which will remain the same until he dies. His taste buds are working. His sense of hearing is developing and present at 14 weeks. There are no major developments anymore. Your spiritually adopted baby is already well-formed, internally and externally. At this stage rapid eye movements have been observed – a sign of dreaming. What a miracle he is!

Say the following daily prayer for a period of nine months.

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

- Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen
