2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

“This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased;
listen to him.” - Mt 17:5b

Principles of Sacred Music found in Official Church Teaching: The Second Vatican Council Part I

Last week I included the full text of a short speech Pope Francis gave to the Santa Cecilia Association regarding music for the liturgy. In the letter Pope Francis quoted Pope St. Paul VI who served as Bishop of Rome from 1963 until 1978. It fell to him to bring the Second Vatican Council to completion, and then to begin implementing decision from the Council to various areas of Church life.

Pope Francis made mention of Pope St. Pius X and how “Saint Paul VI wanted them (St. Pius X’s provisions on sacred music) to be renewed and active to provide for a music that integrates with the liturgy and that derives its fundamental characteristics from it. Not just any music, but holy music, because rituals are holy; endowed with the nobility of art, because God must be given the best; universal, so that everyone can understand and celebrate. Above all, clearly distinct and different from that used for other purposes. And he recommended that you cultivate the sensus ecclesiae, the discernment of music in the liturgy. He said: “Not everything is valid, not everything is licit, not everything is good. Here the sacred must join with the beautiful in a harmonious and devout synthesis” (Address to the religious sisters in charge of liturgical singing, 15 April 1971).

It would be good for us to investigate the Second Vatican Council then to learn more about what it had to say about music. Sacrosanctum Concilium, the main document of Vatican II concerning the Liturgy had an entire chapter devoted to Sacred Music. What did it say? Here are some excerpts, along with some commentary. My comments are in parenthesis in red.

112. The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as sacred song united to the words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy. ...

(This is a bold statement, given the architectural tradition, iconography, paintings, sculpture, mosaics, and textiles employed in Divine Worship.)

.... Accordingly, the sacred Council, keeping to the norms and precepts of ecclesiastical tradition and discipline, and having regard to the purpose of sacred music, which is the glory of God and the sanctification of the faithful, decrees as follows. (Here we learn the purpose of music for the liturgy: Giving glory to God, and sanctifying the faithful, that is making us holy in Christ.)

114. The treasury of sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care. Choirs must be diligently promoted, especially in cathedral churches; but bishops and other pastors of souls must be at pains to ensure that, whenever the sacred action is to be celebrated with song, the whole body of the faithful may be able to contribute that active participation which is rightly theirs. (This is why we still use some Latin in the liturgy even when Mass is also in English or Spanish. It is not possible to preserve and foster the treasury of Sacred Music if we did not make use of Latin, since the vast majority of that treasury was composed in the Latin language. Beauty speaks its own language as does music, which is why you can listen or sing something in a foreign language and still derive benefit. This provision also notes that we are to utilize choirs, and empower the faithful to sing the liturgy.)

116. The Church acknowledges Gregorian chant as especially suited to the Roman liturgy: therefore, other things being equal, it should be given pride of place in liturgical services. (Why is Gregorian chant so important in Church teachings and documents? Why do the Popes including Paul VI, John Paul II, Benedict XVI, and Francis all mention it? Gregorian Chant like Byzantine chant shares aspects with the cantillation of psalms in Jewish worship. Second it is the only musical genre that emerged directly from Christian worship itself. This is why terms like “especially suited” and “pride of place” are given. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal which governs the celebration of the Ordinary Form of Mass makes direct reference to this in section 41. In Advent and Lent we have been making some limited use of Gregorian Chants for the Kyrie – Lord, Have Mercy; the Sanctus – Holy, Holy, Holy; and the Agnus Dei – Lamb of God. When I was at the Basilica for the Rite of Election on March 1st, I noted that they also were making use of some of the same chants for Mass during Lent, the Sanctus and Agnus Dei in particular. I first learned the Kyrie we are using in Lent when I was a member of the Liturgical Choir at the University of St. Thomas, then under the direction of Rob Strusinski, whose job before going to St. Thomas was as Music Director at Sacred Heart in Robbinsdale. We learned it for our pilgrimage to Rome for Christmas in 1997. The UST Liturgical Choir was responsible for leading the congregation in singing those particular chants at St. Peter’s Basilica for the Fourth Sunday of Advent.) But other kinds of sacred music, especially polyphony, are by no means excluded from liturgical celebrations, so long as they accord with the spirit of the liturgical action, as laid down in Art. 30. (The Second Vatican Council also noted that other musical genres are also suitable for Divine Worship. Polyphony refers to many voices singing distinct but interrelated parts. This is a reference to harmonies sung by different ranges on the voice scale. Gregorian Chant is monophonic for the most part.)

Next week I will continue with more of the provisions of the Second Vatican Council on Sacred Music along with some commentary.

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

Reception Desk Update

Hopefully many of you have noticed that we have transitioned our main office reception area to the new reception desk in the Parish Commons near the West Broadway entrance. We are happy to have Sandy Hammrich here on a temporary basis filling in as our main receptionist and administrative assistant. When Sandy is not here, others from our Parish staff will be covering the main desk. There are signs posted at all the doors directing people to please go the main reception desk to sign-in and receive a visitor badge. This is part of our efforts to improve our security and provide a more welcoming environment for all our parishioners and visitors at Sacred Heart. Thank you for your support during this transition. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Mary Daugherty, Business Administrator.

The Bible and the Virgin Mary Journey through the Scriptures Session 4– The New Eve

In this session, we're going to learn why Jesus only refers to his mother as "woman" in the Gospel of John. The answer lies in the connection between Eden, Cana, and Revelation. We'll also discuss Mary's title as the New Eve and discover who the real Bridegroom is at the wedding at Cana. Session 4: Tuesday March 10, two sessions will be offered. During the day from 1– 2:30pm and an evening session 7-8:30pm.

"Mystery of God," a film series by Bishop Robert Barron.

After Mass on Saturday March 7 and after the 8 and 10am Masses on Sunday March 8, in the Marian Rooms.

Lesson 3: The Divine Attributes: Once we understand who God is, we naturally wonder, "What is he like? How does he act?" We can never fully answer those questions. Yet we can know that God is self-sufficient—he doesn't need the world but creates it out of love. God is omniscient, knowing all things. God is omnipresent, everywhere in existence. Through these attributes we discover a God who presses upon the world, always and everywhere, not aggressively but only with love.

Pre-Baptism Classes

PRE-BAPTISM CLASSES

Pre-Baptism Classes are offered at Sacred Heart on the Second Tuesday of the month. All parents are required to attend a pre-baptism class before the Baptism of their first child or if it has been over three years since they last attended a pre-baptism class. Our next scheduled session is Tuesday March 10 at 7pm in the Activities Building. If you plan to attend this session, please call the Parish Office 763-537-4561.

Archdiocesan Synod 2021

Sacred Heart will be hosting a Holy Hour on the First Thursday of each month for the Success of the Archdiocesan Synod. The Next Holy Hour will take place on Thursday, April 2 at 7pm during Adoration. Please join us.

Archdiocesan Synod – Upcoming Prayer and Listening Events

Works of Mercy

March Corporal Work of Mercy– Feed The Hungry

During the month of March, we are focusing on the Corporal Work of Mercy "Feed the Hungry." We have been collecting food and money to be given to the NEAR food shelf. We are grateful for your continued generosity. While this is a special effort for the month of March, we do collect for the NEAR Food Shelf all year round.

Throughout the year many of you have faithfully brought a few food items or an entire bag of groceries to share with the poor.

Donations of food items and $$$$ are always welcome. You can also donate toiletry items, school supplies and $$$$.

Check out the last page of the Bulletin for more suggestions of donations.

DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School

CHARTING A NEW COURSE

Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School will begin to chart a new course for our future. Church and School leaders are focusing on the need to plan on how we can develop more resources; attract and retain more families; communicate better; and, invite, involve and engage more people into our Faith Community. During the next 6-10 months, we will be inviting hundreds of people to help us create a Strategic Plan for Development.

Working with us on this important process are CSCOE (Catholic Schools Center of Excellence) and the Institute for School and Parish Development (ISPD). ISPD, headquartered in the Greater New Orleans Area, is a national development consulting firm that works exclusively with Catholic schools, parishes, and dioceses throughout the country. CSCOE and ISPD have partnered with Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School and will guide us through our planning and people engagement processes.

As we begin this new chapter in our history, the theme that we will follow is: in order to create the plans and strategic initiatives for the future of our Catholic parish and school, we will reach out to our entire community and invite your input and best wisdom. Your recommendations will certainly be considered as we chart a new course for the future.

Beginning with this Update, you will be kept informed about various activities, programs and opportunities geared toward your input and people engagement. There will be many opportunities available for everyone to help us create a dynamic new way to better develop and advance our Catholic church and school.

GETTING STARTED

The process has already begun. CSCOE and ISPD are working with the church and school to assess our present situation in a number of areas: communication, marketing, fund-raising, alumni involvement, enrollment management, and people engagement.

THE CORE TEAM

We have formed a Development Core Team to lead this process. These volunteers represent many areas and interests of our Catholic church and school. The Core Team has committed themselves to help give their best direction and guidance to Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School and will work closely with CSCOE and ISPD, and church and school leaders to facilitate our process. Members of the Core Team are:

- Father Pedersen, Pastor
- Mary Daugherty, Business Administrator
- Karen Burse, Principal
- Pat Moore, Dir. of Advancement
- Margaret Bigham
- Bonnie Bolash
- Mike Burakowski
- Paul Finley
- Katie Gooley
- Theresa Gooley
- Bud Heifort
- Beth Hillenbrand
- Katie King
- Matt Kruc
- Rebecca Lahr
- Jeff Melius
- Michael Murry
- Jessica Norgaard
- Jim Ramsey
- Sarah Svien
- Monica Thibault
- Ken Timmerman
- Morgan Timmerman
- Fritz Wagner
- Lauren Wilczynski
- Art Zenzen

CHURCH AND SCHOOL SURVEYS

By now, you have probably filled out The Ultimate Question survey. This survey was taken on-line and in paper form and it had questions pertaining to the church and school. The rating process was between 1-10 and the opportunity to share ideas for improvement as well as share ideas on what is working well. The results were posted in the School Newsletter and the Church Bulletin. If you would like a summary of the results, please call the church or school office. As this process unfolds, the information will be helpful in our planning process as the Core Team and a Development Advisory Council create challenges that they will invite members of the Catholic church and school community to help create solutions.
