A DAY IN THE LIFE AT SACRED HEART CATHOLIC SCHOOL

 Classroom desks will face the front of the room and arranged to provide 3 feet of distancing, when feasible.	 Students will be self-contained in classrooms with teachers traveling, rather than students. Outdoor classes will be utilized when possible.	 Masks are required for all students/staff, per the state mandate. Masks are optional for students 5 and under.	 Students will arrive using three doors, screened upon arrival. A PM car line will be utilized on Hubbard Ave. for pick-up.	 The NSPL League will announce their decision soon regarding sports.	 Visitors are not allowed in the building while students are present.
 Hand sanitizing stations are available in each classroom and hand washing stations will be outside for outdoor play.	 For lunch, students will eat in smaller groups. Hot lunch will be available, with meals packed individually.	 Our students and staff begin and end each day with prayer. Students will attend weekly mass.	 Smaller groups of students will be on the playground at a time. Students will wash hands before/after play.	 Until further notice, group gatherings, assemblies, and field trips will not occur.	 Robbinsdale School District will announce transportation plans soon.
