EASTER SUNDAY

Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

Dear Friends,

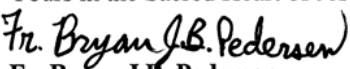

Last week I noted stories of hope from Sacred Heart Catholic School. This week I want to share with you another story. In this era of distance learning. The photo you see is of Mr. Melius, our school music teacher, and one of his piano students, Eli. His sister also was featured on our School Facebook page. I guarantee you that those quarantined during Spanish Flu were not having their piano lessons! The world may be in lockdown, but using the ingenuity of God's gifts we are not just hibernating!

Gaining Perspective This Easter

We have come to the formal end of Lenten, yet our penances continue due to ongoing social distancing amidst the Covid-19 Wuhan virus Pandemic of 2020. In the history of Sacred Heart Parish there have been several times of crises which our parishioners faced together. The 1918-1919 Spanish Flu Pandemic cost at least 50 million lives, and by some estimates up to 100 million. The Spanish Flu outbreak came at the end of the Great War, known better to us as World War I which cost 20.5 to 22 million lives. Our parishioners experienced the stock market crash of 1929 followed by the Great Depression of the 1930's which lasted nearly a decade. It was World War II, a conflict that cost the world an estimated 70 to 85 million lives, or about 3% of the population of the world in 1940. Ironically, the same conflict is credited as finally bringing the American economy back to life through mandatory war time provisions, and the making of weapons of war. What a great sadness that it took a World War to make this happen? Our parishioners lived through the Cold War and the fear of Nuclear Annihilation especially during the Cuban Missile Crisis due to the conflict between the United States and the Soviet Union. That annihilation did not come to pass, though the specter of nuclear war remains. Our parishioners have lived through the civil unrest of the 1960's which as a good has dramatically improved race relations compared to what they were prior to the 1960's. Of course harmony between various races and ethnicities is an ongoing project. Our parishioners, and indeed the entire world is still weathering the storm and fallout of the sexual revolution of the late 1960's. Books such as Coming Apart by Dr. Charles Murray outline the impact of this reality which many attribute in part to the fallout from the sexual revolution. Our parishioners lived through the Korean War, Vietnam War, 9/11, and the wars that followed in the middle east. That does not include the great societal and religious changes brought on by the Second Vatican Council and its aftermath. In relaying all of this even though things are challenging for our nation and our world on Easter Sunday of 2020, we should not lose perspective or hope. We are far from the great tragedies of the 20th century. Together we will weather the storm. Continued on page 3... Easter is ultimately about the victory of Christ over sin and death through the suffering, death, and resurrection which reconciles us with God. Whether in our own personal lives, the life of our family, parish, city, nation and entire world the crosses we bear during this great Covid-19 Wuhan Virus Pandemic, if born with Jesus Christ, can be transformative for us if we allow our sufferings to help us turn back to God with all our hearts, and to grow in our love for our neighbor. As we continue this Easter season we will have plenty of opportunities for all of these things.

One of my prayers this Easter is that our nation recovers quickly from the great Covid-19 Wuhan Virus Pandemic of 2020. That the number of death in the U.S. is less than 100,000, and that our economy starts again so fellow citizens can get back to work, and that our spiritual lives can move from virtual reality to sacramental participation! We need you Jesus, in the Holy Eucharist, in the Sacrament of Penance, in the gathered Body of Christ at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

 Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen
 Pastor

P.S. I hope you have taken this time of sheltering at home to learn some new digital skills. I know that social media and places like Facebook have enabled me ways to connect, and bring you the sacraments even if virtually. Now is the time to try something new when it comes to technology. Be not afraid!

GOSPEL MEDITATION DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

When we awoke this morning, we found ourselves blessed with another day. It is Easter Sunday. As that thought crossed our minds, did we find ourselves saying “so what” or “alleluia”? For many, today is truly a day of alleluia. For others, it is just another day of “so what.” Faith makes a huge difference. It not only makes a difference in how we understand today and the significance of what we celebrate, it also makes a huge difference in terms of how we understand ourselves.

Succeed, live well, be productive, find your niche, follow your dreams, make money, protect your social status, be politically correct, and keep your preferences to yourself are pretty good examples of the messages our secular life wants us to hear. In and of themselves, they don't sound all that harmful. But when really examined, they are. The life of resurrection embodied in the Gospel tells us a much different story.

Life keeps us busy. We are always connected, distracted, occupied, and working. For many of us, an agenda awaits us before we even start our day, and unfinished stuff is brought with us when we retire at night. Make the best of life and “find your own road to happiness are messages we all too easily believe. The “so what” response to the new life of resurrection is often the result of believing that life is only what I make it. What God has to say isn't important to me securing my next raise.

Sadly, we live as if the grave is the end. While we may give the wonder of heaven a blink now and then, its glory really doesn't impress us or matter all that much. It's all about the here and now and what I need to do today to get where I want to be tomorrow. We tend to put off considering the one significant “tomorrow” that will come the millisecond after we take our last breath. When that happens, will we want to be thinking “so what?” or “alleluia”?

There is only one Jesus, one mission, and one resurrection. There is also only one of us. Have you ever pondered what one solitary, humble human life can do? Faith, not our world, tells us how special we are. We are not robots. We are not replaceable. We have one shot. There are no do-overs. Love is at our core and unites us together as one with the God of love who so desperately wants us to be with Him forever. This may not match our secular agenda, but it ought to make our true inner agenda leap for joy. There doesn't need to be an end. I can live forever. Alleluia!

Spiritual Adoption

MONTH EIGHT – Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

Now your spiritually adopted baby is finished developing and is concentrating on gaining weight; she might be making her mother uncomfortable with her size. She will need a layer of fat to help her stay warm after she leaves the perfect temperature inside her mother's womb. In a short time, this baby will be born. Your baby's mother appreciated the prayers you have said for her and her baby throughout the pregnancy. It has not been easy, but your prayers have given her the grace she needed to bring her baby to term and the life God has planned for her.

Say the following daily prayer for a period of nine months.

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

- Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

To Keeping Yourself & Others Healthy!

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

Wash Your Hands

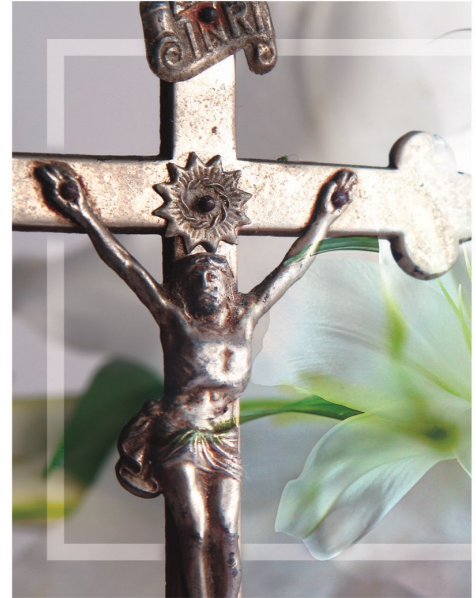

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

Don't Touch Your Face

Keep Your Distance

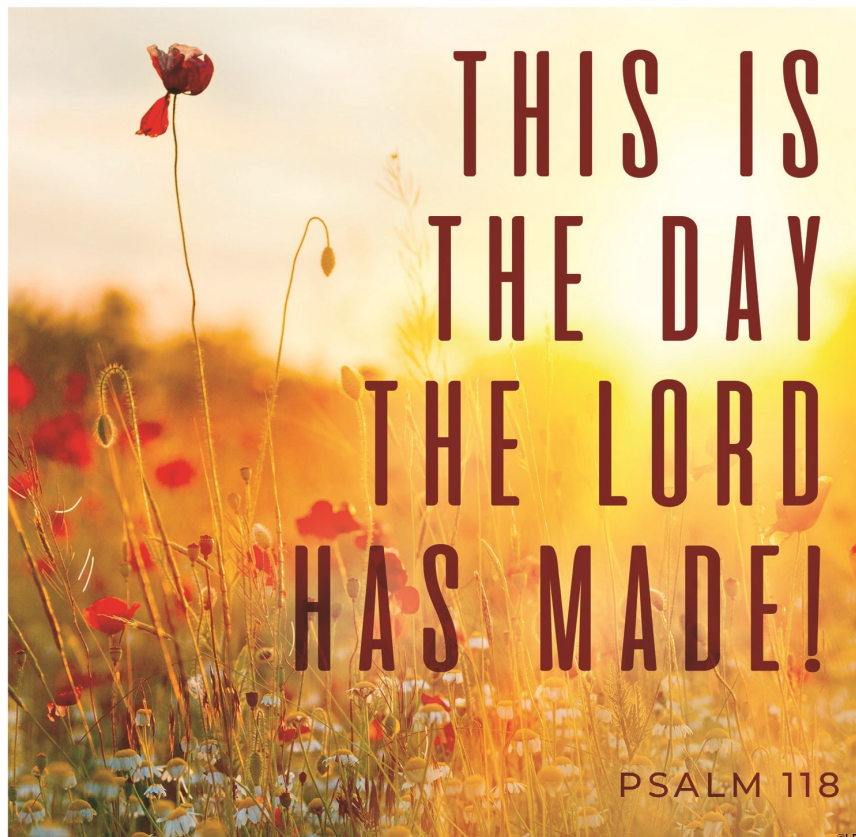

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.

"Do not be afraid! I know that you are seeking Jesus the crucified. He is not here, for he has been raised just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him.' Behold, I have told you."
