Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

Ruminations on Societal Challenges

These past few weeks since the tragic death of George Floyd due to the actions of Officer Derek Chauvin as fellow officers looked on has been with few exceptions universally condemned by our society as a whole. Who of us watching this scene looked on without disbelief, anger, and frustration? As peaceful protests broke out first in Minneapolis, and then throughout the country, the righteous anger experienced by so many was felt by others as sheer rage. Added to this were those seeking to take advantage of the situation either for personal gain, political reasons, or to obtain vengeance against perceived slights whether real or imagined, and suddenly what was once peaceful became rioting and looting.

Two weeks ago, on Sunday May 31st, 2020 I had the opportunity to visit 38th Avenue S. and Chicago in South Minneapolis to visit the site of George Floyd's death. I had joined a number of Clergy and laity from various denominations. We went to pray. What I experienced that day was peaceful protest open to a multiplicity of voices. Not every message spoken was congruous as different speakers had different ideas. But what was clear was the difference between peaceful protest on the one hand, and riots, looting, and violence on the other hand.

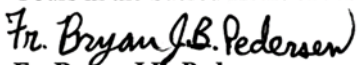

It got me thinking about the many contradictions felt in American life. For example, immigrants the world over have continuously sought in past times and today to come to the United States because of the opportunities our American way of life affords. Those seeking entrance to our nation do so not because they see all the flaws of America, but because they see the fundamental goodness of the American experiment and the opportunities that await them. I don't think they are blind to the challenges, but they see in America a better life for them and their children than remaining in their homelands. At the same time, we recognize the failures of our past whether it be the institution of race-based slavery and treatment of indigenous peoples, or the Jim Crow laws and segregation. We also recognize the challenges of our present. No one of us wants to live in a society where those sworn to protect violate their charge. It is often said that the corruption of the best is the worst. When you look at the mission of the police – to keep the peace and protect the innocent from those who would do them harm we see a lofty mission. But, when that trust is betrayed even by a few, it leads many to doubt the very goodness of the profession. Those in the priesthood know this well.

A little thought experiment can help us: What if the events of 9/11/2001 – the day Al Qaeda Terrorist turned jet airplanes into flying weapons taking down the Twin Towers known as the World Trade Center - was separated in time by only a month from 05/25/2020 – the day Derek Chauvin knelt on George Floyd's neck for 8 minutes 45 seconds causing his death? What if? In the aftermath of 9/11, we celebrated the heroic men and women serving in law enforcement for their heroism as they rushed into the chaos with Firefighters and Emergency personnel seeking to save the lives of those trapped in the flame filled tower. Both towers would collapse that same morning. The names of those public servants – police, fire, and emergency workers are read annually, and their service is praised. In the aftermath of 5/25, there are multiple voices from across the socio-economic and cultural divide, even from elected officials, calling for the dismantling and defunding of police departments in reaction to the action of Officer Derek Chauvin and those like him who have abused their power. What if these events were separated by only one month's time? Would these contradictory messages of praise for police on the one hand, and the dismantling of police on the other still be in the national conversation?

There is an important principle that all of us must relearn. We must never confuse the part with the whole. Why is racism still a problem in our society? People continually identify the part with the whole. Thus, if someone is robbed at gun point by an African American male, then all African American males are criminals and thugs which is absurd. Here the part is confused with the whole. Or, if a white police officer uses excessive force against a person of color, then all white police officers, or police officers are inherently racist, which is likewise absurd. Again, in the last statement the part is identified with the whole. These are logical fallacies, and we do well to resist the temptation to confuse or identify the part with the whole. If we cannot transcend this fundamental logical fallacy whether in thought or emotions we will forever struggle with racism, bigotry, and delusional confused thinking. Never confuse the part with the whole.

Make it a blessed day!

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

Pastor

Appointed Sunday Readings

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ-6/14/2020

First Reading: "Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD." (Dt 8:3b)

Psalm: Praise the Lord, Jerusalem. (Ps 147)

Second Reading: Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. (1 Cor 10:17)

Gospel: "For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (Jn 6:55-56)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings

Second Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: Dearly beloved, wonder not if the world hate you. (1 John 3:13-18)

Gradual: In my trouble I cried to the Lord, and He heard me. (Psalm 119:1-2)

Gospel: At that time, Jesus spoke to the Pharisees this parable: A certain man made a great supper, and invited many. And he sent his servant, at the hour of supper, to say to them that were invited, that they should come, for now all things are ready. (Luke 14: 16-24)

Top 10 Reasons to send your child to Sacred Heart Catholic School

Reason #6

Utilize responsive and transparent communication within the Sacred Heart Catholic Church and School community.

We ended the school year with a school parade.

We were overwhelmed with joy when the staff, students and parents were able to see one another again. There was a lot of LOVE on Hubbard Ave. and it struck everyone with melancholy and happiness. Sadness that we haven't been together in such a long time but so happy to be able to see so many smiling faces. Thank you to everyone for your smiles, signs and greetings. Until we meet again, have a great summer.

We are registering for the 2020-2021 school year----WE HAVE ROOM IN KINDERGARTEN!

Parents are welcome to schedule a personalized tour or we will set up a Zoom meeting with you to discuss our curriculum and program. We have many options for Pre-School and we have opening in K-8. Discover our school and the activities that enhance each child's educational experience. Come see how integrated faith lessons combined with our C-STEM program enrich our classrooms each day. We are preparing our students for 21st Century skills called the 4 C's: Creativity, Critical Thinking, Collaboration, and Communication. Call the school office to schedule a tour, 763.537.1329.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

It is no wonder that followers of Christ are called the Body of Christ. After all, sharing in the same spiritual food and sacred meal, they become what they eat and reveal the Divine Image. There is so much power for healing in the community of believers. Through the Eucharist, Christ becomes as present in those who have partaken of his Body and Blood as he has the elements themselves. The very presence of God touches the depths of the human soul and visits a part of us that no human being can ever hope to explore. We are God's. The sacred Eucharistic meal is a celebration of intimacy, the reunion of two loves in constant search of and longing for the other.

The community of believers receives the power and the presence to touch and heal in the name of the One they have welcomed within. It is now within their grasp to change the way life is lived and to more intentionally put into practice the Beatitudes that the Divine Guest has revealed. We are asked to be like Christ and work to create a world of sufficiency, where the greed of some no longer creates the want of others but where all of God's children can find a home and a place at the table of life. The One who makes a home within calls us to live a life that transforms. We are changed ourselves and now become agents of change for others. We are the Body of Christ. God is with us. We have been nourished.

Sadly, many are afraid to try. We know what we are called to do, but we struggle with feelings of doubt as to whether God really is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Do our systems have to change? Is it possible that we somehow missed the mark when we put all of our social networks in place and established the business of our lives? Perhaps we have to radically rethink our approach and that can scare us. We might have to give something up or change, and we don't want to. As long as want, injustice, division, prejudice, and scarcity still exist, there is tremendous work for the Body of Christ.

Respect Life Ministry

Holy Family Catholic Adoption Agency

Presently the only Catholic adoption agency located in our Archdiocese, HFCCA was established in 2001, with a mission inspired by Mother Teresa of Calcutta, to promote adoption as the loving answer to abortion.

There is a great need to spread the word about this worthy non-profit organization, because it could make all the difference for someone facing an unplanned pregnancy, and for their unborn child.

NEAR Food Shelf Urgent Need

Our food shelf had to temporarily close in April due to the loss of volunteers associated with the Covid 19 virus pandemic. Many of our volunteers were elderly and at risk for serious complications should they become ill with the virus.

The good news is we did re-open on June 1st.

The not so good news is we are in dire need of volunteers to assist with food distribution. We are also experiencing an increased need for our services. If you are able, please consider this opportunity to volunteer to serve. We would prefer permanent volunteers but we will gladly accept those who may only be able to volunteer on a short term or limited basis as we know many individuals are being called back to work. Rest assured that NEAR has developed processes in compliance with CDC guidelines to ensure the safety of our volunteers and clients during the continuing pandemic.

If you are interested in volunteering contact Carol at NEAR 763 231 3020 or 763 807 5470.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.
Connie, NEAR secretary
