The Great Feasts of June

Every year the month of June coincides with the end of the academic year, the formal start of summer, along with vacation time, and cabin season. The month of June also features great feast days of the Liturgical Year including Trinity Sunday – the celebration of the very mystery of God existing as One essential being, yet existing as three divine persons – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Coming after this is the celebration of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord – commonly known as Corpus Christi – this feast puts emphasis on the mystery of the Holy Eucharist as the memorial of Christ's great work of salvation, namely his great sacrifice manifested as His passion, death, and resurrection – also known as the Paschal Mystery – and the real presence of Jesus, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist we participate in by way of the sacrament. Nourished by the genius of the Fathers, Doctors, and great theologians through the centuries the Church refers to the change of the Bread and Wine in the Body and Blood of Christ as Transubstantiation – meaning a change in the reality that stands underneath, or a change in the substance of the thing.

One of the most important feasts in June especially for us is the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus which celebrates devotion to that symbol of the love of God – The Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The heart has a circle of thorns wounding the heart that represent the crown placed upon Jesus' head. The symbol often has a cross, which represents the Crucifixion. A flame either surrounds the heart or emerges from the top of the heart as you see here. Rays of light radiate outward, which signifies the divine light of love. In this vintage image you also see the spear of St. Longinus which pierced the side of Christ. If you look closely you can also see drops of the Precious Blood of Jesus pouring from the wounded side of His Heart.

As I wrote in a recent flock note message: "Devotion to the Sacred Heart allows us to recall the great love of Jesus for all mankind! He was willing to give everything in order to free us from the shackles and slavery of sin. His Sacred Heart is the symbol of His great love. He burns with a passion to reunite us in grace and righteousness with our Heavenly Father. The crown of thorns wrapped around His Sacred Heart represent all that He suffered and suffers still on account of the indifference shown to Him by our lack of love for God and our neighbor.

Ingratitude and indifference, sadly, is one of the chief sins of our age. We much rather prefer to focus on our own sense of entitlement. Becoming meek and humble of heart like the heart of Christ is the antidote."

You would think that three great feasts would be enough, but there are yet two additional great feasts of June. The Nativity of St. John the Baptist on June 24th celebrates according to Jesus, the birth of the greatest man. In the Eastern Rites they refer to the day as "The Nativity of the Holy Glorious Prophet, Forerunner and Baptist John." There are only three persons we celebrate both the birth and death, and they include our Lord Jesus Christ, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and St. John the Baptist.

The final great feast of June celebrated on June 29th features the two great Apostles of Rome: Saint Peter and Saint Paul. Both were outstanding witnesses of the Gospel founding many Church communities throughout the ancient Mediterranean world. They also followed the master's path in their respective Martyrdoms.

June is replete with great Feasts. I pray you all found or will find ways to celebrate these great feast days.

Make it a blessed day!

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" What do you understand these words to mean? Many see these words as an indication of what may come in eternal life. In actuality, they have more to do with our lives here and now. We are called to die to ourselves and offer our lives as gifts given generously to others. It is not about us. We are asked to serve God and not continue in our service of sin. Life is about learning to do what we really do not want to do because it brings us deeper into the mystery of God, ourselves, and others. Learning how to accept and live with the "small deaths" and sacrifices we encounter teaches us how to live with and approach our final death. We can do so with a heart that has been touched by and is open to mercy or one that is self-focused and closed.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When we were baptized, we were baptized into Christ's death. Take a moment to ponder these profound words. We were baptized into death. In every sense of the word, we are asked to die. This is not just about our final death but about daily deaths due to inconvenience, discomfort, pain, loss, or others' needs. This is an incredible epiphany given the way we very often approach our lives. We do everything to avoid death, let alone encounter it! Many avoid pain, discomfort, inconvenience, uneasiness, change, interference, and suffering of any kind. We put a lot of energy into finding the easiest and least inconvenient way through many things. Even holding the door open for a stranger or saying hello to someone in the store can be major undertakings.

We are called to die. One of the biggest wake-up calls we can have is realizing that life is not about us! There are millions of other people sharing life on this planet with whom I have a relationship. Does my life celebrate those relationships? The most distracting question we can ask is, "What do I want to do?" The more focused, faith-filled question is, "What do I need to do?" What I need to do may not be what I want to do. However, asking this question more frequently will teach us how to more purposefully and intentionally live so we can be a life giving vessel for others. When we learn to live more sacrificially, to put the needs of others before our own, and to not always seek our own self-interest, we become aware of what baptism into Christ's death is really all about. These are the roots of virtue and the seedbed for justice, tolerance, solidarity, love, and peace.

Learning how to accept all the "small deaths" and sacrifices life calls us to teaches us how to approach our final death. All deaths ask us to empty ourselves into something or someone else. Whether we empty ourselves into the heart and soul of another human being or empty ourselves into God at the moment of our final death, new life is always received and nurtured. A heart that exclusively seeks its own interest is a heart that is closed to love. A heart that pours itself out to others and is content with being emptied is a heart that has been touched by and open to mercy. It is a heart that overflows with joy.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

God is Love

I was recently at a Catholic conference and had a conversation with someone living in the thick of Hollywood culture. He was Catholic and spoke of how hard it was to live out his faith amid tremendous temptation and negativity toward religion. He spoke about how going to daily Mass helped to keep him centered and stay strong in his faith. He was a great witness to living out one's faith in the face of disbelief.

One thing that he told me stood out above all the rest. He spoke of his engagement to his fiancé and how important it was to him that God was a major part of their relationship and their lives as individuals as well. He told me he said something to her like, "If you don't love Jesus more than you love me, this is never going to work." What an amazing and truly moving witness!

Songs and books are written about the intense longing one human being can have for another. We can describe another as meaning everything to us. We speak of wanting to offer our complete selves to our beloved. However, true love is about more than wanting to be with that person. It is about wanting that person to know a love even greater than theirs: the love of God. No love can last without God. My Hollywood friend knew this to be the case. He showed his true love for his wife-to-be by sharing more than himself — he shared the very One who created love.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained: Calling Priests Father

Question:

Why do Catholics call priests Father?

Answer:

One of the common objections evangelical Christians have to Catholics is our practice of calling priests by the title Father. They will often cite a passage in Matthew's Gospel in which Jesus tells his followers: "Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven" (23:19). It seems pretty straightforward, but when we put this verse in context, we see that Jesus is speaking out against religious leaders who had forgotten what their proper role was and who were bad examples through their own hypocrisy and elitist attitudes.

In other Gospels, we find Jesus himself using the title father for different characters, such as in the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man (Luke 16:19-31) and the Parable of the Prodigal Son (Luke 15:11-32). If we put the verse from Matthew into the full scope of Jesus' teachings, he isn't saying that we can't use words like "father," "rabbi," or "master." Rather, he is telling us that we should be mindful of the full meaning of those titles and not to misuse them.

To call a priest "Father" is more than a sign of respect for the office of the priesthood. It goes all the way back to the way St. Paul understood his own work as a missionary and evangelizer. Paul wrote, "I am writing you in this way not to shame you but to admonish you as my beloved children ... It was I who begot you in Christ Jesus through my preaching of the Gospel. I beg you, then, be imitators of me. This is why I have sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful son in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 4:14-17).

Yes, we have God alone as our heavenly Father, but there are also those here with us who nurture and nourish our faith through their teaching and care. This is why the title of Father has been applied to the church's pastors in different ways since the earliest days of the Church, including monks and nuns using the title "abbot" and "abbess" (from abba) for their spiritual leaders and Christians around the world recognizing the "Holy Father" or "pope" (from papa) as the head of the family that is the Church. The title Father is a reminder that priests have a special responsibility to care for, protect, feed, listen to, and nourish those who have been entrusted to them, all after the example of our Father in heaven who never ceases to give us what we truly need.
