WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I remember as a child the meticulousness my father would bring to a task. Whether it be tending to a chore in the yard, repairing something, or painting a room, the tiniest of every detail demanded his attention. He had great patience. I benefited greatly by his example and remember these lessons well. We all need examples to follow. It is important to identify folks who excel at simple things and show us how to do things well. There are those among us and those who have gone before us who serve as these models and witnesses. They are ordinary people who in their “extraordinary ordinariness” capture our attention and allow us to see things more clearly.

These are the prophets, martyrs, teachers, witnesses, heralds, and innovators who bring a single-minded devotion to God to even the simplest of tasks they perform. They have an openness to being used and become vessels of Divine justice, mercy, and presence. They call us to the “more” of life and point us to the Gospel in all of its simplicity and splendor. They remind us of the little ones of the Kingdom and the values we all need to cultivate and possess. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the peacemaker who often are rejected not only by those who have far different agendas but by those you think would welcome them.

All of the saints in heaven and on earth form this cloud of witnesses who journey with us as we make our way through life. They offer us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. They direct us toward true happiness and remind us that we are all called to be saints. All it takes is desire, love, and fidelity. There is much we can learn from the official saints of the church. Their guidance is ever before us and ever with us. But there is also a lot to learn from the unofficial saints of the church. They sit beside us every Sunday, are our neighbors and ordinary people we meet every day. Because of the devotedness of their faith, they remind us to keep going, remain focused, and cultivate purpose and meaning, and give voice to those who have none. The inspiration is all around us.

Pay attention to the details. Do what you do with great love. Know that you are not alone. Believe that you can persevere. Have great faith.

National Vocations Awareness Week, Nov. 1-7

The week of Nov. 1-7 is National Vocations Awareness Week, an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and to live out our vocation to holiness, with particular attention to vocations to Church ministry as priests, deacons, and vowed men and women religious. Please pray this week for those who are discerning how God is calling them. The need is great and the distractions are many. For the Serra Club, whose patron is Saint Junipero Serra, we are an apostolate dedicated to promoting Church vocations throughout the year, in connection with the Archdiocesan Office of Vocations. For more information on how you can help support holy vocations and for what the Serra Club does to support vocations, please contact Bonnie Conroy at bonconroy8@gmail.com or Denis Madden at denis_mad@msn.com.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Especially with regard to living the Gospel, we are not alone. A great cloud of witnesses journey with us offering us inspiration, wisdom, intercession, and support. We look to them for the example of perseverance we desperately need in order to be faithful, and for what it means to "walk the talk!" The Beatitudes are indeed a blessed vision that people hunger to hear and embrace. But, they also clearly remind us that following Jesus is difficult. Poverty of spirit, meekness, mercy, and peace making are not virtues readily accepted by the world. Pursuing a purity of heart and acknowledging the hunger of our souls require not only a courageous stance, but a single-minded devotion to God. And, after going against the grain of the world and meeting resistance along the way, the true disciple may find themselves persecuted and paying a high price. Look to all the saints for the secret to happiness and the example of fidelity. Their lives speak volumes of how God can use even the weakest and most humble among us in tremendous ways. Saints are not even close to being perfect. They are just ordinary folks like us trying to give honor to God with their

Sacraments for Those in Health Care Facilities

As of mid-October, the Minnesota Department of Health is allowing health care facilities that have not had an active case of COVID-19 in the past 14 days to transition to "Phase II," allowing even non-essential personnel to visit. Some facilities are now permitting Holy Communion and pastoral care on a more regular basis.

If you have a loved one in a health care facility, you are encouraged to call the facility to ask if they have entered Phase II. They may now allow a priest or extraordinary minister into the facility. Letting the facility know you believe these soul-enriching efforts are essential to the wellbeing of your loved one could expedite this process. Please always observe each facility's own particular hygienic requirements.

Please pray for all of our Catholic brothers and sisters who have been isolated or away from the Sacraments. May we all, though Christ, be instrumental in our collective physical and spiritual healing.

Dear Women of Sacred Heart,

In this year of many changes and challenges; such as wearing masks, social distancing, and limitations on social and work gatherings, I hope that we adopt a greater appreciation for each other and see this time as an opportunity for growth.

In light of these limitations the manner in which our organization functions this year must be different. Right now the SHCCW is facing challenges regarding effective fundraising and coordination of certain group activities.

The Sacred Heart Council of Catholic Women exists to encourage one another spiritually and to help one another materially. We have not required dues for many years as we want all women to participate. We want to thank the many women who have contributed with their September envelope. If you would like to make a donation to the SHCCW during weekly mass collections, we encourage you to use your September envelope or make a note on an envelope that the donation is for SHCCW.

The SHCCW Board members recognize that there are many corporal and spiritual needs in our parish community and we are seeking opportunities to connect with those parishioners. We will be using SignUp.com and will get more information out on how volunteers' availability and requests for help can be posted to SignUp.com. We are also looking for new ideas from our members (you!) and encourage you to contact us with suggestions and to volunteer for activities when planned.

The SHCCW has brainstormed a few possible outreach programs:

- Helping families with kids who are going through continued quarantine and distance learning.
- Adopt a family or senior comfort packages.
- Grocery shopping for the seniors.
- Computer/technology assistance for parishioners in need.

These projects are still in the planning phase so please reach out and let's work together.

We have scheduled a meeting for November 7 at 9am-9:30am via zoom. Please join us.

WILL YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?
PRAYER SUGGESTION

Eternal Father, We lift up to you these and all the priests of the World. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness and Holiness of your Son, Jesus, the Eternal Priest. May their lives be pleasing to you. In Jesus name we pray. Amen

Mass, rosary, fasting,
Day of offering,
Eucharistic Adoration,
Offering of sufferings,
Or - whatever the Lord inspires you to offer Him...

READ THE GOSPEL AND COLOR THE PICTURE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Instead of being bossy, be kind and humble. Instead of being angry, work hard to make peace. Instead of wanting to be popular or rich, spend time with kids who are lonely. When you care about other people, God will smile. He will reward you in heaven.

PRAYER

God, help me to make peace in my family and in my school.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

On the playground, look for someone who is alone. Invite that child to play with you.
