33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Well done, my good and faithful servant.” – Mt 25:21

Pastor's Page | Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

For All the Saints

Last Sunday I mentioned the new relic shrine that has been put in place in order to display the first and second class relics that Fr. Francis Nolan had acquired throughout his life. For over 50 years these relics along with authenticating paperwork were held in a small box in the parish office vault. The crown jewel of these relics includes a relic containing a sliver of the Holy Cross that Christ was crucified upon.

What are relics and why do Catholics venerate them? An article on relics appearing on Aleteia has this to say:

“Relics are material items that are connected to a saint and are sorted into three “classes.” A first-class relic is all or part of the physical remains of a saint. This could be a piece of bone, a vial of blood, a lock of hair, or even a skull or incorrupt body.

A second-class relic is any item that the saint frequently used (clothing, for example). A third-class relic is any item that touches a first or second-class relic. (It is not usually the practice to display third class relics for veneration in Churches).

Catholics are known to preserve relics of saints and it is believed that graces from God flow through these objects to devout souls who venerate them.

The use of physical objects related to a holy person goes back as far as the Old Testament. In it we see an episode from the Second Book of Kings that features the use of relics.

And so Elisha died and was buried. At that time of year, bands of Moabites used to raid the land. Once some people were burying a man, when suddenly they saw such a raiding band. So they cast the man into the grave of Elisha, and everyone went off. But when the man came in contact with the bones of Elisha, he came back to life and got to his feet.” (2 Kings 13:20-21)

Even in the New Testament we see how God uses material objects to bring about healings. In the Gospel of Mark we see how a woman is healed because she touched Jesus’ cloak.

“She had heard about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak. She said, ‘If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured.’ Immediately her flow of blood dried up. She felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.” (Mark 5.27-29)

There are other examples in the lives of the apostles that clearly show how God works miracles through items connected to a saint.

How is it that a relic shrine came to be at Sacred Heart?

In the early part of the new millennium the Missionaries of Charity, the order founded by Mother Theresa of Calcutta, now St. Theresa of Calcutta, came to the Twin Cities for the first time to work in our diocese. Fr. Michael Creagan, pastor of Sacred Heart from 2002 through 2008, made the upper level of our convent for their use until such time that a permanent location for their apostolate would be found. In gratitude the Missionaries of Charity gifted our parish with relics of St. Theresa of Calcutta, the great saint and founder of the order. These included both a first-class relic, a dried drop of blood of the saint, and a second-class relic – part of a habit and veil that she wore. A reliquary to contain the theca – the smaller reliquary placed with an ostensorium (large reliquary) and display box of plexiglass and shelf of oak was fabricated by long time parishioner Eugene Fink.

In 2011 Sacred Heart was designated as a pilgrimage Church for the year of St. Paul. I obtained a first-class relic of the Apostle St. Paul from a Priest friend – I must confess I promised to return it to him after that year was over, but he has since forgotten, and I have yet to return it. I may yet ask him if he would like to leave it with the people of Sacred Heart. I then added this relic and a relic of St. Charles Borromeo which I had in my possession to the plexiglass display in Church.

After I found the relic box of Fr. Francis Nolan in the vault some years back I had dreamed that one day when funding was available I would put a larger relic shrine to display all of these relics so the faithful of the parish and elsewhere could venerate them. The opportunity for this arose when the The Catholic Spirit, the newspaper of the Archdiocese ran a story on one of our parishioners, Donald Stoullil, last fall in 2019. Don Stoullil, who at age ninety-nine recently died this past September was a veteran of World War II. He was a bomber pilot who flew over seventy bombing missions over Europe during the war. A priest chaplain had given him a relic of St. Therese of Lisieux at the Army Air base in England where Don was stationed. Don kept the relic he was given in his pocket.

Year-End Giving

It's not too early to start thinking about year-end giving for 2020. Many of you are starting to make these decisions during this time. There are various ways to maximize the benefits of your year-end giving for you and your parish, e.g., stock contributions, employer matching funds, Christmas envelopes. Many of you also like to make year-end contributions from your IRA accounts. In response to COVID-19, there were some changes made to the tax code to incentivize charitable giving in 2020. Please speak with your financial advisor, accountant or attorney to find out more about this and any other options you might have for year-end giving.

You can also make an on-line gift at any time at www.shrmn.org – Click the Donate button.

Sacred Heart Catholic School

Sacred Heart Catholic School is a “Believe and Read” School, K-3

We are one of 33 Catholic schools in the archdiocese using the Believe and Read literacy program. Join us at the CSCOE Believe and Read Virtual Kindergarten Preview on November 17 at 8 pm. You may register on our Sacred Heart Facebook page or the CSCOE Facebook page. Please spread the word by sharing this information. We would love to have Sacred Heart families learn about the program and enroll at SHCS for fall 2021. Enrollment begins in November!

Register at: rebrand.ly/BRKPreview.

How Believe & Read works at Sacred Heart Catholic School:

- Literacy coaches from Groves Academy work with our teachers in K-3 over a three year period using a “train the trainer” model.
- In addition to building students’ vocabulary and comprehension skills through their regular reading lessons, teachers will be tasked with incorporating a daily 30-minute phonics-based lesson to ensure students are grasping the reading rules they’ll need to one day achieve fluency.
- Many of the lesson plans are scripted, so teachers will know exactly how and when to introduce each letter, along with the sounds, and how to build up to words from there.
- Our teachers will also get weekly check-ins with a literacy coach from Groves Academy, along with support for tracking student progress through routine assessments.

We will be enrolling students for the 2021-2022 school year beginning in December

It is not too early to start thinking about the 2021-2022 school year. We have had a very successful first trimester with in-person learning. Our students are thriving academically and socially by being in school each day, learning from our teachers. We planned and met all summer long to write our safety protocol plan and it is working! Please call Pat Moore to set up a virtual tour or an in-person tour after school.

Wreaths

We want to thank you so much for taking part in the Christmas Fundraiser!

You will be able to pick up your orders will be on Friday, November 20, ALL DAY and again on Saturday, November 21, from 9 until Noon.

Thanks again for all of your efforts!

Gospel Meditation

GOSPEL MEDITATION

November 15, 2020

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God gives us the gift of His very self and asks us to invest it. Investing God's greatest gift of Himself wisely, allows God's kingdom to grow and flourish. God trusts us with this pearl of great price in hopes that it will produce abundant fruit. While God's gift of self is realized in the gifts of faith, hope, and love, they are not meant to be solely for personal benefit. They are intended to be shared and are at the heart of Jesus' blueprint for happiness, the Beatitudes.

When we properly invest God's greatest gift, His most treasured possession, we invest in the wellbeing of all of our brothers and sisters and the world in which we live. We take up most seriously our call to be stewards and properly manage, not only our own affairs, but the affairs of those around and before us. God has put tremendous confidence in us. Do we have that same confidence in God?

We often go the extra mile and put in the additional effort when it comes to those concerns closest to us: our families, friends, careers, home and securities. But when it comes to things that are not as close to us, we can become lax and less conscientious. Tending to God's treasure requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work. It demands that I see the bigger picture, God's picture, in which self-sacrifice is a given as we labor for the establishment of God's kingdom, God's vision. Fear and a lack of trust can loom large, however. We are afraid of letting go of what is "mine" and apprehensive of jeopardizing what we have in order to venture into something bigger and more promising.

Fear and a lack of trust serve no purpose in God's kingdom. They benefit neither the person nor God. What is required is a courageous resolve that produces the fortitude necessary to stay the course and do what God is asking. Doing all in our power to cultivate the seeds of faith, hope, and love in our world, working diligently to put all of our relationships in proper order, becoming attentive to systems and ideologies that hurt and oppress people, being mindful of injustice, and laboring on behalf of the poor and the needy are at the core of what each of us is asked to do. It is how we invest God's most precious gift wisely. If persistent, alert and attentive, then life will gradually improve around us, there will be greater peace and we will experience joy.

News From Other Sources

Angels and Demons: What do Scripture and Tradition Say about Them?

Movies and the Internet show no shortage of information on angels and demons. Bookstores have whole racks devoted to the topic. While much of what we see and read keeps us entertained, the media's presentation of the spiritual and diabolical worlds is all too often unconnected to the Christian message. In this presentation and in light of Christ's absolute victory over sin and death, Fr Michael Patella will outline the Christian understanding of the devil, angels, demons, ghosts, and spirits in Scripture and Tradition. He will also discuss the inherent problems and dangers that arise today with the undue attention many give to the occult.

The relic of St. Therese flew with him and his crew during every one of those missions. Seventy years later he told me the story and asked me to take custody of the relic. I recorded that conversation on my iPhone. When the article on Don came out last fall the following Sunday I mentioned the story in a homily and my desire that we add the relic of St. Therese that Don gave me to the relics we already displayed at Sacred Heart. After hearing that homily one of our parishioner's told me he wanted to help make that happen. A couple months later another person though not a parishioner who also frequented our Saturday morning Mass gave me a relic of St. Pius X, the bishop of Rome and Pope when Sacred Heart Parish was founded. A month or too after that she and her husband also wanted to help make the relic shrine a reality. In the meantime, another person came to me after Mass with some relics they wanted to place in my custody. These included St. Oliver Plunkett and St. Dominic. Clearly with all of these things happening Divine Providence was guiding the way for the relics of these saints to adorn our Church.

With funding now in hand, I put in motion the plan to make a larger relic shrine to house the various relics in our parish a reality. What you now see on the right side of the sanctuary next to the statue of the pietá is this project coming to fruition. I am very grateful to all of the people who have made this happen whether by donating these relics to me, or by donating the funds necessary, or the craftsmanship of Steve Bromander who built the oak stand now holding the Relic Shrine. There are still a few more things yet to happen in this project involving the relic of St. Pius X. I will apprise you when it is fully complete. But for now, this Relic Shrine gives us a fitting place to venerate and commune with these saints.

The relics now displayed at the Church of the Sacred Heart:

1. Relic of the True Cross - sliver of wood
2. St. Patrick – bone chip
3. St. Therese of Lisieux – strand of her hair, bone chip, piece of her habit.
4. St. Francis of Assisi – bone chip
5. St. Clare of Assisi – bone chip
6. St. Dominic de Guzman – bone chip
7. St. Theresa of Avila – pieces of a habit she wore
8. St. Margaret Mary – piece of a habit she wore
9. St. Elizabeth Ann Seton – bone chip and piece of habit
10. St. Teresa of Jesus de Los Andes – bone chip
11. St. Theresa of Calcutta – drop of dried blood and part of a habit she wore
12. St. John Marie Vianney – Piece of his alb or amice that he wore
13. St. Oliver Plunkett, Bishop and Martyr – bone chip
14. Blessed Francis Xavier Seelos – bone chip
15. St. Antony Mary Claret – bone chip
16. Holy House of Loretto – a stone fragment from the house

We are cautioned to be especially careful during the Coronavirus outbreak. Here are some simple ways to keep sickness away.

Wash Your Hands

Wash your hands for at least 20 seconds using soap and water. If you can't wash your hands, use hand sanitizer frequently.

Don't Touch Your Face

Especially around the eyes, nose and mouth. If you must sneeze, use a tissue or your arm.

Keep Your Distance

Practice social distancing during this epidemic and stay away from large groups. Instead, call, email or check up on family and friends using social media.

“Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master’s joy.’”
