Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

The Path of Love and Non-violence

This past week on inauguration day, the Gospel of the day taken from St. Mark 3:1-6 recounted the miraculous healing of man who had a withered hand. We are told Jesus performed this miracle on the Sabbath Day in a Synagogue. We can infer that Jesus healed this man in the manner he did to challenge the religious establishment of his own day. Witnesses of this miraculous healing were Pharisees who, as St. Mark notes, "watched Jesus closely to see if he would cure him on the Sabbath so that they might accuse him." It is hard for us today to understand how anyone could see that a miraculous healing could somehow be a violation of the third commandment of the law to "Keep holy the Sabbath day." Yet, it was this miraculous healing that definitively set the pharisees against Jesus. What was their issue? It was the teaching of the Pharisees, a teaching widely held in Jesus' day, that even to heal on the Sabbath was a kind of "work" that violated the Sabbath Day rest.

Before performing this work of healing Jesus challenged the establishment with these words: "Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath rather than to do evil to save life rather than to destroy it?" Bishop Barron notes that "his healings signify the arrival of the kingdom of God. When Jesus began to preach, his theme was that the kingdom of God is at hand. In his own person an entirely new way of ordering things was on offer. Then—in his love and nonviolence, in his confrontation with the Pharisees and religious establishment, in his healing and teaching—Jesus was demonstrating precisely what the reign of the God of Israel looks like."

The Gospel tells us that after this event "The Pharisees went out and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him to put him to death." The Herodians were a group of Jews who sought to advance the political authority of King Herod Antipas.

The path of love and non-violence which Jesus shows us as he strives to affect social change is a slower path to be sure but leads to lasting results because this way has the capacity to change hearts and minds. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a Christian preacher and pastor took this same approach in effecting social change in regard to civil rights. This approach contrasts with the pharisees who sought to use political power to try and extinguish those opposed to them like Jesus. There are many lessons we can draw applicable to our own day in so many ways.

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

World Day for Consecrated Life

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Tuesday, February 2, 2021 and in parishes on the weekend of February 6-7, 2021. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on Feb. 2. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day.

On this day, candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. Those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus to the world. There are many forms of consecrated life for men and women in the Catholic Church, as described in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Articles 915-930. Each form is unique, but all are united in their mission to serve the Lord, whether it be by a life dedicated to apostolic service, cloistered prayer, or another type of apostolate. Forms of consecrated life are: Living the Evangelical Counsels, Eremitic Life (hermits), Consecrated Virgins and Widows, Religious Life, Secular Institutes, and Societies of Apostolic Life. The Serra Club invites you to pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ, shine His light to all the world and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

The Serra Club of North-Minneapolis is an apostolate of lay men and women whose mission is to foster and affirm vocations to the ministerial priesthood and vowed religious life. Through the Serra Club, we collaborate with our bishops, parishes and vocation directors to fulfill this mission. For more information please contact Bonnie Conroy at bonconroy8@gmail.com or Denis Madden at denis\_mad@msn.com.
