PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

So they brought the colt to Jesus and put their cloaks over it. And he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. - Mk 11:7-8

Holy Week: The Greatest Week of the Liturgical Year

Unlike last year, when our ability to celebrate Lent was curtailed due to the pandemic which meant that only the sacred ministers and a select few assisting directly with the liturgical celebrations were able to attend Holy Week liturgies while the rest watched various livestreams at home. This year we can actually celebrate Holy Week! There will be some modifications due to the pandemic, but we can commemorate the most important event in human history – The suffering, death, and resurrection of Christ!

The culmination of the Lenten Season begins with the celebration of Palm Sunday which commences Holy Week. The ceremonies of Holy Week offer some ancient customs which unite us across the centuries with fellow Christians. We should take heart in the realization that saints like St. Benedict, St. Gregory the Great, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Clare, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Dominic, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Ignatius of Loyola, St. Charles Borromeo, St. Theresa of Calcutta, St. John Paul II, and a whole host of others have engaged in many of the same prayers, rituals, and actions. This reminds us that the life of the Church is something truly great that endures even as so many other things have passed away.

They have held the palms singing “Hosanna to the Son of David”, so will we. They have stood to hear the Passion accounts as will we. They have heard bells sound out in joy as the Gloria makes a brief return on Holy Thursday only to be replaced by the stark sound of the clappers, and so will we. They have heard and sung the mysterious and solemn Pange Lingua Gloriosi sung as the Blessed Sacrament is brought to the Altar of Repose, we will hear the same.

They have witnessed the Sacred Ministers of the Liturgy prostrate themselves in silence before the stripped altar on Good Friday, so will we. They have heard the Passion according to St. John chanted in ancient tones or read for the Solemn Liturgy of Good Friday, so will we. They have assented in their hearts to the solemn prayers for the Church and the World on Good Friday, so will we. They have witnessed the veiled cross processed into the Church by the Deacon bearing the Savior of the World, they have seen it unveiled as ancient words proclaiming the savior of the world are sung, they have worshipped and venerated the cross that represents our salvation, they have even crept forward to adore and kiss the wood of the cross, or the feet of the savior represented on the cross. Even if we do not physically kiss the cross, we will kneel before it in worship.

They have received the lighted hand candles which represents the Risen Christ, so will we. They have heard the great song of Exultation sung by the Deacon or Priest, so will we. They have kept vigil during the night hearing the great stories of God’s saving covenant which finds its fulfillment in Christ, so will we. They have witnessed the elect catechumens receive the Sacraments of eternal life, so will we. They have received the Blessed Sacrament fulfilling their Easter Duty to receive the Lord in Holy Communion at least once per year, and unlike last year, this year so will we! They have heard the final words “Ite, Missa est, alleluia, alleluia!” and we too will exult in the Alleluia!

As we learned last year, we must never take for granted these solemn ceremonies by which we commemorate the most important event of human history. We do not know what the future will bring, but we do know that this year we can participate, and for this we must be grateful. Participating in the liturgies of Holy Week bring so many blessings. These rites build faith, breed life, and bring peace. I pray that you will join us as you are able for the liturgies of Holy Week.

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - Walk Every Step with Christ

Holy Week is a week for being mindful. We must set loose the baggage of Lent, and not be deterred by the dazzling sunrise of Easter morning beckoning in the distance.

It's okay for us to be excited for Easter. We've waited so long, after all. In my opinion it's one of the best feelings there is: the yearning we have in our hearts for the Resurrection as we embark on Palm Sunday. And in a purely logical sense, many of us have Easter celebrations for which we are preparing, and practical considerations to contend with. It's going to be a busy week, one likely full of happy distractions.

But my friends, we simply must keep our feet on the ground. Let's not "skip" Holy Week. Resist the urge to flip to the last page of the book, to fast-forward to the final scene of the movie. Don't rob yourself of the journey. This week is a blessed opportunity. It is this week that teaches us who we are. In the span of the Triduum, we have the birthday of the priesthood, the institution of the Eucharist, the sacrifice on Calvary and so many other vivid and meaningful scenes.

It may sound strange, to advise someone to savor the moments of Holy Week. There are so many violent and heartrending moments, after all. But this is the valley of tears, remember — we are not in Heaven yet. And here, in our fallen, sin-filled world, it is the heartrending moments that seem to matter the most.

SOLEMN GOOD FRIDAY PRAYER VIGIL

Join us on Good Friday as we remember the unborn victims of abortion while meditating on the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ. Pastors of various denominations lead us in Scripture and prayer every half hour. There is no protesting or signs, just solemn prayer.

Important Please Read The City of St. Paul has granted us a permit for the closure of Charles Ave. (where we usually are on Good Friday) for our event. But there will be some restrictions. Please read through these carefully.

1. Only 250 people are allowed in the permitted area at any given time.
2. All will be required to wear face masks and to social distance by household while attending.
3. There will be a separate entrance and exit for coming and going when attending. Sanitation stations will be set up.

Because of these restrictions:

1. We ask those attending in person to limit their time if others show up wanting to attend. Consider coming first thing in the morning for the 9:00 am Opening Prayer or in the afternoon when our numbers traditionally are fewer.
2. There will be no buses and no parking ramp. This will be on street parking only. Anyone who chooses to park in a business parking lot in the industrial neighborhood will risk being towed. You may be walking several blocks from where you can park your car. Public transportation is working, both the train line and buses. We won't be carrying the cross, but it will be set up as a symbol of the cross of Christ and the cross of abortion the whole day.

We are also planning on live streaming the event, most likely in 15-20 minute segments throughout the day. Streaming will be available on April 2, 2021 starting at 8:55 am at <https://www.facebook.com/ProLifeActionMinistries>. Please contact our office with questions at 651-771-1500.

Catholics at the Capitol, April 15 – On Mission for Life and Dignity!

Join Catholics from across Minnesota either virtually or in-person at the Cathedral of St. Paul for this incredible day of prayer, education, and advocacy. You'll be formed in the faith through Mass and keynote speakers, informed on critical issues impacting life

& dignity in our state, and sent on mission to the Capitol to pray for our state and elected officials. The next day, on April 16, you will get to meet virtually with your legislators to advocate on the issues you learned about during the event.

Visit catholicsatthecapitol.org to learn more and secure your spot. Together, we can protect life and dignity.

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

Answer:

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass. Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of nonabsorbent material" (nos. 328-330). Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood the Lord.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

Find and circle ten things that are different:

SHARING THE GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Jesus spent forty days in the desert. Jesus stayed close to God, and he followed God's directions every day of his life. When Satan came to test Jesus he was ready. Jesus passed every test beautifully. He said "No" to temptation. When you write spelling words over and over, it is easier to remember them. If you are learning a new language, it helps to make flash cards to practice with. Once you memorize all your words, taking the test is pretty easy. The more you read the Bible and do what God asks in his word, the easier it will be for you to pass Satan's tests, too.

PRAYER

God, help me to stay close to you so that I am ready for my tests.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Memorize Proverbs 1:3, "You will learn what is right and honest and fair." Practice writing it and saying it every day, until you know this verse by heart.
