Sacred Heart Parish Mission Statement

"Sacred Heart Catholic Parish exists to foster a community of disciples in response to the Gospel of Jesus Christ through Worship, Fellowship, Catholic Education and Service"

Starting soon at Sacred Heart will be an opportunity for small group fellowship, community, and adult Faith Formation through Bishop Robert Barron's new study on the Creed.

The Creed refers to foundational statements of belief. Our very first creed, for example, is the Sign of the Cross. "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen." The sign of the cross itself comes from the great commission of Jesus given to the Apostles and disciples just prior to Jesus' Ascension, body and soul, into Heaven wherein he said to them:

"Go and teach all nations (peoples), baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

These words are at the heart of our baptism and ultimately convey the most important relationship we have, namely, the relationship we have with God our Heavenly Father, who has adopted us as beloved sons and daughters, saved us through the cross of His only-begotten Son, and sent the Holy Spirit to dwell in our souls, thus making us temples of His presence. That is why we say we have sanctifying grace at our Baptism. For the Holy Spirit's presence within our soul makes us holy and righteous in God's sight.

The Apostles Creed and the Nicene Creed which we profess at Sunday Mass are both elaborations of the baptismal creed.

The upcoming study with Bishop Robert Barron is an opportunity to grow in faith and fellowship with fellow parishioner's in small groups. I hope you will take this opportunity for faith enrichment by learning more about the foundational beliefs we have as Catholic Christians in the Creed. Please see the bulletin section for Adult Faith Formation for more information.

Yours in the Sacred Heart of Jesus,

Fr. Bryan J.B. Pedersen

Stewardship Collection Numbers

It has come to our attention that the Stewardship Collection numbers in the bulletin for the past few weeks have been duplicates of prior weeks. There was an error in the numbers that were pulled for the bulletin. We have the correct numbers for prior weeks in December available for anyone who wants to see those. This week's numbers (weekly and YTD) are correct as of 1/2/2022. The correct numbers will be pulled going forward. We appreciate this being brought to our attention and apologize for the confusion.

Saint of the Week-Examples of our Faith

St. Sebastian | January 20

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350. We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Brugghen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

Faith Formation

BISHOP ROBERT BARRON'S THE CREED

In the fourth century, intense deliberations over theological questions gave rise to the Nicene Creed. This formal statement of faith is the foundation for both Eastern and Western Christianity, and to this day, most Christians around the world would subscribe to it. In our age of secularism, skepticism, and disaffiliation, we should attend to the most basic issue first: What does it mean to believe in God?

Starting on Tuesday January 25 two sessions will be offered. During the day from 1-2:30pm and an evening session 7-8:30pm. We will meet Jan. 25, Feb. 8, 22, Mar. 8, 22, April 5, 19. Questions, call Bunny in Parish Office 763-537-4561.

Registration fee for this program is $30 Couples: $35 Forms can be found at Front Desk.

Pre-Baptism Classes

PRE-BAPTISM CLASSES

Pre-Baptism Classes are offered at Sacred Heart on the Second Tuesday of the month. All parents are required to attend a pre-baptism class before the Baptism of their first child or if it has been over three years since they last attended a pre-baptism class. Our next scheduled session is Tuesday February 8 at 7pm in the Activities Building. If you plan to attend this session, please call the Parish Office 763-537-4561.

Music Ministry

Join us! Sacred Heart Music Ministry

Have you been looking for a way to participate more fully during Mass? Are you looking for a social way to be involved at church? Do you just love to sing? Join us as we grow our music ministry at Sacred Heart. Opportunities are available for singers and instrumentalists. Please contact our Director of Sacred Music, Jamie Schmidt at jschmidt@shrmn.org for more information.

Rehearsal Schedule

Apples and Oranges? An Interreligious Approach to Loving God and Neighbor

The reality of religious pluralism—that there are many religions, that many good and sincere people practice these many religions, and that these many religions will remain many—invites us to grow in our love for God and neighbor by encountering what is true, good, and holy in these traditions. But where and how do we begin this interreligious learning? With examples from Buddhism, Hinduism, Islam, and Judaism, we will explore the possibilities religious pluralism and comparative theology provide.

Thursday, January 20, presentation from 6:30-9:00pm, Basilica of Saint Mary, Minneapolis. Free event. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, 320-363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.
