WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

What has been the most difficult challenge you faced in your life? Many difficult human experiences can “turn up the heat” in our lives, causing us to question the why of things or even fall into despair. Some people just somewhat passively accept what life brings, even death, and chalk difficult experiences up to happening “because they do.” They seemingly endure and move on. Taking life at face value, there really is no ultimate meaning to things. It’s easier to ignore that inner prompting calling us to understand why. It’s there whether we admit it or not. To question or not to question — that is the question! People sometimes give up the God search because it causes too many questions. Once we open the door to the possibility of God’s existence, then all of the awkward, challenging, and tragic pieces of life have to find their place. It gets messy. But the search is so important to living. We can easily dry up and become arid, abandoning any hope for purpose and meaning because it’s too difficult and non-rational at times. In searching for answers to the how and why of life, human beings also embark on a search for God. When one finally stumbles upon the real living tangible presence of God, then that discovery allows life’s ironies and tensions to be held side by side with the all-encompassing totally unconditional, unmerited love of God! Then when life’s heat gets turned up, difficulties and challenges abound, dryness and heartache become the norm, the soul remains in joyful repose. There is no fear.

The beatitudes celebrate life’s ironies and tensions, holding them all together in the Kingdom of God. Poverty, hunger, weeping, being insulted and hated are not things we would normally associate with being God’s friends. But they are! In fact, those who experience these uncomfortable realities of life are actually better off than those who do not. This is what makes Jesus’ message so intriguing! Don’t give up questioning. Questioning the apparent inequities and polarities of human experience will certainly challenge one’s faith. But it’s the only way to deepen it.

Appointed Sunday Readings

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time-2/13/2022

First Reading: Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD. (Jer 17:7)

Psalms: Blessed are they who hope in the Lord. (Ps 1)

Second Reading: If the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain. (1 Cor 15:16-17)

Gospel: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours." (Lk 6:20)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings

February Corporal Work of Mercy Counsel the Doubtful

To counsel the doubtful. Every one of us has doubts and questions about our faith. Even Mother Teresa had dark nights of the soul wherein she felt doubt and despair. This work of mercy reminds us how important it is to walk closely with people going through transitions, loss or great trials, holding them up in prayer and companionship.

Most commonly those involved with spiritual direction perform this work of mercy. In such cases, a priest, religious, deacon or even a lay person are charged with the task of leading troubled souls to spiritual solutions. It requires a very holy and devout person to sift through the muddy waters of life to give consoling words to someone in need.

However, this work of mercy is not meant to be performed only by qualified priests, but should be much more common among lay men and women. The reason being that our friends and family come to us on a regular basis for guidance in spiritual matters. Often they do not even think of talking to a priest, or are uncomfortable or embarrassed to do so. They may not even be Catholic and are struggling in the spiritual life and have no one to turn to except us.

When the spiritual situation requires a more detailed theological response, we should always have recourse to our parish priest and ask for his assistance.

Sacred Heart Catholic School

We recognized our Students of the Month on Friday! It was our honor to present the following students with this award!

8—Peter Gooley, 7—Ben Ross, 6—Ethan Powell (not pictured), 5—Phillip Cunningham, 4—Nolan Garey, 3—Taylor Sazama, 2—Isla Sullivan, 1—Chloe Johnson, K—Layla Fritz

A time-honored tradition wrapped up on Friday; Catholic Schools Week 2022! There were a number of events centered around fun, but we always include a service project. This year, our students made cards for the some of the people that protect us everyday; our police, nurses and firemen.

We are looking forward to celebrating with you on April 29. It is the most fun night of the year. We'll celebrate our great school with cocktails, dining, live and silent auctions. With regard to auction items, we rely on the generosity of our school and parish to help us out. Would you like to donate an item? Tickets to a concert, a game, a trip around the moon, books, games? We would be happy to take your donations! Any questions, let me know.

Saint of the Week-Examples of our Faith

St. Conrad of Piacenza | February 19

The history of St. Conrad of Piacenza is quite fascinating. A member of one of the most noble families of Piacenza, he was known for his utmost honesty. One day while out hunting with friends, he thought he saw some game in an area of brush and ordered his attendants to set fire to the brush in order to scare it out of hiding. Unfortunately, the dry brush quickly ignited, and fire started to spread. Soon, the surrounding area was engulfed in flames.

Unfortunately, a known arsonist happened to be in the same area as the fire. This man was later imprisoned, tried, and condemned to death for the damage. But on his way to his execution, St. Conrad of Piacenza, full of guilt, stopped the proceedings and confessed to the fire. To make restitution for the damages, Conrad had to sell all his belongings, which reduced him to poverty. Soon after, he decided to retire to a hermitage, where he became a hermit of the Third Order of St. Francis, and his wife entered the Order of Poor Clares.

"Nothing great is ever achieved without enduring much."
St. Catherine of Siena

Faith Formation

BISHOP ROBERT BARRON'S THE CREED

Session 3: Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son
Tuesday February 22

1:00PM or 7:00PM

"I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ." With these words of the Creed, we come to the heart of the matter, for all of distinctively Christian faith begins and ends with a particular person: Yeshua from Nazareth, the only begotten Son of the God of Israel—"Light from Light, true God from true God." This proclamation—no less shocking nearly two thousand years later—draws us into the depths of the divine life and into the mystery of the Incarnation.

Pre-Baptism Classes

PRE-BAPTISM CLASSES

Pre-Baptism Classes are offered at Sacred Heart on the Second Tuesday of the month. All parents are required to attend a pre-baptism class before the Baptism of their first child or if it has been over three years since they last attended a pre-baptism class. Our next scheduled session is Tuesday March 8 at 7pm in the Activities Building. If you plan to attend this session, please call the Parish Office 763-537-4561.

Music Ministry

Spiritual Adoption

HAPPY BIRTHDAY – SPIRITUALLY ADOPTED BABY!

Your spiritually adopted baby was born this month - - nine months after her mother conceived her. The only change at birth is a change in the external life support system of the baby. She is no different now than she before birth except that she breathes and eats differently. She is truly a miracle. She began as a 46-chromosome cell and has grown over the past nine months into this unique human baby we now can see. Never before in history, nor ever again, will anyone exist who is exactly like your spiritually adopted baby. Your prayers saved her life. Thank you on behalf of all of the little babies and their mothers for your loving prayers that helped to bring them to birth "so that they might have life and have it to the full!"

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

One day in heaven, God will reward you for all the loving things you do. When you clean up the dishes without being asked, God sees. If other people are mean to you because you love Jesus, God sees. God will be so happy to see you in heaven!

PRAYER

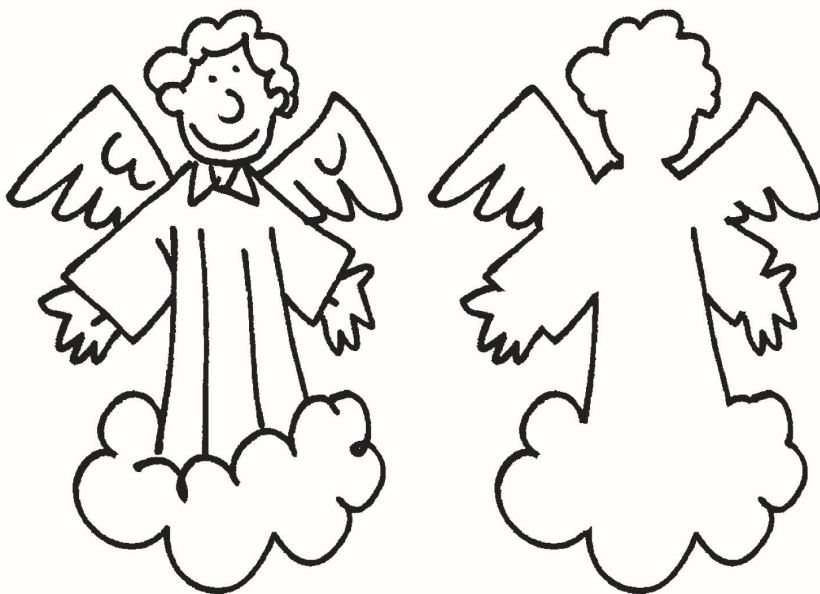

Dear God, help me love you with my whole heart. Help me do things that will make you smile.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Are any of your neighbors lonely? Go out of your way to show Jesus' love to those people.

KIDS CORNER

Can you draw this angel from heaven identical to the first drawing?
