17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Suppose one of you has a friend to whom he goes at midnight and says, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,' and he says in reply from within, 'Do not bother me.' I tell you, if he does not get up to give the visitor the loaves because of their friendship, he will get up to give him whatever he needs because of his persistence." - Lk 11:5b, 7a, 8

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Meister Eckhart asks, "Who is the man whose prayers God always hears?" He answers, "God hears the man who appeals to God as God. When, however, man appeals to God, hoping for some worldly good, he is not appealing to God at all, but to what he is asking of God. He is trying to make God his servant. On this point, St. Augustine says: 'You pray to what you love, for true whole prayer is nothing but love!' Thus, we pray to what we love, and no one rightly prays to God but he who prays for God and has nothing on his mind but God." We struggle with what we want God to do and how we want our prayer validated. Meister Eckhart is correct. We often want God to be our servant. We further struggle with trusting that God knows what we need and that His will is best.

God's will is not some predetermined outcome of events that we must simply suggest. "Thy will be done" is not an invocation beckoning us to accept a particular state of affairs passively. Rather, it is the humble and confident placement of ourselves in the presence of the God we seek, whom we call "Father." We must remember that God is the God of life and light. It is from nothing that God brings something and from the darkness that God brings life. Prayer allows us to seek the One we love with the assurance that all will be well regardless of what course the events of our lives take. God is not about passive submission but the humble trust of love.

That's what makes the Lord's Prayer the perfect prayer. It provides us with proper disposition and focus, putting in line all of the essential relationships of our lives. It celebrates and fosters the ever-deepening relationship of trust we have with our Creator. It also calls us to keep open the doors of love between our brothers and sisters with the power that comes with forgiveness. If in one's darkest hour they can find the resolve to fervently pray this perfect prayer of Jesus' conviction, then there is no doubt that God will hear their plea, reach out in love, and bring them ever closer to His heart. What more does one need to weather the storms of life besides faith, hope, and love? These are God's most perfect gifts and all we really need.

Appointed Sunday Readings17th Sunday in Ordinary Time-7/24/2022

First Reading: "Please, let not my Lord grow angry if I speak up this last time. What if there are at least ten there?" He replied, "For the sake of those ten, I will not destroy it." (Gn 18:32)

Psalm: Lord, on the day I called for help, you answered me. (Ps 138)

Second Reading: He brought you to life along with him, having forgiven us all our transgressions. (Col 2:13)

Gospel: "And I tell you, ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened." (Lk 11:9-10)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings7th Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: Brethren: I speak a human thing, because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as you have yielded your members to serve uncleanness,... (Rom. 6:19-23)

Gradual: Come, children, hearken to me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Come ye to Him and be enlightened; and your faces shall not be confounded. (Ps. 33 : 12, 6)

Gospel: At that time, Jesus said to his disciples: Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. (Matt. 7:15-21)

Faith Formation

The Our Father: A Short Course with Dr. Ben Akers

When asked what they should say in prayer the Lord gives his disciples the "Our Father." This prayer is considered a gift from the Lord and one that we should especially turn to in times of crisis. This six-part series will go line by line through the prayer highlighting what it meant to Jesus' first century audience and what it means for us today.

Session 4: The 4th petition, Give us this day our daily bread.

With the fourth petition we begin to ask for things we need in our life. Are we just praying for physical bread or does this request imply more? We will look to the Lord's teaching to discover what kind of bread we need today that he also gives us every day. (30 Min)

Session 4 will be shown after 4pm mass on Saturday July 30 and after 8am and 10am masses on Sunday July 31 in the Marian Rooms.

Pre-Baptism Classes

PRE-BAPTISM CLASSES

Pre-Baptism Classes are offered at Sacred Heart on the Second Tuesday of the month. Thank You From Totus Tuus

Every Catholic has the responsibility to know and serve God. Totus Tuus is an excellent tool for spiritual growth of the Catholic youth. This past week has been an exciting opportunity to experience our faith for us teachers, the students and community. As a team, we've received tremendous hospitality and support from parishioners, for which we are eternally grateful. It's wonderful to see the Holy Spirit at work in each and every one of our lives! Thank you so much for this wonderful week; we hope to see you next year. Please keep us in your prayers as we continue Jesus' ministry on earth.

Here are the latest opportunities to strengthen your faith and connect with the community through giving to the NEAR Food Shelf:

Back to School supplies - We are collecting money and school supplies now through the end of August for this annual program. Many families will need this extra help to get their students ready for the next school year.

Food Drive - Almsted's Fresh Market will be sponsoring a food drive to benefit the NEAR and PRISM food shelves, Friday and Saturday, July 22nd and 23rd. Consider doing your grocery shopping at Almsted's on these days from 10am to 5pm

Donate! Your financial and food contributions to NEAR through your church continue to serve those in need in our community.

In May we served 398 households and distributed 52,550 pounds of food.

Please see our website at nearfoodshelf.org for details.

Calling For Nominations

Calling for Nominations for the Leading with Faith Awards

If you know someone who is an exemplary model of faithful leadership in the secular workplace, then the St. Joseph Business Guild wants to hear from you!

Since the Garden of Eden, work has been humanity's vocation. Our Lord himself labored at his father's business! And the more we celebrate the men and women in our midst who model holiness and leadership in the secular workplace, the more our lives, work, and world as we know it, will be transformed.

So nominate someone you know for the Archdiocese's "Leading with Faith Awards," now presented by the St. Joseph Business Guild! Nominations are due July 29th. Recipients will be honored at a public banquet on November 22nd, 2022, featuring Archbishop Hebda, as well as keynote speaker Monsignor Patrick Shea (U of Mary).

For more information and to nominate someone, please visit sjbusinessguild.com or contact Roger Vasko, Guild President, at roger@sjbusinessguild.com

WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What can I do to help our family practice our faith each day?

Answer:

Some families practice their religion together as just another event on their schedule: go to church, observe Lent, help at the parish picnic, go to a meeting, volunteer time, make your confession, use your envelope... But the focus needs to be on who we are—God's people, in relationship with him, loved, forgiven, and redeemed, and called to live and proclaim the Gospel. Our awareness of God's presence and our sense of mission are supported by the daily rituals, celebrations, and traditions that help us stay focused. Sharing our faith strengthens us and clarifies the beliefs and values of Christian living.

Daily family practices include time for prayer—before meals, before bed, before important meetings and activities. Attend Sunday Mass together and discuss the homily afterward. Create family celebrations for holy days and holidays. Make religion a regular part of your discussions. Include others, especially the elderly and the less fortunate, in your activities and charitable efforts. By applying the virtues of faith, hope, and love to each day, faith becomes part of who your family is. It influences how you act towards others, what you value, and how mindful of God you are. Faith is the leaven of life that helps all of us rise to our calling and dignity as God's people.
