WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The serious disciple knows the necessity and value of discipline. Thinking of discipline as something punitive in nature, we underscore its place in our spiritual lives. Discipline is really about a radical trust in God and his guidance. "When you are conducted by a guide who takes you through an unknown country at night across fields where there are no tracks, by his own skill, asking no advice from anyone, giving no inkling of his plans, what choice do you have but to give yourself completely to his guidance? If you are convinced that he is a good guide, you must have faith in him and abandon yourself to his care (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)."

If someone wants to be physically fit, they readily find a competent trainer who sets them on a rigorous schedule. Determined to reach their goals, they sacrifice personal pleasure and trust in his guidance. Why should it be any different with God? In order to remain true to the way Jesus places before us, we have to listen, learn, and be willing to change. Falling in love with God and maintaining that relationship requires an investment of time, energy, and hard work. Putting personal preferences aside in pursuit of the Gospel and giving proper attention to our spiritual lives is challenging work. At first, "all discipline seems a cause not for joy but for pain, yet later it brings the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who are trained by it (Hebrews)."

"What God does is essentially good. It does not need to be reformed or controlled... If you would live according to the Gospels, give yourself completely and simply to the action of God (Jean-Pierre de Caussade)." Submission to the holy will of God is not a submission to a set of pre-ordained set of circumstances. Rather, it is an abandonment and trust in God's creative, life-giving, and salvific power. God brings light out of darkness and life out of death. Nurturing this bond of trust and seeking God in all things creates an intimate and particular relationship and bond between our Creator and us. When He comes, there will be no issue with us recognizing Him or Him recognizing us. We will have met before.

Home Communion Ministry

Every other Wednesday communion is brought to Catholics in our community who are unable to attend Mass. Over the last several years, the number of people receiving communion ranges from about ten to twenty. Currently there are four parishioners volunteering as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion bringing communion to them plus, if the recipient wishes, spending time visiting and praying. For additional information about the program, including having you or a loved one added to our list and/or if you are interested in becoming a Home Communion Minister, please call Deacon Jim Ramsey at the parish office.

Support a student at SHCS

August is the perfect time to support our Lend a Hand scholarship fund. We have a few families that would benefit from a tuition scholarship. We strive to help as many families as possible to afford the valuable education Sacred Heart provides. Please remember that your dollars give to the Lend a Hand tuition scholarship program are tax deductible, but more importantly they are an investment in the vitality of the Sacred Heart Catholic community. We are sincerely grateful for your continual support over the years.

Parent Testimonial

Sacred Heart is a warm, welcoming school that has an excellent academic program while keeping the focus on faith and family. We love being a part of a broader community and the incredible, personal experience of a smaller school. Spiritual Adoption

MONTH FIVE – Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now, and his mother can feel his movement. Before this time he was too small for her to feel.

Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it - -the inside wall of the uterus has little feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

Say the following daily prayer for a period of nine months.

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

- Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen
