WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Since God created human beings, we have struggled to keep our focus on God. We wrestle with the question of “who is God” and foolishly believe some of God’s job description can be better completed by us. We wander in different directions, lose our way, think that happiness can be found elsewhere and even construct golden calves to worship. Are we simply too independent or just blatantly stubborn? It’s a good question to ask. Even with all of our silliness and distractions, God compassionately and patiently waits. He lets us assert our wills and knows that perhaps one day we will actually wake up and realize how lost we are.

“Since happiness is nothing other than the enjoyment of the highest good and since the highest good is above, no one can be made happy unless he rises above himself, not by an ascent of the body but of the heart. But we cannot rise above ourselves unless a higher power lifts us up ... Divine aid is available to those who seek it from their hearts, humbly and devoutly; and this means to sigh for it in this valley of tears, through fervent prayer (St. Bonaventure).” One of the biggest human struggles is discerning what, exactly, is the highest good. We are ordered to achieve it but if we pursue it with clouded vision, we will never truly find it.

One of the greatest obstacles to God’s power and love is a stubborn, closed heart of stone. When we are fiercely determined to set our sights elsewhere for happiness or simply ride the popular currents of the day, we will never satisfy the deep ache and longing within. We know that ache well. It is precisely why we scurry all over the place, attempting to find the next best thing to take away its pain. Nothing in the created world ever can or will. We continue our journey. One day, people may wake up and realize that they are grazing in the wrong pasture and putting themselves in harm’s way. When this awakening occurs, it will be a most joyous day as we will see God’s wide-open arms waiting to receive us. “Lead me, Lord, in your path, and I will enter in your truth. Let my heart rejoice that it may fear your name (St. Bonaventure).”

Appointed Sunday Readings24th Sunday in Ordinary Time-9/11/2022

First Reading: So the LORD relented in the punishment he had threatened to inflict on his people. (Ex 32:14)

Second Reading: This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. (1 Tm 1:15)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings14th Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: Brethren: Walk in the spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh: for the flesh lusteth against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary one to another; so that you do not the things that you would. But if you are led by the spirit, you are not under the law (Gal.5:16-24)

Gradual: It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man. (Ps. 117:8-9)

Gospel: At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will sustain the one and despise the other (Matt. 6:24-33)

Thank You To Cheryl Schrepfer

Please join the Sacred Heart Parish and School staff in saying goodbye to Cheryl Schrepfer.

Cheryl has run our Childcare Program for 10+ years. She ran both the Toddler and Pre-K Childcare programs. Our Toddler program closed this past January due to a staffing shortage. Both programs were combined shortly thereafter. In August, we lost two additional staff members with no applicants to hire. The childcare profession as a whole is struggling to find qualified staff. As a result, Sacred Heart made the difficult decision to close the Pre-K Childcare program as well. Cheryl has dedicated many years of service as director of these programs. Her quality service will be greatly missed and is something to be modeled. Sacred Heart wishes Cheryl the very best as she retires and spends more time with her family.

We are sincerely grateful for your continual support over the years.

We still have openings in PreK (3's and 4's) and K-8

Parents are welcome to schedule a personalized tour. Discover our school and the activities that enhance each child's educational experience.
