MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD

When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. - Lk 2:17-19

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We hide ourselves and our secrets from God because we are afraid. Even Mary can seem too perfect to approach. The shepherds find the strength to speak to Mary and Joseph at the moment they see the child in the manger. They open their hearts and share what they've experienced. Saint Luke writes of the shepherds, "When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child."

When I was a college student, I visited Rome. Beggars often approached and said, "Mangia? Mangia?" I didn't speak Italian and thought, "Why are they speaking about the Christmas nativity scene?" My friend said, "Mangia" means eat. They're hungry." That's when I realized more deeply than ever before that Mary puts her baby in a place designed for hungry animals to eat.

See that baby in the manger in your heart. Imagine Mary kneeling nearby looking at you with love. She doesn't cling to God for herself. In that cave, from the beginning, she quietly offers her son to hungry souls. The manger means vulnerable self-offering love. That's the sign. This week that same manger opens our hearts to tell Mary about our lives, too.

— Father John Muir

The shepherds returned from Bethlehem "glorifying and praising God." They were affected deeply by the sight of the infant Messiah and the message of the angels. What would the world look like, if we allowed ourselves to be likewise impacted by the word of God?

Epiphany Home Blessing

EPIPHANY HOME BLESSINGS

There is a long-standing Catholic tradition of blessing the home on the Feast of the Epiphany, celebrated next weekend on January 8. This tradition includes marking the lintel above the front door of the house with the initials of the three kings, Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar, along with the year. Prayer sheets and chalk for this blessing will be available for families to pick up next weekend.

Now Hiring Totus Tuus Missionaries

The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis needs college-age men and women with missionary hearts who are committed to their Catholic faith and feel called to share it with the youth (K-12) around the Archdiocese. Are you being called to serve? Do you have a son, daughter, niece, or nephew who would like to live for the Lord as a missionary this summer?

Missionaries will serve by giving of themselves totally through Mary to Jesus, all while teaching youth the about the theme for this year: The Mystery of Salvation along with the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary. This is a seven-week summer position which involves traveling with a team and staying with host families. Apply through the careers page at the Archdiocesan website

Respect Life Ministry

Presently the only Catholic adoption agency located in our Archdiocese, HFCCA was established in 2001, with a mission inspired by Mother Teresa of Calcutta, to promote adoption as the loving answer to abortion.

There is a great need to spread the word about this worthy non-profit organization, because it could make all the difference for someone facing an unplanned pregnancy, and for their unborn child.

JANUARY: CLOTHE THE NAKED

When Martin had nothing except his arms and his simple military dress, in the middle of winter, a winter which had shown itself more severe than ordinary, so that the extreme cold was proving fatal to many, he happened to meet at the gate of the city of Amiens a poor man destitute of clothing. He was entreating those that passed by to have compassion upon him, but all passed the wretched man without notice, when Martin, that man full of God, recognized that a being to whom others showed no pity, was, in that respect, left to him. He had nothing except the cloak in which he was clad, for he had already parted with the rest of his garments for similar purposes. Taking his sword with which he was girt, he divided his cloak into two equal parts, and gave one part to the poor man, while he again clothed himself with the remainder. In the following night, when Martin had resigned himself to sleep, he had a vision of Christ arrayed in that part of his cloak with which he had clothed the poor man.

~St. Martin of Tours, pray for us!!!

The Way to Help

We are going to be doing a sock drive for the month of January. All of the socks will be going to Caring and Sharing Hands.

Caring and Sharing hands is doing great things to help those who are impoverished. They shelter 500 people per night, and paid for over 19,000 people nights of shelter last year.

SO PLEASE BRING YOUR SOCKS IN!

We are looking for new packs WHITE COTTON SOCKS!!!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Question:

What is the history of the rosary? Where did this prayer come from?

Answer:

Although a longstanding tradition attributed the rosary to Saint Dominic and the Dominican Order, the practice of using beads to count prayers predates the Dominicans by a few hundred years. In fact, it seems that what we now think of as the rosary (which means "garland of roses") was first developed by illiterate peasants and religious brothers and sisters as a way of offering 150 "Our Fathers" to replace the praying of the 150 psalms in the Divine Office.

The practice of reciting 150 Hail Marys (which was later subdivided into 15 decades of 10 Hail Marys) arose during the late Middle Ages. Devotion to the rosary began to flourish in the nineteenth century, especially as new devotions to Mary began to spread throughout Europe and the New World. An annual liturgical celebration of Our Lady of the Rosary was introduced into the Church calendar in 1573 and it has been observed on the date of October 7 since 1913. In the apostolic letter On the Most Holy Rosary, Pope Saint John Paul II not only added five new mysteries to the traditional fifteen, but he also reminded Catholics that the rosary is, at its core, an opportunity to go deeper into the life of Jesus: "The rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christocentric prayer ... It has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety, of which it can be said to be a compendium. It is an echo of Mary's prayer, her perennial Magnificat ... With the rosary, the Christian people sit at the school of Mary and are led to contemplate the beauty of the face of Christ and to experience the depths of his love" (no. 1).

WILL YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

PRAYER SUGGESTION

O Lord, may You find shelter and rest gently within the heart of your priest. Make him, O Lord, a priest according to Your heart: meek, humble, zealous, so that all he does will be for Your honor and glory. Mold him into a man of prayer and labor, insensible to earthly things, and sensible only to Your love and to the graces of the Holy Spirit. Amen. (From Our Lady of the Rosary Library, Prospect, KY)
