Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Traditionally, the four writers of the Gospels are symbolized by four creatures that make their way into Church art and architecture: Matthew, an angel; Mark, a lion; Luke, an ox; and John, an eagle. These images can be found in churches across the world, a nod to those who recorded the stories of Jesus for us, thousands of years ago.

Today's Gospel was written by John. There are a few reasons why John is symbolized by an eagle, but my favorite explanation is that his writings soar like an eagle into the sky with their beautiful, poetic language. The prayer we hear today is no different — Jesus invokes God in a long discourse that might seem mystifying at times, the same way that a poem can be perplexing to understand when we are unfamiliar with the pacing or format.

Consider holding onto the shortest sentence in this prayer: "I pray for them."

Jesus prays for us. For me. For you.

Let that sink deep into your being.

Jesus is on your side. He is aware of what you are holding at this moment. He is aware of your pain, your faith, your mission. And He's rooting for you. This prayer was recorded thousands of years ago, far before you were born. Since before you were born, you were held in prayer. With that certainty, we live.

— Father John Muir

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Sacred Heart will be offering The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd method of faith formation for the three to six-year-old children of our parish beginning in the fall of 2023. The catechists will prepare a special environment for the children, which is called the atrium. Please consider donating some of the following items:

2-3 Houseplants, Sacred art images, 4-5 Floor lamps, Sheets of parchment, 1 Water can, 1 Child sized broom, 1 Child sized dustpan and hand brush, 1 Wood spoon, 1 Heat lamp, 3 small pots for dirt, 1 Funnel, 3 Manual Pencil Sharpeners.

If you are a woodworker, seamstress, calligrapher, or anyone that would like to be involved with setting up our atrium or creating some of our materials, please contact Morgan Leisgang at mleisgang@shrmn.org or 763-285-6246.

The Empty Tomb

Jesus died and rose from the dead. Through his resurrection, we have come to know that life is stronger than death, and light is stronger than darkness. The resurrection of Jesus compels us to share the Good News of his life with all people. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atrium, for the older child, there is a three-dimensional material, a model of the Empty Tomb, so that with the child, we may lift up the moment of the discovery of the Empty Tomb, that the child might ponder the true identity of the Risen Jesus. This material also fosters the child's participation in the Paschal Mystery and prepares the child for further biblical studies of the resurrection and the appearance of the Risen Jesus.
