Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I hope you'll acknowledge with me a simple fact: it's not normal to have tongues of fire "part and come to rest" on people. It is actually pretty strange. Yet that is precisely what we celebrate in this feast of Pentecost. How can this mean something to us in our daily lives?

Jews had a tradition that heaven is a temple made of bricks of fire. So, through the apostles, the heavenly temple is coming to earth. But this fire looks like tongues, not bricks. That means that heavenly speech will be crucial to building a dwelling place for God on earth among men and women. So, it's no surprise when the apostles begin to speak in a miraculous way that is understood by all language groups. They are speaking of what God has done in and through Jesus: bringing heaven to earth and uniting all peoples to God and to each other.

How often our speech divides: gossip, slander, insults, and so on. How strange and rare it is when people speak in ways that truly unite instead of divide. Imagine how powerful it would be if you and I began to speak at home, at work, and in our community in a way that made people hear heavenly speech. Imagine if you spoke of the mighty deeds of God in a way that everyone could understand. That's precisely what the Holy Spirit descends upon us to do. Ask Him to come as a tongue of fire to you once again, and He will. Then speak!

— Father John Muir

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

Sacred Heart will be offering The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd method of faith formation for the three to six-year-old children of our parish beginning in the fall of 2023. The catechists will prepare a special environment for the children, which is called the atrium. Please consider donating some of the following items. 2-3 Houseplants, Sacred art images, 4-5 Floor lamps, Sheets of parchment, 1 Water can, 1-2 Watercolor sets, 1 Soap dish, 3 Easel card stands, 1 Heat lamp, 3 Small pots for dirt, 1 Funnel, 3 Manual pencil sharpeners. If you are a woodworker, seamstress, calligrapher, or anyone that would like to be involved with setting up our atrium or creating some of our materials, please contact Morgan Leisgang at mleisgang@shrmn.org or 763-285-6246.

The Feast of Pentecost

So great is the feast of Easter that it continues for another six Sundays, which concludes on the eighth Sunday with Pentecost. The great work of redemption finds its culmination in Easter, but not its conclusion; it waits for the salvation of Christ to spread—through the work of the Holy Spirit—to all men, women, and children of all times. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atrium, the children come to know that Easter would not have been complete without Pentecost.

Thank you to all the volunteers who worked at the Treasure Hunt aka Rummage Sale. We made over $4,000 which is a record for the spring sale. The people who attend the sale very often mention how well things are displayed and how easily they can find what they are looking for (even find things they never knew they needed). It is all because of the wonderful volunteers who do ALL the work. They put in hours and hours to make the sale successful. I cannot tell you how grateful I am for all the hard work they do. God bless each one of you 10 times over. Renee Buchanan
