Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Fr. Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Fr. Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees. — Father John Muir

Committed, practicing Catholic, enthusiastic about modeling and teaching our faith

MN teaching experience

Strong communication skills

Ability to communicate well with parents/guardians of students

Ability to develop and maintain positive relationships with colleagues

Committed to teaching our young children

Did you know that in America today, the number of students who are not reading at grade-level by 3rd grade is 60%?

As many parents know, if children don't become fluent readers by the end of 3rd grade, they will have a difficult time catching up. The average number of struggling K-3 readers in our Catholic school system is close to 25%, and we will not be satisfied until all of our students are fluent readers and achieving all that God intends for them.

How Believe and Read works:

Literacy coaches from Groves Academy will work with our teachers in grades K-3.

In addition to building students' vocabulary and comprehension skills through their regular reading lessons, teachers will incorporate a daily 30-minute phonics-based lesson to ensure students are grasping the reading rules needed to achieve fluency.

Lessons are designed so that teachers will know exactly how and when to introduce each letter, along with its sounds, and how to build up words from there.

Teachers will receive weekly support and feedback from a professional literacy coach, along with assistance in tracking progress.

Set up a tour to learn more about our Believe & Read program

Please call us to set up a tour. If you are not enrolled in our school, we would love to meet you and your children to discuss how Sacred Heart Catholic School could be a great fit for your family.

Saint Biography

Ven. Mary Angeline Teresa McCrory

Venerable Mother Mary Angeline was born Brigid Teresa McCrory in Ulster, Northern Ireland. Her family moved to Scotland beside Holy Family Church in Mossend when she was seven years old and, due to her exposure to the sisters who frequently begged for alms for the aged and the infirm in their care, she became interested in the religious life. A couple years later she changed the spelling of her name from Brigid to Bridget due to her love of the French language. She helped in the church next to her home by arranging flowers and received the pastor's blessing to pursue her vocation. When Bridget was 19 years old, she made her Novitiate in La Tour, France with the Little Sisters of the Poor, and took the name Sister Angeline de St. Agatha. She was sent to the United States after her final vows in 1915. For the first 10 years of her time in the United States, Sister Angeline served her congregation. In 1926 she was appointed as Mother Angeline, Superior of a Home of the Little Sisters of the Poor in the Bronx in New York. During this time, she felt a call to expand the ministry of the Little Sisters of the Poor to also serve the elderly throughout New York City and to incorporate new methods to minister to the unique needs of those living in the United States. With the blessing of Cardinal Patrick Hayes, the Archbishop of New York, she and six other sisters were granted permission by the Vatican to start a new congregation to accomplish these goals. The Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and the Infirm was established in 1929 and was the first American Community of religious sisters founded specifically to care for the aged. The congregation, with the enthusiastic support of the Carmelite friars of New York, became formally affiliated with the Carmelite order in 1931. Mother Angeline served as superior general for nearly 50 years until 1978! The order created homes for the elderly where people could be cared for and live both assisted and independently in community instead of aging alone, assured of care for their health and care for their spirits. Mother Angeline was known for her loving kindness and service to the elderly. She never missed an opportunity to clasp the hand of an aged person stressing how important human touch and kindness was. A warm person, she would say, "If you have to fail, let it be on the side of kindness. Be kinder than kindness itself to the elderly." She died on her 91st birthday in January of 1984. Her cause for sainthood was introduced in the Diocese of Albany in 1989 and Pope Benedict XVI formally acknowledged that she lead a life of heroic virtue, declaring her Venerable. Her Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and the Infirm still engage the elderly in ministry today. They continue to run 18 elder-care facilities, provide long term housing and healthcare, as well as assisted and independent living in both the United States and in Ireland. The Vatican is currently investigating the validity of miracles reported to have happened through Mother Angeline's intercessory prayer which, if validated, would move her cause for sainthood forward.
