Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was in second grade, my prized possession was a metal Star Wars-themed lunch box. After school one day, another student ripped it from my hands. I helplessly watched in horror as my classmate threw it to the ground and violently stomped it into an unrecognizable heap of junk. I came home covered in tears of shame and rage. After a few months, I never thought about it again ... until I was almost thirty years old and on a retreat to prepare for ordination to the priesthood.

That childhood memory — and the attendant outrage — came back afresh. My spiritual director helped me in the process of acknowledging that I was angry because that kid owed me my lunch box. Then she helped me, through the grace of Jesus, to forgive the debt. Almost immediately I felt a new peace. I was amazed that I hadn't forgotten what I had lost, even from years before. Aren't we human beings simply amazing at remembering what people owe us?

We see this week in Jesus' parable a servant who is forgiven much but then commands another servant: "Pay back what you owe!" He can't forget or let go of how he was wronged. He remembers — and he becomes a monster because of it. If only he had remembered not only the debts owed to him, but also his greater debt owed to — and forgiven by — his master. It's natural for us to remember what others owe us. But when we contextualize those offenses in Jesus' mercy toward us and them, we're free to be merciful like the Master and less like a monster who never forgets.

— Father John Muir

Appointed Sunday Readings

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time-9/17/2023

First Reading: Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. (Sir 28:2)

Psalm: The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion. (Ps 103)

Second Reading: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. (Rom 14:7-8)

Gospel: "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." (Mt 18:21-22)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings

15th Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: "Brethren: I pray you not to faint at..." (Eph 3:13-21)

Gradual: "The Gentiles shall fear Thy Name..." (Ps 101:16-17)

Works of Mercy

September's Work of Mercy is to Comfort the Afflicted. We all may have people in our personal lives who need our comfort, whether it be a family member, friend, neighbor, co-worker, etc. We are also aware of many recent disasters around our country and world where people are suffering as a result. First and foremost, we can offer our prayers as a way to show our love for our neighbor. In addition, if you feel so inclined, Catholic Charities USA (catholiccharitiesusa.org) and Catholic Charities Hawaii (catholiccharitieshawaii.org) are providing relief funds for the people of Maui after the devastating wildfire on the island that has claimed over 100 lives thus far and destroyed the town of Lahaina, along with other parts of Maui.

Sacred Heart Catholic School

SACRED HEART CATHOLIC SCHOOL MARATHON Saturday, September 30th at 9:15 a.m. Sanborn Park

The success of our Marathon is a tremendous example of how SHCS families, staff, and parishioners pull together to accomplish our goals. Our goal is for EVERY student to bring in $300.00 for the Marathon. The Marathon is also a celebration and a chance for people to come together. We have fun walking, running or biking. All funds remain here at Sacred Heart and they are used to offset the rising costs of providing a quality education. So if you are asked, "Where does the money go?" Money helps support our academic programs offered at SHCS. Letters to parishioners will be mailed soon.

We will continue using PledgeStar to secure online donations for our 2023 Marathon. This will make it easy for donors to pay online. Our donors may also continue to send us cash or a check. Please consider pledging Fr Pedersen or a student at our school.

Class of 2024

Our 8th graders have a big year ahead of them. We look forward to their leadership as they finish their educational journey at Sacred Heart Catholic School. Have a great year 8th graders!

News From Other Sources– Saint Biography

Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Mother Seton is one of the keystones of the American Catholic Church. She founded the first American religious community for women, the Sisters of Charity. She opened the first American parish school and established the first American Catholic orphanage. All this she did in the span of 46 years while raising her five children. Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton is a true daughter of the American Revolution, born August 28, 1774, just two years before the Declaration of Independence. By birth and marriage, she was linked to the first families of New York and enjoyed the fruits of high society. Reared a staunch Episcopalian, she learned the value of prayer, Scripture and a nightly examination of conscience. Her father, Dr. Richard Bayley, did not have much use for churches but was a great humanitarian, teaching his daughter to love and serve others. The early deaths of her mother in 1777 and her baby sister in 1778 gave Elizabeth a feel for eternity and the temporariness of the pilgrim life on earth. Far from being brooding and sullen, she faced each new "holocaust," as she put it, with hopeful cheerfulness. At 19, Elizabeth was the belle of New York and married a handsome, wealthy businessman, William Magee Seton. They had five children before his business failed and he died of tuberculosis. At 30, Elizabeth was widowed and penniless, with five small children to support. While in Italy with her dying husband, Elizabeth witnessed Catholicity in action through family friends. Three basic points led her to become a Catholic: belief in the Real Presence, devotion to the Blessed Mother and conviction that the Catholic Church led back to the apostles and to Christ. Many of her family and friends rejected her when she became a Catholic in March 1805. To support her children, she opened a school in Baltimore. From the beginning, her group followed the lines of a religious community, which was officially founded in 1809. The thousand or more letters of Mother Seton reveal the development of her spiritual life from ordinary goodness to heroic sanctity. She suffered great trials of sickness, misunderstanding, the death of loved ones (her husband and two young daughters) and the heartache of a wayward son. She died January 4, 1821, and became the first American-born citizen to be beatified (1963) and then canonized (1975). She is buried in Emmitsburg, Maryland. Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton is a Patron Saint of: Catholic Schools, Educators, Loss of Parents and Widows. Her feast day is celebrated on January 4th.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The Capacity to Enjoy

“Young children have a natural ability to enjoy their relationship with God in a very deep way. Children are capable of enjoying the presence of God; they are able to give themselves totally to God’s love. It is only before the age of six that children are completely inside this joy.” Sofia Cavalletti, The Good Shepherd and the Child: A Joyful Journey, revised and updated. If you have any children ages 3-5 that you would like to register for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, please contact Morgan Leisgang at 763-285-6246 or mleisgang@shrmn.org. We still have some needs to complete the atrium. You can purchase the following items by clicking on the link and bringing them to the parish office or by writing a check to Sacred Heart and putting the intended item in the memo line. Please notify Morgan Leisgang at 763-285-6246 or mleisgang@shrmn.org if you have ordered something or written a check.

Music Ministry

We are looking for you!

The Sacred Heart Choir and the Handbell Choir are back for the 2023-2024 season. As Father preached in last Sunday's sermon, one of the Archdiocese's goals this year is to include all parishioners in small group activities. The music ministry is a great area to join in fellowship with your church community and provide a wonderful service to the congregation. Sacred Heart's Music Ministry opportunities include the following:

Sacred Heart Choir: Sings at the 10 am Mass the 2nd and 4th Sundays each month, October – May, plus Christmas and Easter. Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings from 7:00-8:00 pm.

Handbell Choir: Plays at the 10 am Mass the 3rd Sunday each month, October – May, plus Christmas Eve and Easter Vigil. Rehearsals are Wednesday evenings from 5:30-6:30 pm.

Rehearsals begin Wednesday, September 27th. We will have an informal meet and greet, talk about the year, and do a little music. The rehearsals will be in the Liturgical Music Room (basement of the church by the Hubbard side door). This would be a great opportunity to check out our choirs if you have any questions or are on the fence about joining us!

For further information: Visit the Music Ministry page on our Website www.shrmn.org or contact the Director of Sacred Music, Jamie Schmidt at jschmidt@shrmn.org for more details.
