Gospel Meditation Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A life-long Catholic friend of mine recently mumbled to me, “I can’t stand all these converts to the faith. They’re always rocking the boat.” It surprised me because he is dedicated to evangelization, and yet he struggles with openness to new Catholics. It made me realize how easily I close my heart to those whom I perceive to be outsiders who become new members of the Catholic community. Almost unconsciously I reduce the world to the categories of “us” and “them.” The result is that meaningful community silently shrinks in my life. Don’t we all do that to some degree?

This week Jesus’ punchy parable about the two sons blows up that black and white world. One son said he wouldn’t get to work, and then did. The other said he would, and then he did not. “Which did the will of his father?” asks the Lord. Like so many of us, in identifying the first as the answer, the religious authorities manifest hidden hypocrisy in refusing to follow Jesus. They — like us — intuit the correct path but simply won’t do it. The tax collectors and prostitutes are indeed following Jesus and thereby getting to work in the kingdom of God. Everyone is called to do God’s will regardless of the labels we may apply to them.

This week let’s reject the convenient but damaging categories of “insiders” and “outsiders.” Instead, let’s embrace a grateful attitude that Jesus is calling fallen, weak, and broken men and women like you and me. Then we begin to see that the tax collectors and prostitutes aren’t them. They are us. And Jesus wants all of us working in his boat, no matter the rocking.

— Father John Muir

SACRED HEART CATHOLIC SCHOOL MARATHON

Saturday, September 30th at 9:15 a.m.

Sanborn Park

The success of our Marathon is a tremendous example of how SHCS families, staff, and parishioners pull together to accomplish our goals. Our goal is for EVERY student to bring in $300.00 for the Marathon. The Marathon is also a celebration and a chance for people to come together. We have fun walking, running or biking. All funds remain here at Sacred Heart and they are used to offset the rising costs of providing a quality education. So if you are asked, "Where does the money go?" Money helps support our academic programs offered at SHCS. Letters to parishioners will be mailed soon. We will continue using PledgeStar to secure online donations for our 2023 Marathon. This will make it easy for donors to pay online. Our donors may also continue to send us cash or a check. Please consider pledging Fr. Pedersen or a student at our school. Parishioners may also use this link to donate online- <https://secure.myvanco.com/L-YRF5/home>

Brady Swenson Lucky 13 Raffle

We're kickin' it up a notch this year –the stakes have been raised and the payouts are bigger...are you in?

We are SO excited to announce that the Brady Swenson Lucky 13 Golf Tournament is partnering with Sacred Heart Catholic Church to offer a 50/50 raffle this year that will benefit Sacred Heart Catholic School. Each ticket will be sold for $100 and there will be a total of 4 prizes:

- Grand prize is $10,000
- 1st prize is $2,500
- 2nd prize is $1,500
- 3rd prize is $1,000

A total of 300 tickets will be sold, and payments must be made in cash or check – payable to Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The funds will support student scholarships for students at Sacred Heart.

Interest in purchasing tickets must be expressed via email, the parish reception desk, or the school office.

kbursey@sacredheartschoolrobbinsdale.org

All payments must be received before tickets can be issued

The raffle drawing will take place at 3:00 pm, CST, at Sacred Heart Catholic School on Friday, October 13, 2023 (Brady's 17th birthday)

Winners do not need to be present to win. Livestream of the raffle drawing will take place via Zoom – stay tuned for the Zoom meeting link. All winners are responsible for all applicable taxes and fees.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The Religious World of Young Children

One special feature of the religious life of children is the joy they are capable of when they are helped to draw near to God. They feel a particular kind of joy. Many things make children happy, but there are different qualities of happiness. There is a kind of happiness that is more a state of "emotional excitement" and often leads to nervousness, fatigue, and irritability. The happiness they feel when they come close to God is a quality of joy that makes them peaceful, relaxed, as if something very deep has been struck in their heart and they go on listening to this sound in the depths of their heart. It is like the response of someone who has found a life-giving place and, having found it, does not want to leave. It is the kind of joy that involves children completely. If you have questions about Catechesis of the Good Shepherd or want to find a way to get involved, please contact Morgan Leisgang at 763-285-6246 or mleisgang@shrmn.org.

We still have some needs to complete the atrium. You can purchase the following items by clicking on the link and bringing them to the parish office or by writing a check to Sacred Heart and putting the intended item in the memo line. Please notify Morgan Leisgang at 763-285-6246 or mleisgang@shrmn.org if you have ordered something or written a check.

Spiritual Adoption

MONTH SEVEN – Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

You are in the home stretch with your spiritually adopted baby. Beginning this month the baby uses all four senses. He can see, hear, taste, touch, cough, yawn and hiccup. He now recognizes his mother's voice. During this time, he will also receive antibodies from his mother protecting him from a wide variety of diseases.

Say the following daily prayer for a period of nine months.

"Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion."

The Resurrection of the Dead, and the Life of the World to Come

Our faith tells us that with Christ's resurrection comes the promise that one day we, too, like him shall bodily arise. Yet, this belief in the resurrection also leaves us Christians with many questions: What will we look like in the life to come? Will we recognize our loved ones, and will they recognize us? What kind of existence can we expect? What is the difference between immortality, reincarnation, and resurrected life? How do judgment of the dead, hell, purgatory, and heaven fit into the picture? Drawing from Scripture and Tradition, Fr. Michael Patella will discuss the Christian doctrine of the resurrection of the dead along with its implications for us now and in the hereafter.

Oct. 13, presentation from 9am-1pm, Emmaus Hall, Saint John's University, Collegeville. Free event. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, 320-363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.
