Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In our secularized culture, we all struggle with belief in God, at least to some degree. An atheist man named Robert Bridges once wrote to his friend, the Jesuit poet Gerard Manley Hopkins, asking how he could possibly learn to believe in God. Hopkins pithily responded: “Give alms.” Would that help someone tempted by atheism today, like you and me?

I think so, and here’s why. This week Jesus speaks of love for God and neighbor. These dual commands were nothing new when Jesus used them to sum up the Jewish law. What is new is the way he links them together in mutual dependency. In Jesus, God and man have become one. Human-love and God-love are now inseparably married forever.

The newness of the God-man means that there is now a permanently counter-intuitive way into the knowledge and love of God: love of our neighbor. To experience charity is to know God. That’s what Hopkins was getting at for his friend. How we treat our fellow human beings is inseparable from faith in God. Do you want to have a stronger sense of God’s loving presence and goodness? Commit to serving someone today and this week. Love him or her. Don’t wait for love for God to appear in your heart before loving others. Jesus has united divine and human love. If you want to believe more in God, give alms.

— Father John Muir

Appointed Sunday Readings

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time-10/29/2023

First Reading: “You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans.” (Ex 22:21-23)

Psalm: I love you, Lord, my strength. (Ps 18)

Second Reading: For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven. (1 Thes 1:9-10)

Gospel: “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” (Mt 22:37)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings

7th Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: “Brethren: Giving thanks to God the Father...” (Col 1:12-20)

Gradual: “He shall rule from sea to sea...” (Ps 71:8, 11)

Gospel: “At that time: Pilate said to Jesus...” (Jn 18:33-37)

“Thank You!”

A special thank you to Renee Buchanan and her team for all their hard work in making the annual Fall Treasure Hunt a success. An incredible amount of work goes into this monumental effort of helping many of us get rid of our “treasures”. The work of the those who helped with set-up, work during the sale and take-down is greatly appreciated!

Day of the Dead combines the ancient Aztec custom of celebrating ancestors with All Souls’ Day, a holiday that Spanish invaders brought to Mexico starting in the early 1500s. The holiday, which is celebrated mostly in Mexico on November 1-2, is like a family reunion-except dead ancestors are the guests of honor. Day of the Dead is a joyful time that helps people remember the deceased and celebrate their memory.

All Saints Day Masses

News From Other Sources-Saint Biography

Celestina Bottego was born on December 20, 1895, in Glendale, Ohio to an Irish immigrant mother and an Italian immigrant father. When she was 15 her father had to return to Parma, Italy to care for her grandparents. Bottego remained behind with her mother to help care for her younger siblings. As a youth, Bottego and her family lived in Montana where she was mentored by two religious women, Sisters Mida and Perfecta of the Sisters of Charity in Leavenworth, who encouraged her in her faith formation. A bright youth, she scored the highest score in the entire state of Montana on her 8th grade state exams, winning her a feature in the local newspaper, The Butte Miner! Eventually she, her mother, and her siblings joined her father in Italy, and she finished her education there. Upon graduation she became a teacher. During her decades of teaching, Bottego, being inspired by another mentor, a local Benedictine abbot, decided to become a Benedictine Oblate at age 26. She also went on to found her diocesan chapter of the lay Catholic organization, Catholic Action, dedicating countless hours to charitable work — even providing a home for homeless youth in her family's basement, catechizing them and helping them get on their feet. Her sister Mary became a Franciscan missionary to India during this time and, in 1935, when Bottego was 40, she took a month off to visit Mary and serve alongside her. While she was in India she cared for the sick and baptized over 40 babies! Once Bottego returned from India, she began work as an English teacher at the Institute of the Xaverian Missionaries in the diocese of Parma. Her superior at the Institute suggested she establish a women's branch of the Missionaries. Initially she declined the idea but, she eventually she changed her mind and founded the Xavier Missionaries Sisters of Mary in 1945. Bottego became the General Superior of the order and was affectionately known by Mother Celestine by the women she served. Her Congregation stood out because they wore no habits, instead choosing to dress for the work that they would be doing among the people that they served, appearing as lay people instead of in the traditional garb of the women religious of the time. During a short stint with the Sisters in Massachusetts, she was supported in the decision to forgo the habit by American Bishop Fulton Sheen and many more. While serving as General Superior, Mother Celestine had a reputation of being a practical woman with a calm demeanor and a love of literature and humor. She was someone who cared to get to know those around her. Throughout her entire adult life, she exchanged letters with her family, friends, and her fellow sisters all over the world exclaiming that she loved staying up to date with all of their activities. Her reputation as a leader grew and she was invited to the opening sessions for the Second Vatican Council in Rome. She served as General Superior until she retired from the position 1966. In 1980 she died of breast cancer at age 85 and was declared venerable in 2013.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The Prayer Table

In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atrium, the children know that the Bible will always be available at the Prayer Table, so that the child can come and lovingly look at it and listen to it; so the child may become familiar with it and little by little, when they are older, to read God's Word. We still have some needs to complete the atrium. You can purchase the following items by clicking on the link and bringing them to the parish office or by writing a check to Sacred Heart and putting the intended item in the memo line. Please notify Morgan Leisgang at 763-285-6246 or mleisgang@shrmn.org if you have ordered something or written a check.

News From Other Sources

Partner or Servant: What are we looking for when we look for AI?

We all know that computers are excellent tools. But recent advances in AI seem to promise more. Robots are being designed as caregivers and even as sexual partners. Programs such as ChatGPT and Midjourney act as collaborators or relational partners. As Christians we are called to be in relationship with each other and with God. Are we now extending this call to computers? We will examine what it takes for a relationship to be fully authentic, with each other, with God, and with AI. Nov. 10, presentation from 9am -1pm, Emmaus Hall, Saint John's University, Collegeville. If you would like your marriage of 25 years or more recognized please call us now.

Laurel Murry 763-535-4101 Anne Hedlund 763-535-4275

One of the nobler blessings of marriage is the promise that we can actually make each other holy and pleasing to God.

Because marriage is a sacrament, husbands and wives can receive supernatural grace to help them love each other as Jesus loves them, to forgive each other as he forgives, and to be faithful to each other as Jesus is faithful to us.

NEAR

Christmas Toy Distribution

Make Christmas brighter for area children, youth, and teens as this popular NEAR event returns to the Crystal Community Center in mid-December! Make donations of toys and gift items for boys and girls ages birth to 18 (with largest need from ages 9 to 18). Popular items include stuffed animals, gloves (youth/teen sizes), sports balls and gear, electronics, fleece throw blankets, and art kits. Monetary donations to NEAR for the even are also very helpful as they allow volunteers to catch the best sales and stretch every dollar! If writing a check, please note "Toy Distribution" in memo line.

WILL YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

PRAYER SUGGESTIONS

O Jesus, Eternal High Priest, live in (name of priest), act in him, speak in and through him. Think your thoughts in his mind, love through his heart. Give him your own dispositions and feelings. Teach, lead and guide him always. Correct, enlighten and expand his thoughts and behavior. Possess his soul; take over his entire personality and life. Replace him with yourself. Incline him to constant adoration and thanksgiving; pray in and through him. Let him live in you and keep him in this intimate union always...

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen
