Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

When I was a kid, I hated playing Monopoly because my siblings and friends always seemed to win. But worse was how it happened. Scared to risk my fake money on buying properties, I'd hold on to it. My opponents hungrily bought up the various real estate squares on the board. Then, inevitably, my poor, low-equity self would land on their spots, pay them rent, and my money would drain to zero. It seemed so unfair. The rich get richer, and the poor get poorer. I had to learn that monopoly money is meant to be spent. I was scared to lose some of it. So, I lost all of it.

How do we see what we possess? Jesus' parable about the talents is not really about economics but about the investability of everything he entrusts to us. How marvelous that everyone in the fable who places talents in the open market doubles their investment. The only one who doesn't is the man who fearfully buries his one talent. Jesus' success strategy for us seems to be, whatever we have, get it out of our possession. Risk it as quickly and as fully as we can.

You and I have precious gifts. We have valuable things to invest — time, talents, treasure. The Lord invites us to be brave and even somewhat reckless, to give as much away as possible. If we give it away in the direction of love and truth, it will grow. If we hold on to it in fear, the little we have will be taken away. Let me challenge you this week: find something in your life you're holding on to, and risk it by giving it away. It won't double if you hold on to it.

— Father John Muir

Appointed Sunday Readings

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time-11/19/23

First Reading: She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. (Prv 31:12-13)

Psalm: Blessed are those who fear the Lord. (Ps 128)

Second Reading: But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. (1 Thes 5:4-5)

Gospel: "Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy." (Mt 25:21)

Welcome!

We are pleased to welcome Liz Gerads to the Sacred Heart Parish & School Staff as the new Director of Advancement. Liz has been a professional fundraiser for the past twelve years and has worked for organizations such as the Salvation Army, Special Olympics and the American Heart Association. Liz has always loved the parish of Sacred Heart as she has extended family that call Sacred Heart home and has hosted the Youth for Life Conference at the parish. She is looking forward to continuing to build a strong school and church community at Sacred Heart.

Please also welcome Audrey Gilbert to the Parish Office Staff. She is assisting with some bookkeeping duties on a part-time basis and we are happy to have her on staff!

Our JV Volleyball teams wins 3rd place in playoffs

The JV girls continually improved their volleyball skills throughout the season and took 3rd place to bring home a trophy! Thank you to coach Katie Powell.

It is not too late to support our gym floor fundraising effort. For over 50 years, students have experienced joy while playing and working together in our gymnasium. Learning lessons about fair play and wholesome competition – winning and losing graciously. This beloved space has served us well, it is an important part of our vibrant school community hosting gym classes, assemblies, school celebrations, holiday programs and many parish events. As a member of the Sacred Heart family you know just how important this space is to our students and to our parish and school community.

Please consider a gift to Sacred Heart Catholic School to help us keep the gymnasium the hub of activity for another 50 years. You may donate online on our school website:

<https://secure.myvanco.com/L-YRF5/home> or drop off a check in our school office.

The Three Great Feasts in the Liturgical Year

The mystery of Christ permeates time. During the Liturgical Year various aspects of the mystery unfold. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atrium, the child comes to know the three main feasts of the year: Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost. In what ways do your Christmas, Easter, and Pentecost celebrations point to and flow from Jesus? How do you prepare for these celebrations at home?

Christmas Toy Distribution

Make Christmas brighter for area children, youth, and teens as this popular NEAR event returns to the Crystal Community Center in mid-December! Make donations of toys and gift items for boys and girls ages birth to 18 (with largest need from ages 9 to 18). Popular items include stuffed animals, gloves (youth/teen sizes), sports balls and gear, electronics, fleece throw blankets, and art kits. Monetary donations to NEAR for the even are also very helpful as they allow volunteers to catch the best sales and stretch every dollar! If writing a check, please note “Toy Distribution” in memo line.

Sacred Heart Cenacle

Carlos Manuel Cecilio Rodriguez Santiago was born on November 22, 1918, in Caguas, Puerto Rico and grew up in a devout Catholic family. He attended the local Catholic grade school and served as an altar boy. Carlos graduated from eighth grade in 1932, at the top of his class, winning a medal for religion. However, his early success in academia was not to continue. During his high school years, he was diagnosed with ulcerative colitis, a gastrointestinal disorder. Unable to complete high school at Perpetual Help Academy in San Juan due to his condition, he moved back to Caguas and over several years worked part-time and studied, finally earning his high school diploma in May 1939. In 1946, Carlos began to work towards a bachelor’s degree at the University of Puerto Rico. Despite excelling academically, illness again prevented him from completing his degree. Undaunted and with a true love of learning, he continued his studies informally, even teaching himself to play the piano and the church organ. His love of the sacred liturgy led him to begin publishing the magazines Liturgy and Christian Culture, filled with liturgical texts that he translated into Spanish and edited. He organized a Liturgy Circle in Caguas and later another in Río Piedras at the University to spread the power and beauty of the liturgy and the love of Christ to all. In 1948, he formed a choir called Te Deum Laudamus. He was an active member of the Brotherhood of Christian Doctrine, the Holy Name Society, and the Knights of Columbus. He also taught catechism to high school students. He lived simply, with humility and grace, giving all to the Kingdom. A mark of his humble lifestyle was that he only owned one pair of shoes. At the time, before Vatican II, the Catholic Mass was only celebrated in Latin. Carlos worked to promote the idea that Mass should be celebrated in the language of the people participating. He translated the Latin Mass into Spanish so that the beauty of the prayers offered could be understood by those in his community. In addition to his love of the liturgy, he had a particular passion for restoring the Easter Vigil to the night of Holy Saturday. He was known to often say, “Vivimos para esa noche.” (“We live for that night.”). Carlos was to see this change officially implemented by Pope Pius XII in 1952. Carlos Manuel's life was cut short when it was discovered that he had terminal cancer. He died in 1963 at the age of 44. Marked with the status Venerable in 1997, Pope John Paul II beatified him, declaring him Blessed, only 8 years later — the fastest beatification of a lay person to date. He’s fondly remembered today as “Blessed Charlie” and is the first Puerto Rican and Caribbean-born layperson in history to be beatified by the Church.

Prayer

Oh God, Father of Goodness, who inspired Blessed Carlos Manuel with an ardent devotion to the Paschal Mystery and moved by the generosity of Your grace, led him to the joyful celebration of the mysteries celebrated in the Liturgy; You also filled your servant with apostolic zeal and love for those in need. Grant us, through his intercession, that, celebrating with faith the holy mysteries of the Death and Resurrection of Your Son, we may live in life what we celebrate in the Liturgy. Grant us, too, the special grace that we now ask of you (ask for the grace that is desired).

Through Jesus Christ your Son and our Lord.

Amen.
