Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

In May 2023, for the first time in almost three quarters of a century, a monarch was crowned in England. A few days later a friend of mine scoffed, “What a waste of time and energy! What is the point of a king?”

I’m a proud American who wants neither theocracy nor monarchical restoration. I like our democratic republic. But the coronation of King Charles reminded me of something needed in every person and community: confidence in the future. The king’s most basic role is to symbolize the unity of the nation. In England, the parliament members handle many of the practical duties of governance. But the king or queen can do what they cannot: embody in a single person the reality and future of a whole nation. To say, “this is our king” is to say, “we exist as a community, and we have a future.” Kingship isn’t primarily about the power of one person or family. It’s about the enduring identity and unity of the whole.

To say Christ is our King is to say we exist as a people. We are one in him. We are, and we will be as long as he is. And since he will be our risen king forever, together we have a future filled with hope. Even the best countries will finally fall. But Christ and his Church will endure forever. What good news! It’s not a waste of time to crown a king. We do it all the time. Let’s be sure to crown the right one — the one whose kingdom never ends.

— Father John Muir

Appointed Sunday Readings

Christ the King of the Universe-11/26/2023

First Reading: As for you, my sheep, says the Lord GOD, I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats. (Ez 34:17)

Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading: When everything is subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him, so that God may be all in all. (1 Cor 15:28)

Gospel: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will be assembled before him. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats." (Mt 25:31-32)

Latin Mass Sunday Readings

The Last Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: "Brethren: We cease not to pray for you..." (Col 1:9-14)

Gradual: "Thou hast saved us..." (Ps 43:8-9)

Volunteers Needed

If you like donuts and can make coffee (super easy), we are looking for volunteers to assist with Coffee & Donut Sundays. We typically provide hospitality on the 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month. November and December have some changes, but after the 1st of the year, we should be back on schedule. Time commitment is 7:30-11:30am, or this can be split between 1-2 people. If you would like to volunteer, please contact Mary Daugherty at 763-285-6241 or mdaugherty@shrmn.org. It is so easy, it almost runs itself!

NEAR Food Shelf

Christmas Toy Distribution:

Make Christmas brighter for area children, youth, and teens as this popular NEAR event returns to the Crystal Community Center in mid-December! Here is how church members can help... Make donations of toys and gift items for boys and girls ages birth to 18 (with the largest need from ages 9 to 18). Most needed and popular items include stuffed animals, gloves (youth/teen sizes), sports balls and gear, electronics, fleece throw blankets, and art kits. Monetary donations to NEAR for the event are also very helpful as they allow volunteers to catch the best sales and stretch every dollar! (Please note Toy Distribution on any check memo line). The first deadline for donations is November 19th which allows volunteers time to sort largest amounts of items. The second deadline for donations is December 10th for final toy and gift items. If you have any questions, please contact Dave Kiser at 763-516-2246.

Sacred Heart Catholic School

Please support our gym floor fundraising effort

Thank you to the many people that have made a contribution to Sacred Heart or through Give to the Max for our gym floor. For over 50 years, students have experienced joy while playing and working together in our gymnasium. Learning lessons about fair play and wholesome competition – winning and losing graciously. This beloved space has served us well, it is an important part of our vibrant school community hosting gym classes, assemblies, school celebrations, holiday programs and many parish events. As a member of the Sacred Heart family you know just how important this space is to our students and to our parish and school community.

Please consider a gift to Sacred Heart Catholic School to help us keep the gymnasium the hub of

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The Liturgical Calendar

While the civil calendar orients us to secular life, the liturgical calendar orients us to religious life and, more importantly, helps us to re-live various aspects of the life of Jesus. When we refer to the seasons and feasts on the liturgical calendar, we are not only remembering the historical events that happened in the past, but we are celebrating what continues to happen today. We can do so because the person who is the center of our seasons and feasts is the person of the Risen Christ, who is alive and continues to be revealed to us. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, the children learn about and work with the liturgical calendar.

Catholic Q&A

Question:

Why are some saints honored as “patron saints”?

Answer:

Each person is unique and each of us has different gifts, interests, talents, and, yes, even struggles and areas where we need to grow. This is no less true of those holy women, men, and children who have been canonized or beatified. Because we believe that the saints and blessed are both models of faith and intercessors, Christians have looked to certain holy people as role models and heavenly protectors for occupations, spiritual charisms, and even places. Although the Church sometimes names a person as a patron saint (e.g. Saint Philip Neri as the patron of Rome, Saint Clare of Assisi as the patroness of television, or Saint Aloysius Gonzaga as the patron of youth and young adults), more often it is popular devotion that inspires lay Christians to turn to a particular saint or blessed for heavenly help and support. This is how, for example, Saint Cecilia came to be honored as the patroness of musicians, Saint Toribio Romo as patron of migrants coming into the United States, and Saint Gertrude of Nivelles as patroness of cat lovers. Although there are official and unofficial lists of patron saints, we should always feel free to ask any and all the saints to give us their patronage and protection in whatever it is that we need.
