Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

— Father John Muir

Extreme Faith Camp 2024

Information on Extreme Faith Camp 2024 is here! Moving forward, all the different weeks of EFC throughout the Archdiocese will be held at Trinity Woods Catholic Camp and Retreat Center in northern Wisconsin. The camp offers over 700 acres of north woods beauty (including two private lakes). EFC 2024 will be July 8th - 12th this year. Sacred Heart will be attending with St. Vincent de Paul in Brooklyn Park, Holy Name of Jesus in Wayzata, St. Michael in Farmington, St. Therese in Deephaven, Our Lady of Peace in Minneapolis, and St. Bartholomew's in Wayzata. It will be an absolutely amazing, life-changing week! Space will be very limited though, so signing up soon is the best way to secure a spot! Registration forms can be found through the Parish Office, or at all entrances of the church. The cost of EFC will be $425 a person this year. This covers the full cost of the camp, the camp t-shirt, bussing, and extra camp snacks. There will be several fundraising opportunities coming later this winter and early this spring. There will also be scholarships available if you are in need of financial assistance. Please reach out to Matt Kruc at mkruc@shrmn.org for more information about camp, registration and financial aid.

Funeral Luncheon Helpers

For many years, Sacred Heart has had incredibly dedicated funeral helpers. AS the years go by, less and less people are able to help out. Here is where you come in! We are looking for funeral luncheon helpers. The commitment is 1-3 hours per funeral (times and day of the week vary). The average funeral requires 3-5 helpers. You will help with set-up, serving, and clean-up. We are also looking for dishwashers. The commitment is 1-2 hours per funeral. We require 1-2 dishwashers per funeral. If you are interested in this opportunity to help serve fellow parishioners and their families through the loss of their loved one, please reach out to Maggie Powell in the Parish Office at maggiemp@shrmn.org, or 763-285-6248. Please include your name, phone number, e-mail address, and availability.
