4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie “Nefarious” features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, “What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?” Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The man’s identity is fractured, divided, and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, “Quiet! Come out of him!” Jesus’ word has the power to restore the man’s singularity — him — and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for his word where we need it?

— Father John Muir

Funeral Luncheon Helpers

We are looking for funeral luncheon helpers. The commitment is 1-3 hours per funeral (times and day of the week vary). The average funeral requires 3-5 helpers. You will help with set-up, serving, and clean-up. We are also looking for dishwashers. The commitment is 1-2 hours per funeral. We require 1-2 dishwashers per funeral. If you are interested in this opportunity to help serve fellow parishioners and their families through the loss of their loved one, please reach out to Maggie Powell in the Parish Office at maggiemp@shrmn.org, or 763-285-6248. Please include your name, phone number, e-mail address, and availability.

Messianic Fulfillment-Part 1 : The Jews may be home, but in a sense they are still “slaves” and spiritual “exiles.” They wait in longing for the coming of the Messiah and for the promised Jubilee. Humanly speaking, things do not look good for Israel. But during this time, God has been quietly preparing the world for the next stage in his plan.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

LIGHT

In the gospel of Luke (2:29-32), we hear about Simeon, a devout old man who is waiting in the Temple. God revealed that he would not die before seeing the Messiah. When he held the infant Jesus in his arms, he prays, “Now Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel.” In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atrium, the children take great delight in knowing Jesus as the light that came into the world.

Saint Bios

St. Blaise | February 3

You may be familiar with the annual "blessing of throats" that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life. History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions, and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived. Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer:

Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Information on Extreme Faith Camp 2024 is here! Moving forward, all the different weeks of EFC throughout the Archdiocese will be held at Trinity Woods Catholic Camp and Retreat Center in northern Wisconsin. The camp offers over 700 acres of north woods beauty (including two private lakes). EFC 2024 will be July 8th - 12th this year. Sacred Heart will be attending with St. Vincent de Paul in Brooklyn Park, Holy Name of Jesus in Wayzata, St. Michael in Farmington, St. Therese in Deephaven, Our Lady of Peace in Minneapolis, and St. Bartholomew's in Wayzata. Registration forms can be found through the Parish Office, or at all entrances of the church. The cost of EFC will be $425 a person this year. This covers the full cost of the camp, the camp t-shirt, bussing, and extra camp snacks. There will be several fundraising opportunities coming later this winter and early this spring. There will also be scholarships available if you are in need of financial assistance. Please reach out to Matt Kruc at mkruc@shrmn.org for more information about camp, registration and financial aid.
