WE ARE HEALED BY Compassion

Gospel Meditation*Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us.

— Father John Muir

Catholic Services Appeal

In today’s Gospel story, Jesus cleanses a leper with the words, “Be made clean” (Mark 1:41). The faith of this leper moves God to give him the outward cleanliness he sought. This healing would allow him to re-enter Jewish society, from which he had been cast out. Jesus says he came that “they might have life and have it more abundantly” (John 10:10). He didn’t just come to cleanse the outside, like the Pharisees, who “cleanse the outside of the cup and the dish”” (Luke 11:39). He came to renew all of us, outside and in. We need your help to meet the many needs of those around you. Jesus says that, “As to what is within, give alms, and behold, everything will be made clean for you” (Luke 11:41). Jesus says there is a connection between almsgiving and the true cleanness of life which the Jews sought. Small wonder: Almsgiving requires sacrifice. It requires the same spirit of sacrifice that we need to take up our personal cross valiantly. Our Catholic Services Appeal is in full swing and encourage you to take this opportunity to help us help others. Last weekend, we had a chance to hear from Archbishop Hebda on this year’s Catholic Appeal and Fr. Pedersen walked us through the in-pew process. There are still envelopes available in the pews at church or in the Parish Office.

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

The parable of the Mustard Seed speaks of the Kingdom in terms of something very small, so small that it probably escapes our notice. And yet it grows and changes into something new and very great. In the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atrium, we wonder with the children over whose great strength within that seed must cause this to happen. He proposed another parable to them. "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown, it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.'" – Matthew 13:31-32
