April Work of Mercy

Forgive offenses

The Catholic Spirit
 November 4, 2016
 Father Michael Van Sloun

To forgive offenses is one of the seven spiritual works of mercy. It is also variously known as to “forgive all injuries” and to “forgive sins.”

There are at least three major spiritual benefits: the one who forgives is liberated from bitterness and resentment, the one who is forgiven receives mercy and a new beginning, and the community experiences conflict resolution and the restoration of harmony.

Jesus gave the great commandment: Love God and love your neighbor. Because of our flawed human nature and our propensity to sin, everyone who offends against love and relationships is harmed or broken. The way to return to love, mend relationships and heal offenses is to forgive. Forgiveness is the flip side of the love coin.

Jesus is the best example of forgiveness. As Jesus hung in crucifixion, he forgave those who falsely testified against him, wrongly condemned him and cruelly tortured him when he prayed, “Father, forgive them” (Lk 23:34). If God is love, if nothing is outside of God’s mercy, and if Jesus is the son of God, then it was a spiritual imperative for Jesus to forgive those who had offended him. To do otherwise would have been to carry anger and resentment with him to the grave, which is no way to die, and it would have disproved his divinity. Jesus did what God does. He was “gracious and merciful ... abounding in steadfast love and relenting in punishment” (Joel 2:13).

Jesus demonstrated forgiveness again after his Resurrection. His disciples offended him when they abandoned him at the time of his arrest, and Peter further offended him with his denials. Jesus had every reason to be hurt and angry. Yet, when Jesus appeared to them on Easter Sunday night, his first words to them were, “Peace be with you” (Lk 24:36), which amounts to “I forgive you.”

Jesus knew the importance of the forgiveness and stressed it in his teaching. He taught that we should forgive those who trespass against us (see Mt 6:12; Lk 11:4). Once Peter asked Jesus, “Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive him?” And almost congratulating himself, Peter added, “As many as seven times?” (Mt 18:21).

Matching Donor for our Gym Floor

Sacred Heart Catholic School has raised over $60,000 toward our gym floor project, but our work is not done! We have donor that will contribute $50,000 once we raise $100,000. Our gym floor was installed in the 1970s and is in dire need of replacement. This space serves as a place where our children play, athletes compete and our community and school gathers.

We are pleased to announce that a generous parishioner has come forward with a matching grant for our gym floor replacement project. Now through May 17th ,every donation will match dollar for dollar, up to $10,000! This means your $20 donation is now $40, your $100 donation is now $200 dollars or your $1,500 donation is now $3,000! Help us reach our goal and provide a beautiful space for our school and our community!

With $150,000, we plan to replace the gym floor, purchase the remaining new stage, add cordless microphones for our drama department, paint the gym, and look at replacing our scoreboard and/or add a drop down screen. These enhancements will create a new gym space that will be used by our entire community.

We hope you will consider donating today to help us reach our goal! Your donation doubles with our matching grant. Click on the QR code below to donate.

Synod News

The newly formed PECS (Parish Evangelization Cells System) were reported in an April 5th Catholic Spirit article touting more than 1,220 groups with 16,000 members in our archdiocese. Small Groups have been well received, here, at Sacred Heart Parish with groups increasing to 10 and over 70 members already having found a schedule that works for them. The Archdiocesan Series on Prayer was studied and appreciated during Lent. With this successful Year I Synod small group strategy behind us, Year II is prioritized by Archbishop Hebda on the Holy Eucharist and the Mass, and it is being unveiled by him this last week of April. The archbishop is promising a “toolbox” of ideas to teach and experience the beauty and grandeur of this Sacrament that is central to our lives while asking all to “keep it simple.” Signup for those not yet registered in a group will be available May 11-12 and May 18-19 in the Commons “to keep us connected.” Groups can be joined at any time through the parish website, by calling the church office, or by following the QR Code on cards in the pews. The study on the Mass begins in July.

WILL YOU PRAY FOR A PRIEST EACH DAY?

PRAYER SUGGESTIONS

O Jesus, Eternal High Priest, live in (name of priest), act in him, speak in and through him. Think your thoughts in his mind, love through his heart. Give him your own dispositions and feelings. Teach, lead and guide him always. Correct, enlighten and expand his thoughts and behavior. Possess his soul; take over his entire personality and life. Replace him with yourself. Incline him to constant adoration and thanksgiving; pray in and through him. Let him live in you and keep him in this intimate union always...

O Mary, Immaculate Conception, Mother of Jesus and Mother of priests, pray and intercede for (name of priest). Amen
