Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A protestant pastor friend of mine was invited to meet Pope Francis with a group of other pastors. He noticed the Pope's chair was especially ornate and set at the head of the group. He somewhat playfully said, "Holy Father, why do you get that special chair?" The group chuckled nervously at my friend's audacious chide.

The following year, the group was invited to return. They entered the room to find only simple chairs placed in a circle. Pope Francis entered, sat down in one of the humble chairs and, looking directly at my friend, with a twinkle in his eye, asked, "What do you think of my chair now?" My friend was stunned that the Pope remembered his concerns — and took the time to answer them.

Thomas the apostle was certainly stunned by the Risen Jesus displaying his wounds in person. But he also must have been equally shocked that Jesus knew and answered his particular questions, worries, and even demands related to his faith. How humbled — and perhaps a bit terrified — he must have been to realize God remembers his concerns and cares enough to answer them.

What questions or demands about Jesus do you find in your heart? Like Thomas, will you be bold enough to voice them this week? How wonderful to know that if we do so, God will remember and respond even to our most audacious desires.

— Father John Muir

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

The children have been presented Eucharistic Gestures like the Preparation of the Cruets, Preparation of the Chalice, and the Epiclesis over the past few weeks. Currently, they are working with the Last Supper (Cenacle) presentation. This presentation sets afire the historical moment of the Last Supper focusing on the words of consecration, the action of Jesus in the upper room of the Cenacle, and the gift He gives of Himself in the bread and wine that becomes the Eucharist.

We need the following materials purchased for the children in the atrium. Please consider donating by writing a check to the Church of the Sacred Heart and noting the item in the memo line. Thank you for your generosity!

Chalice and Paten - Micro Set $26

Rosary Gems

The rosary has obtained great conversions such as those of Ratisbonne and Hermann Cohen; it has given strength in battles against violent temptations, as experienced by St. Alphonsus and St. Francis de Sales; it has preserved baptismal innocence, as in St. Louis Gonzaga and in St. Rose of Lima. Blessed James Alberione, The Evangelist of the Rosary, 1884-1971

Eye Has Not Seen

They say seeing is believing. But if you’ve ever ordered a pair of pants online, you know that’s not always the case. Whatever the photos promise us, what looked like a perfectly nice shade of navy blue on our computer screens comes in the mail as an unusual shade of blue green that only appears in the giant box of Crayola crayons. The Apostle Thomas, who couldn’t bring himself to accept that Jesus had risen from the dead without seeing him, is such an utterly relatable figure in the Gospels. Thomas is still reeling from a loss — not only of his good friend but his Lord, who was taken prisoner and crucified before his eyes. Thomas is guarding himself. He’s not believing the hype. He’s going to be the only judge of what is real and what is fiction. Would any of us be any different? We’ve all had those thoughts. Can we believe it all — Jesus, salvation history, the Eucharist — when we haven’t seen it with our own two eyes? That’s when we need to remember that those two eyes were absolutely positive they had ordered a pair of navy blue pants. It’s easy for us to sit back stroking our chins in judgment at Thomas, “you didn’t believe the testimony of your friends!” But do we accept the testimony of our friends? The saints, the popes, the Church fathers themselves? Sometimes the things that are most worthy of believing can’t be seen with the naked eye.
