11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants.” - Mk 4:30-32b

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS)

Over the past two and a half years, Catechesis of the Good Shepherd (CGS) has benefitted me personally and professionally. It has set my heart on fire with the truths of the faith, aided my understanding of child development (which I was grateful to receive before becoming a parent), increased my participation at Mass, and formed deep friendships with other catechists. I want to share some of the gifts of CGS in my life and invite you to consider if God is calling you to join this great work at Sacred Heart.

The CGS presentations have lifted up key gestures in the Mass like the offering. Through the priest's gesture and words, Jesus is offered back to the Father, with thanksgiving and praise. When I am at Mass, I consider how everything we have is from God (recalled in the gesture of the epiclesis when the priest's hands overshadow the bread and wine) and everything we can offer back to God is also from God (recalled in the gesture of the offering when the priest lifts up the paten and chalice)! CGS has aided me in a deeper appreciation of Scripture. I used to be dismissive of the parables and maxims (like "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect") because I couldn't "figure them out". Now, I've seen the beauty of pondering them and what they can tell us about remaining with Jesus on the vine or about creation, redemption, and parousia (when God will be all in all).

CGS assists the child in falling in love with God AND engages content from an intellectual level. This convinces me that it is the best faith formation model we have. Everything in Level I (3-6 years old) is about falling in love with the Good Shepherd. In Level II (6-9 years old), the child uses their reasoning mind to work and study which leads to prayer. These two moments (falling in love and then engaging intellectual content) complement each other. The first excites and makes the faith come alive. The second moment can be rich, deep, and full, IF it is preceded by the first. Many of us have stories to share from our lives or the lives of others who walked away from the faith because of this lack of integration.

Hearing responses from the children this year increased my faith. The children really were quiet in the atrium! They really did enjoy their work. They said things like, "He is the Light of the World" and "Jesus is in our hearts." I am excited to see how CGS brings children, parents, and the entire Sacred Heart community to a greater love of God.

Training to be a catechist is a large commitment, but also such a gift. If you are interested in being trained, here are the upcoming dates. Please reach out to me to learn more or to register.

St. Ambrose, Woodbury- July 23, 24, 25, and August 20, 21, 22

The Way of the Shepherd, Blaine- August 7, 8, 9 and August 14, 15, 16

St. Joseph, West St. Paul- Sept 21; Nov 16; Jan 18, 2025; Feb 15, 2025; March 22, 2025; April 12, 2025

If you are interested in serving CGS in other ways like assisting the catechist during atrium sessions or making materials, we need both. Please contact me about helping. If you want to know more about CGS, scan this code to visit the blog of a local catechist and formation leader. Pray for the children, their families, and the catechists.

In Christ,

Morgan Leisgang

Blessing of Fathers

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father. When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not to give up. We hold up these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others. Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance. We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Rosary Gems

"According to the Dominican tradition, St. Dominic founded the rosary in the year 1208. After having devoted all his efforts to trying to win back the hearts and minds of those who had been swept away by the Albigensian heresy, . . . the Virgin Mary entrusted the rosary to St. Dominic, instructing him in its use and implementation, . . . the Queen of Heaven informed him that the rosary was to be understood as a weapon of war and a battering ram against heresy." Grieving Dawn

A MORNING OF REFLECTION
ON MISCARRIAGE, STILLBIRTH,
AND INFANT LOSS

This morning, led by Dr. Abigail Jorgensen, author of A Catholic Guide to Miscarriage, Stillbirth, and Infant Loss, will offer comfort and hope to those who have experienced the profound sorrow of perinatal loss. Whether you are directly affected by loss or supporting someone who is, this event seeks to provide solace and strength through shared faith and understanding.

SATURDAY

JULY
2024

8:30 AM

Abigail Jorgensen is an assistant professor of sociology and health care ethics at Saint Louis University, as well as a certified doula and childbirth educator. She teaches grief-informed, research-based trainings for those supporting families through perinatal loss.

Jorgensen earned a bachelor's degree, a master's degree, and a doctorate from the University of Notre Dame. She is a member of DONA International, Lamaze International, and the American Sociological Association. Jorgensen also facilitates a bereaved parents community group.

She has spoken at conferences for the American Sociological Association, the de Nicola Center for Ethics and Culture, DONA International, and FemCatholic. She has appeared on Kresta in the Afternoon and been featured in Today's Catholic and the National Catholic Register. Jorgensen has written for FemCatholic, the Young Catholic Woman, and Notre Dame Magazine.
