Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, “Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while.” For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there’s more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. “Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!” And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn’t more vacation time. It’s experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

— Father John Muir

Synod Year II

Archbishop Hebda’s desire of the heart is for every parishioner to be in a small group like Jesus modeled for us by calling his Apostles to be connected and part of the salvific mission. The archbishop’s Synod Year I plan established PECS (Parish Evangelization Cell Groups) designed so participants can jump on board at any time and bring others in. Our Catholic Church grows and serves one another to bring the Good News of the Gospel and to extend this to our families and friends.

To continue to move the archdiocese forward, Year II Focus is on The Mass and Eucharist. The entire Sacred Heart Parish will be guided by Fr. Pedersen through this most holy endeavor to further our understanding and encounter with Our Lord. Father has chosen Advent and Lent materials for study and sharing by Bishop Barron and Dr. Sri. Our Parish 7 PECS GROUPS are being updated to get ready for Fall Year II content that will lead into the Advent Season. A GOOD TIME to JUMP ON BOARD IS NOW. Wonderful things are happening when we connect and become part as Jesus modeled. Take a look at the website archspm.groupvitals.com/login featuring our parish opportunities and those throughout the archdiocese. There are a variety of groups at Sacred Heart to serve many populations; they provide scheduling and location options of meeting on campus or in homes to accommodate. Check it out. Sign-up through website (can also access by using QR Code) or call parish at 763-285-6248. Fall content offerings will soon also be featured in the bulletin and through signage in the foyer.

Sacred Heart Cenacle

Sacred Heart Parish is forming a Prayer Group, meeting on the First Saturday of the Month.

We will be praying for the conversion of our loved ones, children, grandchildren, relatives and friends. Come join us in community on August 3rd at 8am Mass followed by the Rosary in the St. Joseph Room, to petition the Lord our God and ask for the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Children are welcome. Father Pedersen will be hearing confessions from 9-9:30am in church.
