Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Since my college days I've loved a song called "Dance with You" by the rock band Live. It touches on the deep mystical hunger of our heart: "I've tasted all the wines/ a half a billion times/ came sickened to your shore/ you showed me what this life is for." These lines resonate with anyone who has feasted on the good things of this world only to be left spiritually hungover and unsatisfied.

We see a similar dynamic evoked by Jesus' words after he feeds the crowd with bread and fish. To teach them to hunger for God, he recalls God's gift of manna-bread for the hungry ancient Israelites. Those folks had grown spiritually sick from the idolatrous food of Egypt yet still longed for more worthless pagan food. So, God sent heavenly bread to nourish their bodies, but also to heal their distrustful hearts. His people — like us — must learn to hunger and thirst for God alone. Before we can receive that which will not disappoint, we first must cease expecting that earthly goods will satisfy us.

We will get to the Lord's teaching on the Eucharist in the next two weeks. But first, he asks us: do you trust me to take care of you? Do you trust me to give you what you need for each day, and to not worry about the next day? Do you see that when you hungrily stuff yourself with the things of this world you become sick and lose your taste for the bread of life? So, our hungry hearts cry out: Lord, help us to trust that you'll provide for our every need. Help us to use only what we truly need. Help us hunger for the goodness of your Son, who is the true bread from heaven. That is what this life is for.

— Father John Muir

Synod Year II

Archbishop Hebda’s desire of the heart is for every parishioner to be in a small group like Jesus modeled for us by calling his Apostles to be connected and part of the salvific mission. The archbishop’s Synod Year I plan established PECS (Parish Evangelization Cell Groups) designed so participants can jump on board at any time and bring others in. Our Catholic Church grows and serves one another to bring the Good News of the Gospel and to extend this to our families and friends. A GOOD TIME to JUMP ON BOARD IS NOW. Wonderful things are happening when we connect and become part as Jesus modeled. Take a look at the website archspm.groupvitals.com/login featuring our parish opportunities and those throughout the archdiocese. There are a variety of groups at Sacred Heart to serve many populations; they provide scheduling and location options of meeting on campus or in homes to accommodate. Check it out. Sign-up through website (can also access by using QR Code) or call parish at 763-285-6248. Fall content offerings will soon also be featured in the bulletin and through signage in the foyer.

Respect Life Ministry

MONTH SIX – Developing Baby Spiritual Adoption Program

Your spiritually adopted baby is developing quite beautifully now. Her weight is approaching two pounds. Babies born prematurely at this time have a very good chance of surviving. The medical advances in caring for extremely small newborn infants are extraordinary indeed. Don't forget to pray for your baby. Abortion is legal through all nine months and her mom might still feel pressure to abort. Say the following daily prayer for a period of nine months. "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, I love you very much. I beg you to spare the life of [baby's name] the unborn baby that I have spiritually adopted who is in danger of abortion." - Prayer of Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

Rosary Gems

"The rosary, if rightly considered, will be found to have in itself special virtues, whether for producing and continuing a state of recollection, or for touching the conscience for its healing, or for lifting up the soul.
