Letter of Appreciation

Catechetical Sisters of Arogyamatha
(The Society of Sisters of Arogyamatha Convent)
208 Tilden Street, Kenedy, Texas - 78119

Sr. Stella Kambala CSA
Superior General's US Rep.

8/20/2024

Dear The church of the Sacred Heart.

Gratitude is the attitude of every grateful person. Here comes Sr. Stella kambala CSA on behalf of our congregation "The Catechetical sisters of Arogyamatha" to express thanks for the opportunity given to get to know you. We appreciate your continued support for our mission in India. Blessings and good wishes from Sr. Selvi Rayappan CSA, Our Superior General and all the sisters and the Novices from India.

All the sisters had various programmes during summer. We all had a seminar and ongoing formation for two different groups, and preparations for the General Chapter which is to be conducted in first week of October. This keeps all of us too busy reviewing and renewing all the phases of our Religious life. we request your prayers for us at this juncture to get the New Leader in early October/2024.

This year we could get 10 new candidates who joined our congregation to become nuns. 2 Novices became Nuns and 4 young Nuns received perpetual profession and 2 sisters celebrated their Silver Jubilee. Please pray for more vocations to our Order.

Indian school academic year started in late June and all our students and sisters are back to the schools after a hot summer vacation for 45 days. Some of our candidates go to the High school and they stay in the hostel. Many of our orphan kids with single parents returned back to the orphanage. Most of the sisters started working in the schools and helping the poor kids who don't afford to go to other private schools.

We sincerely appreciate your kindness and generous contribution to continue our ministries in the midst of poor and the needy. God's choicest blessings up on you all and our continued prayers will remain with you always.

Thank you and God Bless you.

Spiritual, Beer, and Monastic Tradition

Beer has shaped societies and continues to evolve in response to changing societal values and environmental changes. Looking at the cultural, religious, and ecological dimensions of beer brewing, spanning millennia and continents, Brother Denys will explore various cultures, roles and practices related to beer. This fascinating exploration starts with the Sumerians, highlighting the Goddess Ninkasi and the ancient roots of brewing, to the Middle Ages focusing on Christian monastic traditions and the crucial role beer played in monastic life, to the 19th century discussing the temperance movements in Minnesota and Pennsylvania and the response from German Benedictine brewing traditions. Lastly, we turn to contemporary times, examining modern monastic breweries in Europe and the United States that continue the legacy of ecological stewardship, emphasizing sustainability and responsible practices in brewing.

September 20, presentation from 9:00 AM - 1:00 PM, Emmaus Hall – Saint John's University, Collegeville, MN. Synchronous*. Free event. Registration is required: www.theologyday.com, 320-363-3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.

Rosary Gems

"In Every Catholic Home, even the poorest, it is possible to find a rosary. Above all, in the hour of prayer, in church, or during a funeral, one notices that the faithful keep in their hands a rosary. In moments of joy or sadness, whenever the faithful turn to God in prayer, they recite the rosary and are deeply bonded with it. St. Maximilian Kolbe, The Knight of the Rosary, 1894-1941
