Worship & Meditation

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I craved four things as a teenager: success in sports, food, fun and the attention of popular people. However, I noticed that as I acquired them, I was more unsatisfied than before. So, I'd strive even more energetically, achieve more, and the sense of emptiness was greater still. These four things started to feel like burdens or even curses. Soon after, I encountered Christ in my high school youth group. Experiencing his love was totally different than anything those four things previously produced. It produced a lasting happiness.

Jesus utters a kind of four-fold curse in this week's Gospel of Saint Luke's "woes": "Woe to you who are rich...who are filled now...who laugh now...who are well-spoken of" (cf. Luke 6:24-26). How marvelous that these correspond perfectly to the four things that obsessed my teenage soul: riches, food, laughter and good reputation. The "woes" the Lord speaks are warnings: when those things are the purpose of your life, you'll be miserable. He is saying, "You'll be happy, or blessed, in the measure that these things do not determine the shape of our lives, and the kingdom of God does."

To some degree, we're all spiritual teenagers, addicted to one or more of those four "woes." How splendid that the Lord wants his to bless us — that is, to satisfy us, make us laugh with joy, and in the kingdom of God, offer us what will truly satisfy us. But first let's admit what is causing our "woes."

— Father John Muir

Spiritual Work Of Mercy

February Spiritual Work of Mercy:

Pray for the Living and the Dead. Some suggested ways to fulfill this work of Mercy in February include a holy hour of prayer at Thursday Adoration (9am-8:30pm), Pray a Lectio Divina, Pray the Rosary, check out the Rosary in a Year podcast through Ascension Press. Com, offer Masses for the dead.

Catholic Service Appeal

Trusting God can be difficult. We say we trust that God will provide, has a plan for us, will heal us, loves us no matter what, etc. Still, surrendering to God's will and trusting, as St. Francis de Sales reminds us, that he will "...either shield us from suffering or gives us strength to bear it" is easier said than done. Self-reliance, it seems, is more in our nature. But look what happens when we trust in God's ways. Like Simon Peter's nets that are so full of fish they begin to tear, our life yields incredible fullness when we trust in God. Maybe this fullness doesn't always take the form we want, but it is always what we need. Time and time again, we experience God's boundless love, but fear causes us to revert to the habit of relying on our own efforts. We are afraid to give ourselves over to the Lord even though He repeatedly tells us to "be not afraid. Even in our own faltering, we can help others experience God's grace – and experience it ourselves. By supporting our Catholic Services Appeal, we can bring this feeling of plenty to those who need to know God's love for themselves.

Devotion

Stations of the Cross, Explained

In the earliest years of Christianity, the locations central to the story of Holy Week — the Garden of Gethsemane, Calvary, the Holy Sepulcher, and more — were destinations for pilgrims who wanted to experience Christ’s sacrificial love for us in a physical way. In the years after the Crusades, pilgrimage to the Holy Land became impossible for most Christians, and the Stations of the Cross was popularized as a devotional means to pray through the passion and death of Christ.

Throughout history the number of stations has varied, with different traditions focusing on different events. In the 18th century, the number was officially fixed at 14 by Pope Clement XII. These stations are taken from the Gospel accounts of Christ’s passion and death, though there are several which are derived from tradition and apocryphal sources, such as the meeting of Mother and Son and St. Veronica wiping the face of Christ.
